Fran ite Magachufett Centinel.

Mr. Russian Mr. Ru

It was prefaced with the Intowing performance from Pope:

(O fone of cart! sittempt ye yet to rile,

By mountain pild on mountains to the kies?

Heav's fill with laughter the vain toil furers,

And buries malanes in the heaps they raile.

Then followed these three lines, which ferre to give fone idea of the shaped of the poem:

6 God! how they dirar! should fick-fertune drop

Those multiroun lording where the pick dithemp

In tinker's, coblet's, or b. k b.— 's, shop!'

The following extrash are taken from freefal para or the work:

The following extracts are taken from feveral parties with:

"Be grareful then VE CHOSEN mod rate wife, Nor firsteh your claims to fuch prependerous fixe, Left your too partial construct wite, grown—Shood on your native duag, hills, for you down. Ape not the fathon of the foreign great, Nor make your betters at your fevers wait—Refign your awkward pomp, parade and pride, And lay that glefs trice the side;

The onthinking laugh, but all the thinking hard Such vile, shouther minickey of date; Th' unthinking laugh, but all the thinking have Such vile, aboutive ministery of flate; Those idle lackers, isour ring at your door, But ill become poor fire autro if the POOR; Retrench your board, for e'en' the giels who dine, Haye canfe to murmur at your floods of wine: Think not to bribe the wife with their own gold, Though foods by flintfulnes dead be caided. Think not to bribe the write with their own gold, Though fools by flimfy lares should be cajol'd; Places on places multiply to view, Creation on cleanion, ever new; Therefore in decent competence to live, Is all that you can all, or juffice give."

" Yr won'd-BE TITLED I whom, is evil hour-The rath-unthinking people cloth d with pow'r,
Who, drank with pride, of foreign boubles dream,
Andrare of a COLUMBIAN DIADEM— And rave of a COLUMBIAN DIADEM—
Be prudent, modell, mod rate, grateful, wife,
Kor on your Country's min drive to rife,
Left grateCOLUMBIA's AWFUL GOD from d frown
And to your ratine disophills hart, you down."

And to your ratio e danghulls hard, you down."

"Ye faithful goardians of your country a weal, Whole home breath till glow with parrior zeal! The lawlets Indico POW R in embryo quell, The yerm of mitchief, and fait flows of hell; Refift the VICE — and that contagious pride To that o'coverning VICE— ho near ally d. Within your farred wall let virtue reign, And greaty MAMMON pread histrates in vain With unlick'd lordings folly not your fame, Nor dash out PATRIOT with a LACKEND name. O WASHINGTON! thy Country's hope and trust! Sacceffers we can find—but tell us where Of ALL thy virtue we shall find THE HEIR?"

Farther extracts are unsteedlary, as I have reason to Further extracts are unsteedfary; as I have reason to think the work will in a few days make its appearance this way. If it does, the lovers of good poetry and genuine fatire will have a rich feaft—it will be admirgenuine fatire will have a rich real with whose fen tritmay clafe can only fay, it it a pity that fuch ea sy timents it may clain Fauld be percented.

I am you's,

A REPUBLICAN.

PARIS, June 4Death of the Dawkin of France.

Illis Royal Highness the Damkin died between 12 and one of colock this morning, in the 8th year of hislege, to the great guel of their Most Christian Majellies and the Royal Family.

The Dawkin

and the Royal Family.

The Dauphin was in his eighth year; for fout of which he hasbeen almost containty afficied withdiffer fes which baffied the art of the first physicisms, and have now terminated in his dissolution. His Royal Highmen's remains will be interred jet the burying place of the Kings of France, if the church of Norre Dame, in the Kings of France, if the church of Norre Dame, in Paris. All the publick, places of anustement are hut np, and will remain to until after his bursal. The Due de Normandie, the now only four of his Most Christian Majelly, is a fine chald about five years old, and hids fair to become in due time King of France.

The prefent lieit apparent to the Crown of France, and Mariar Therefe Charlette, born Dec. 19, 1778, are the only remaining children of their Most Christian Majetties

I. O. N. D. O. N., June c.

A gentleman died a few daysago at Salifbury, who weighed 500lb. He remembered (ceing his shoe buckler about 16years ago, at which time he was chofen Alderman ! Human Nature is the fame in every rank and condi-Human Nature is the fame interety rank and combining of life:—The fame event, which functimes delemines the fate of individuals, determines that of nations:—The fame policy—the fame intrigue which hakes one must richer than another—makes nations and readure. An anecdote will illustrate this more than readouing. A King of France once this more than readouing. A King of France once the more than the fame of the combination of the combine o where he learned that worder to destenty; with which where he learned that workerfull extenty, with which he penetrated into the befone of men of all nations & characters—unwelled every plait in the human foul and every surface of the characters of the characters of the penetrate of the penetrate of the characters of the penetrate of the characters of the penetrate of the molithed.

