timents in political matters: which by the law of the land he had a right to do-the antient civil law, under Roman edicit, has been long ago exploded and extinguilhed by civilized na-tions higheft for learning, erudition and fame. Whence is it, that the writ of habeas corpus is fufpended in the Commonwealth of Mallachu-ferts? Is it not through the confummate ignorance of lawyers and pettifoggers? Mifera fer-witur off, ubi jur off vogume aut incognitum. JUNIUS.

Commonwealth of Maffachuferre. By his Excellency JOHN HANCOCK, Efq. Governor of the Commonwealth of Maffacht-

fette. A PROCLAMATION. HEREAS the Legislature of this Common-wealth, with an intention, "not only to adopt every vigorous and efficatious method, necessary to suppress the present traiterous opposition to the laws, and to restore peace and harmony to the Commonwealth, but also to repeat the offers of grace and mercy to the penicent citizen, and to extend the fame as far, as may be confiftent with the true interest of this Commonwealth, and the fecurity of her citizens in future ;" have, by a resolve of the thirteenth day of June instant, made provifion for the raifing and supporting a force, to de-fend the Commonwealth, against all wicked and rebellious men : and have also with a very extenfive clemency, by the fame refolve, provided, that " each and every citizen of this Commo wealth, who have committed any treatons or milprifions of treaton against the fame, fince the milprings of treaton against the same, muce the first day of June, A. D. 1786, be, and they there-by are indemnified for the same, and for all seby are thurst aged for the lame, and for all fe-lonies which had been perpetrated by any of the Taid citizens in the committions of treatons, and which are overtacts of the lame; and each and every chizen aforefaid, are thereby difcharged o. all pains, penalties, disqualifications and disabil-ities of the law in such case made and provided;" ities of the law in fuch cafe made and provided;"

Possidd. That purfuant to the faid refolve, fach of taid offenders, who have not taken and finbferibed the oath of allegiance to this commons wealth, fince the first day of Juce, A. D. 1786, thall take and fubferibe the laid oath, before any justice of the Peace within the Commonwealth, on or before the twelfth day of September usin;
control on the first independent of the property of the p on or before the twenth day or september that excepting out of the fame indemnification, as well all fuch persons as had been convicted of such crimes by duecourse of law, as Doniel Sany, Juch crimes by due course of law, as Daniel Shays, of Pelham, Gentleman, Lake Day, of Well-Springfield, Gentleman, both of the county of Hampshire, and Lieutenant-Colonel Milliam Smith, of the Same county, Eli Parjan, of Adams, Gentlemen. Pèrez Hamin, of Lenrx, Yeoman, Elifes Manning, of a place cassed the Eleva Thousland Acres, Yeoman, David Danblum, of Shessell, Yeoman, Elevezer Crittenden, of Sandisfield, Yeoman, Tacto Fex, of Washington, all within the county of Berkhute, whose crimes are so attroctions, and whose obstinacy so great, as so exclude them from an offer of that indemnals. as to exclude them from an offer of that in as to exclude them from an offer of that indem-mination, which is extended to those who have been milled, and are not fo flagrantly guilty. I have therefore by and with the advice of Council, and at the requell of the General Court, thought fit to fifue this Proclamation; that the extention of mercy and indemnification offered by the Leidentey and extention of mercy and indemnification officed by the Legistrure, may be fully known, to those unhappy offenders who are the objects of it; and who have here deceived by wicked and defigning men, and to give them affirences of their indemnification for all past treatons, mispissions of treaton and felonies, and of being again renewed to the arms of their country, and once more employing the rights of free citizens of the Commonwealth.

