8. Historical significance.

For a number of years in the mid 20th century it had been suggested in the annual reports that the farm buildings should be relocated at a greater distance from the main hospital buildings. In 1959 this piggery was built, a third of a mile from the Main Complex, and two years later a dairy barn was built a half-mile from the Main Complex.

In 1966 the decision was made to eliminate the hog herd at the State Hospital, and the piggery was no longer used.
