

NORTHAMPTON:

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1805.

James Halligan and Dominick Dealey, were, on Friday evening last, committed to prison in this town, for the murder of Marcus Lyon, at Wilbraham, as mentioned in our paper of last week.—They were apprehended at Rye, in the state of New-York, and are both foreigners.