As the legister were fine and the state of the country of the state of the country of the c

As the lenient meafures taken by the General Court, coinciding with the wifnes of all good men who lose their country, and ardenly with the perfect reftoration of peace and tranquil ity, cannot fail to convince the people of the ity, cannot ran to convince the people of the whole State, that should the unhappy and deluded offenders, the subjects of said indemnity, again spurn at the elemency of government, and continue their attrocious and traiterous tions to overthrow the Commonwealth, the most spirited and decisive measures must be adopted e And I cannot but believe, that the good fenfs of my fellow-citizens, the regard the people have for the Confliration of civil government established by themselves; their know-ledge of their true interest; the obvious needfity of good government, and the unhappy and diffreshing consequences of supporting govern-ment by the sword, will unite all ranks and orders of men, in the pursuit of peace, good order uers of men, in the purious of peace, good order and due obedience to the laws.

And all officers civil and military, who may be called upon the duty of their officers to carry, the refolve aforciaid into execution, are hereby firially enjoined to yield a ready and punctual and in the elevanth year of the independence of the United States of America.

GIFEN at the Council-Chamber in Boffon, the .

THE NOTE OF THE PROPERTY OF THE By His Excellency's command. John Avery, jun. Secretary.

SAVANNAH, May 17. The camp of runaway negroes on Savannah river feems to be totally broken up; fome of them are coming in daily to their owners; and there is no doubt but their leader, Sharper, has been killed by the Carolinians or Indians.

been killed by the Carolinians or Indians.

May 24. By the rigilance and activity of Ifrael Bird, Efg. of Cansuchie, and fome of his flaves, Lewis (second in command of the gang of runary negroes lately routed by col. Gunn) was taken laft week, and brought to town on Saturday. Laft Monday he was tried, and being found guilty of robberry, &c. he was fernenced to be hanged on the 9th of June next.

PHILAD.ELPHIA, June 9.
We are informed that the Federal Convention, among other things has refolved that Rhodelland thould be confidered as having virtually withdrawn herfelf from the union, and that the state of the confidered in the state of the confidered in the confideration of right of emitting paper-money, by the flates jointly or feverally, ought to be abrogated. It is proposed in the first case, that for the proportion of the federal debt now due from Parish. proposed in the first case, that for the proportion of the sederal debt now due from Rhode-sidand, the shall be beld, and if gentler means will not avail, the shall be compelled to be responsible; but upon to account shall the be restored to her fation in the Union. And in the other case, it is proposed to establish a mint for the receipt of Bullion, from which the states are to draw coin, in proposing to their research which is proposition to their research contributions. in propertion to their respective contributions.

The Convention bave sent to New-York for the laft return of the accounts between the individual fraits of the confederated body.

It is remarkable, fays a correspondent, that the

It is remarkable, fays a correspondent, that the cry of fearcity and poverty energales with the appearance of expence and luxury. in the mode of living, pursued by the inhabitants of this city. The collisines of the furniture, the profusion of the table, the elegance of equippage and the refinement of drefs, mult, to the observation of a stranger, before a fallence and prosperity, while the tenor of convertation the accumulation of debts, and the impunctuality of payments, would, indeed, indicate real want and actual infoltency. indeed, indicate real want and actual infolvency. indeed, indicate real want and actual infolvency. There is fearner a first too, that does not prefent us with fome improvements in building, at the very moment that hundreds of houses are unteranted; and while crowds are daily retiring to the dithair chitricis of the continent, we find the city rapidly extending to its welfers boundary. the ditant entricts of the continent, we find the city rapidly extending to its welfern boundary. Would it not add to the happinels of Pennfylvania, were her critizens to profes less poverty, and to practice more exconomy,—were they to cultivate the bleflings in their posterion, rather than 66 engage in pursuit of visionary characters.

June 11. On Saturday Jaff a gentleman ar-June 11. On Saturday Jaff a gentleman arrived in this city from Fort Pirt, and informs, that about the râth ultime, ar Caleb Lane, John Williams, Samuel Robertfon and Daniel Wright west going down the Ohio to Kentucky, they went on flore on the welf side of the river, and were immediately furrounded by a party of Indians, who fired upon and killed two of them, took the other two prisoners, and made off. This transaction was discovered by some persons of transaction was discovered by fome persons of their way up to Fort Pitt from Kentucky, who transaction was differented by some persons on their way up to Fort Pitt from Kentucky, who heard the report of the fire, and saw some of the Indians; but neither their number nor tribe could be affertained. Two of those unfortunate young men were inhabitants of New-Jericy, and the other two, it is supposed belonged to the state of New-York.

Hate of New York.

Accounts from Rentucky mention, that five persons have lately been killed by the Indians on the north fide, among whom were a fon and overseer of Gen. Scot's, who were out on a fowloverleer of Gen. Scots, who were out on a towling party—That three women were killed in a place called the Rich Valley, near the head of Hollon, and many others killed on the waters of Chinch.—Several of the Indians have been feen near the great road that leads—from Hollon to Wincheller, which has alarmed the people tery much.

June 13. Though the particular arguments, debates, and decitions that take place in the federal Convention, are confidered as matters of fecrecy, we understand, in general, that there exists a very great diversity of opinion amongst the members, and that there has been already a wonderful display of wildom, cloquence and particular. Some schemes, it is faid, have been projected which preferre the form, but effectually destroy the spirit of a democracy; and others, more hold, which regarding only the necessity of a strong executive power, have openly thera, more aoua, which regarding only the ne-cething of a frong executive power, have openly rejected even the appearance of a popular confit-tution. From the plans of this laft description, there is little reason to apprehend danger, for the people will hardly be induced to make a vofurrender of their rights ; but they may perors, the freedom of the people was tilling pearance preferred; the SEMATE was fall of ployed in managing the business of the particular management of the particular was coined by their authority, and creft of pablic affair received their fanction. The pablic affair received their fanction. public affair received their fanction. It that fame time we know, the most flocking better ties were exercised by the emperors, who wis their actions met with no fignificant opposes were well fainfied that the people would a flatter themselves with the empty stew of particular than the property flow of particular that the people would a flatter themselves with the empty stew of particular than the people and the flatter themselves with the empty stew of particular than the people and the people and the people are the people and the people are the people and the people are the people a

1. 人人工会员

er. June 15. Wednesday last arrived in that of from the Cherokee nation, Mr. Alikander Diggede, with Scenetopab, a War Captain, and one of the principal Chiefs of that nation. The one of the principal collets of that nation To will leave this place in a few days, for New Ye will leave this place in a few days, for New Yet to reprefent to Congress some grievance, as to demand an observance of the Treaty of the well, on the Keewee, which they say violated and infringed by the lawless and may violated and infringed by the lawlest and uni-whites on the frontiers. We are informed thete a Chockas King, ad. We are informed thete a Chockas King, ad. Chickasaw Chief, are also on their way to Net York, to have a fall with Congress multi-ent the chain of friendship. We learn from good authority, that ferms the northern tribes of Indians are diseased.

We tearn from good authorny, that feven the northern tribes of Indians are disposed war, as well as the Creeks to the fouthward, w have been farmithed with arms and for the bloody purpose by our good friends Spaniards of South-America.

NEW-YORK, June 15.

A melancholy accident happened on the third instant, at the house of Major Wo liam Ballard, who lately removed for Amefbury, in the State of Maffachuler Bay, to Warner, in the State of Ner Hampshire. A little girl, daughter Major Ballard, who, with other childr was left at home, while the reft of the f mily went to attend divine lervice, it fuppoled, cassied a coal of fireinto achin ber where there were fome shavings, which taking, foon communicated the firms the whole house, which was new, and a most finished, but that, together with t unhappy girl, was foon confumed. Me Ballard perceived the flames from the meeting house, which was about a m diftant ; but alas ! con late to afford to affiftance to fave even the smallest articl the arrived only foon enough to behin forme remains of the head & armsofherer ly daughter, which the fire had separate from her body, and they had just falls through the floor -- the diffressed pares had buried an elder filter to the deceale but a few days before, who died whileh father was absent on bufinels in Amelban whither he had returned again but the di before a mellenger was fent with the above ditmal tidings.

PORTSMOUTH, June 12 On Wednesday laft the Great and Gr neral Court of this State convened at Con cord, and proceeded to bufiness in thefol lowing order:

About fixty of the gentlemen returns ferve as reprefentatives in Gent Court, affembled in the State House, and taking the usual oaths, made choice of the Hon. John Sparbawk, Efg.for their Speak er, and John Calfe, Eig. for their Clerk

Then fuch or the members of the Hon Senate as were chofen by the people a large, affembled in one room with the Hon House of Representatives, and proceeds to examine, fort and count the votes for a Prefident; the whole number of which throughout the flate, amounted to 9285 and were divided in the following manner viz tor

His Excellency John Sullivan, Efg. 3642 Hon. John Langdon, Ho. Hon. Josiah Bartlett, Eig. Hon, Samuel Livermore, Efq. 607

About 378 votes for fundry geatlements by which it appeared that the people had untion to the fame.

Illustry turrender of their rights; but they may indeed be deceived, by the finitety of outward not made choice of a Prefident agreeably filtering do so f June, in the year of our Lord, The forms of liberty were preferred in the Rome of the confliction. The Court then prefer the middle specific the most intolerable system.

MAN government, after the most intolerable system.

PORTLAND, (Maffatbufetts) Tune 8. The three Eattern Counties have but 10 Representatives in Court-York 7, Lincoln 3, and Cumberland none; while the county of Worcester alone has near 50.

B O S T O N, June 21.
Several vacancies having taken place in the Council (occasioned by refignations) and those varancies being now filled up, the Honourable Council for advising the Governor in the execufire part of Government for the year enfuing,

Hon. Nathan Cothing,
Jonathan Greenleaf,
Edward Cutte,
Junes Sullivan,
Oliser Phelps,
If ael Hotchinfon. John Froft. -Thomas Daws, and Peter Penniman, Efoures.

On Tuelday laft, his Excellency the Governor fent the following meffage to the two branch-es of the General Court, viz

Gentlemen of the Senate, and Gentlemen of the Senate, and Gentlemen of the Hill feel Representatives;

I your reloution of the 13th init, you have extended the elemency of government to all the inhappy and deluded people who have been benerated in the late infurred long excepting the control of the contro nme of the principal leaders. This act of benig-nity and mercy, I conceive cannot fail to induce these nubappy then to return to the open arms thele unbappy men to return to the open arms of their country, and again to enjoy the bellfings of a free government; but thould their delafton and infatuation be full continued; full the boself and loyal part of the community be but-thered with trajes for importing a force to defend the flate, against a few citizens who depart fend the flare significated a few citizens who depart from the original compact, and refute to be gov-erned by a majority of the Reprefentatives annu-ally elected by the people? Surely-no-man who-loves the peace and tranquality of the govern-ment, will suppose that the whole force of the commonwealth, if necessary, should not be ex-tered to reduce uch of them as shall hereafter common unrectaimed?

tontinue unreclaimed?

But you are featible, gentlemen, that by the confliction is out of my power as Governor, to transport any of the inhabitants of the commonwealth, or oblige them to march out of the limits of the lambs without their free and volument content, of the content of the General Court, and therefore thould a very small force be continued to apport the that without the limits of the form Learner march the

Tou will allo please to connect the districts of marching troops into another fovereign flate, without the concent of the government there, and that this may render it necessary to treat with some of the other flares on that fobject.

As the effect of your act of indemnity cannot As to effect or your act or indemnity cannot be foon fully known, and as the citizens of the flate may be endangered by new hostlitike, before the next meeting of the General Court, I think it my duty to fuggest these ideas, that you may pay them fuch attention as you may think they deferve.

The object of my mentures shall be to restore peace and good order to the commonwealth, and I cannot doubt of your countenance and fepport in every meafure which you may think spointed to that great and defireable end JOHN HANCOCK

Council-Chimter, June 19, 1787.

NORTHAMPTON, June 26. On Thursday lalt, Jafen Parmenter and Hen-7 M Collock, had LIKE to have been hanged. Extrad of a letter from a gentlemon in Langhoringh to his friend in this town, dated June 18,

1787. "On the night of the 13th inflant, adittle be-"On the night of the 13th initiant, astitute pe-fore day-break, I was furprified by a very rude botte at my door, being found in fleep when it commenced—and before I had really come to my fenfer, I found my bed furrounded by three or four rulians, with runs and bayonets. They immediately demanded a candle—I offered to artic and zet one, but was forbid thiring on pen-lary of inflant death.—My wife finally obtained blerry to avite and procure a candle; but beliberty to arise and procure a candle; but be-fore this, one of the villains found way and had introduced himfelf into the chamber where my the best, and with a very suffere voice exciaintd, was are you for ?- Lincoln, replied the man : the confequence of this answer from the innoeent man, was the reception of a few fevere blows with a market, though he did not get very badly hurt. The villains foon introduced a can-dle into the chamber, and after plundering a cheft, which they broke open, they proceeded down flairs, bringing their prisoner with them. cown mars, bringing their prifoner with them. They immediately began fearching the lower room, and after pillinging what they pleated, began to think of making their edgape. My apprentice, who happened to be our that night, and coming home in the midli of the fray, was not different with the middle of the fray, was not different below. We have the continuous terms of the continuous terms not difcovered by their fentry till he had got quite to the house, when he immediately hailed him; i the lad being furprifed at fuch an abrupt and fudden challenge, did not give an immediate answer; the fentry upon this, fired at him; the contents of the piece paifed about 2½ feet from his head and entered a log of my house—I bave fince extracted the charge, and find it to contain one buck flot, and one ball of an enormous fize. Previous to their departure, they extorted frommen, my hired man and supremental the superior of the superior mous fize. Previous to their departure, they exterted iromene, my hired man and apprentice, an oath, not to reveal the transactions of the night, nor efpoute the cause of government any more; and also to repair to their head-quarters whenever they knould call for us—and in conficuence of my breaking the oath, they would pay me shother wift, bern my house, and execution feene of bloodshed upon me. However, I said lique regard to their injunctions, and foon diddoled the matter, after their departure.

My Jole of property is very confiderable—I shall not attempt to enumerate the article him it con-My lole of property is very confiderable—I shall not attempt to enumerate the articles, but it conhirs principally in clearling."

A thip arrived at Botton the week before laft

Amp arrived at bonon the week ornor ian from Cadiz, on Spain—the Captain of which on his arrival, entered at the Naval-Office, twelve thousand dollars.

thoughed deilear.

The series of the series which I detected a grand, and petted them at the most convenient plates for discovering the movements of the rebels, in case they should a very small force them to aproy the stare without the sortes you have ordered to oppose them, under you make provision for the same.

Before this, should a number of men, who have restinguished their connection with algorithm to the start star grands and the start star grands and the start star grands and start start the start star grands and the start star grands and start s

A LL persons indebted to the Estate of James Oliver, late of Conway, deceased, either by book, note or bond, are defired to exhibit the for fettlement immediately, to ALEXANDER OLIVER, Administra(tor-de bonis non. Conway, June 24, 1787.

OTICE is hereby given to the following non-refigure proprietees of land in the town of Granby, in the county of Happotine, that their lands are taxed in the lift of 1784 and 1785, as follow; viz.

Stard Tax.

Town 5. County Tax.

Tofferh Broaks.

5 2 2 3 3 3

Juferh Broaks. 5 2 2 William Taylor, 5 5 k 3 William Waton, 2 2 3 William Watton, 1 2 2 Editund Damon, Luty Smith, 2 6 a Rev. S. Cook's heirs, 1 1 3 Rice, Bayley, Washan Smith, 2 5 2 John Hamlin, p 15

John Hamilin,

Calets faid trace are paid on as before. Yednelday the fift day of August ears, to much of faid Land with be then fold at Public Vendue, as the hook of Jarredsmith, inabolder in Granby, at two of clock P. M. as will be fufficient to dillahage the lanne, with interrecing charges.

SIMEON MOODY, Contlable. Granby, Jane 13. 1787.

TO BE SOLD,

A Namber of LOTS of LAND, in the town of Colvain,
A belonging to the Elizar of Julius Winflow, Elq. formagrily of follow, decedied. The late to be on the 6th day of Loty, text, as the house of Mr. Robert Miller, in fall Colv

Per order of the heirs to faid efface. Colrain, Jane 5th, 1727. Breck, Shephard and Clark,

INFORMS their customers and others, that for Sale, at their Store a few rods eaft of the Court-house, in Northampton, a general af-fortment of India and European GOODS: Amongh which are the following Articles, BROADCLOTHS. Taffaties. Coatings. Kerlemeers. Cyprus, Tifrany. Corduroys. Shawle Sattinen Lawn Aprons. Jeans and Fuffians. Lawn Handkerchiefe. Everlaitings. Baizes and Flannels Nankings. Handkerchiefs of all Blankets. kinde Buttons of all forts. Velvein Twift and Sewing Silk.

Ribbons and Taffes.
Quality and Binding. larfeiles Quiltin Cambletts and Ca ; bletcens. Laces and Thread Ruffele. Callinances Worlted, Thread & }Hofe Durante Tammies. Shalloons. Tapes. Breeches Pieces. Furniture Check. Panline Prenella. Silk, Gloves Worked & and Checke Callicoes. Chintzes. chip Hats. A variety of Luteftrings, for gowns,

A general Affortment of HARD WARE. confifting (befides a great variety of other

Sheet and bar Lead. Powder and Shot. Brads and Tacks, of all Candlefficks. Door Handles Pewter and Tin Meafures, of all fize... Iron and Brafs Weights and Scales. Sythes and Sickles. Warming Pans. Caffee Pots. An effortment of Hol-

S . O, Lifbon, Malaga and Wine. Port J Frontinac, Ditto. Loaf and brown Sugar. Wool Cards. Salt. Cod Fift. Chalk. China Cups and Sancers. An affortment of Glafe Crown Sea and Crockery Ware, Bonca and Green Tea Cinnamon. Quille. Ink-Powder. Ginger. Snuff. Cake Ink. Bibles. Pipes. Linfeed Oil Teftaments. W. India & Rum. Primers, and Wafers.

French Brandy.
Which will be fold for Calh, Grain, Flar-Seed, Pot-alh, Pearl-alh, Salts, Bees-Wax, Old

Pewter.

As they fell for prefent pay only, they are determined to fell at a lower advance than Good have been ever fold in this part of the country. June 27, 1767.

To be SOLD at PUBLIC VENDUE, O'NO O'NO HE HOD. Judge of Probate)
O'N Wednedlay the field of August next, at two o'clock
P. M. 170 Acres of LAND, I jung into the two of blezh, belonging to the Ritate of Jonathan Thayer, late of laid Reath, decarded. ASAHEL THATER, Administrator.

Henh, Juma 22, 1737.

Henh, Juma 22, 1737.

RUNA way-from the dublember the tearth inflient, an apprendict BOY, named William Newton, about verney fear of age, duck completion, is a hearty youth. All perinangire cautioned against harbouring him—Whoever will take up (all Boy and enemeral him to the foliciting, that receive 2 wo Dollars and accellary charges, per me. Northfield, Jane 29, 2787.