The flames formad to the adjoining houses, feven of which were deflroved, and the fire reached the entranceinto Pall Mail, but did not go up the Hay-Mark-

Extrali of a letter from Conftantinople, April 30 Extra of a litter from Companies pie, sport 30.

"All the propolitions for peace, removed under the prefent reign by the ministers of the two courts of Bourbon, have been rejected, the Sultan having declared that he has taken an oath to re-compare the Crimes, fo that without the prefencingly refliction of that penindly all proposition are vain."

The enlightened and of the prefent Granville Sharp, The enlightened and of the prefent Granville Sharp,

The enlightened zeal of the prefent Granville Sharp, Efq. Prefident of the fociety for promoting the abolition of the Share Trade; appears to be heredicary. In a fermon delivered by his grand-father/AjrchbishopSharp, before the House of Commons, Aprilia; 16:19, we find the following driking pullage: "Thily Africa, which is now more fruitful of monitors, than if was once of excellently wife and learned men; that Africa, which formenly afforded un our Clantens, our Origen, our Tetallian, our Cyprian, our Augustine; that famous Africa, in whole foll christianity did strive fo prodigiously, and which could boath of fo many flourishing churches, also I's now a wilderneft. The wild boath churches, alas I is now a wildcraefs. The wild boars have broken into the vineyard, and eaten it up, and it have proxen into the vineyard, and chief has, and the brings forth nothing but briats and thoras, to ofe brings forth proshet; and who knows but God may fuddenly make this church and nation, this our kingland, which Jefturn-like, is wared far, and grown proud, & hath kicked againt God, fuch another example of his vengeance." Vol. IL fer. L

ROTAL PROCESSION AT VERSAILLES.

ROYAL PROCESSION AT VESSAILLES.

V E R S A I L L E S, May 6.

AT ten o'clock on the 4th, his majefty, accompanied by monfieur control d'Artois and, the duke d'Angoleme, montted his corimation, and proceeded to the parific church of Notre Dame, at Verfailles, where of Paris not yet returned) in their respective land of Peris not yet returned) in their trepreciation of the flate (those All-the flate coaches belonging so the king, his brothers, fifter, and aunt preceded; and made a brilliant flow as ever was feen in this kingdont; for the fun, darting his rays on the gold, fifter, and glaffes of the magnifecture carriages, and the rich plumings and caparions of the hories, their names adorned with the variegated plumage, ipread a refulgent felendor on the eyes of every beholder. Next came, almost as filtered as contract, the queen, majedically femed facing madame and madame Elizabeth; the princes Lamballa far atoms of the coach windows. In this train of magnificence puffed through a great crowd of people In this train of the cosch windows. In this train of magnificence palled through a great crowd of people the pomous ravalende, and proceeded flowly to church, where a mais with vocal and influmental mofic, was celebrated. Soon after the proceeding began their march, amidd the moft melodious tunes the French and Swifs guards could procure from the theatret. The monta readent at Verfailles led the van, and were followed by the deputies of the hird class; among them very feveral noblemen, and even elegymen, in the duffles of the tiernest, who had been chosen in preference to forme of their own order, Comt editirabeam, member from Aix in Providence, was mee of theirs. The sobility came next, and their derifies indeed made a fuper hypearsacc. They all fairfully adhered to the circumstee ordered by the mafer of the creminny. The bility came near, per all frifily adhered to the en-perb appearance. They all frifily adhered to the en-quette ordered by the master of the ceremony. The dnice of Orleans, who is deputy for the poblity of the town of Orleans, chose to walk among his colleagues, rather than as first prince of the blood, for which, and innumerable other reasons, he was loudly applied ed by a thousand vives where ever he passed. Th en by a montand wive, where ever he panen. In elergy were greatly admired, on account of their facred and truly pompous garments, hat filently received.

Not one of them obtained the leaft fign of approbation. Not one of them outside the seal up to appropriate Every step of his majelly when the musick was flent, was hollowed with heart-felt hallelujahs from a grate-ful multitude, and his brothers, chiefly monstear, had tot materiage, and me orescers, emery monaren, mad their finere of unfeigned appliate. The queen certainly deferved to partake of fome of those effusions of joy fo liberally beltowed now and then by her faithful fubliberally beflowed now and then by her faithful lubjects. She was as beautiful as nature and art could make her. On her hair, adorned with a profution of jewels, a wreath of feathers was fo artibly contrived as to indicate the leave of fern, and to form a crown.—
Her drefs, those of the princes, and the reft of the court ladies were all new upon the occation, and elegant beyond description. The painter alone could do them jolities; such the alone could convey an adequate idea of the couple will of the firetes, all firewed with, final and flowers, and lined with the richest hanguage from the Gobblint. from the Gobelius.
The Te Deum, followed by a fermon, kept their ma

The 1e Denm, tollowed by a termon, kept their maidities, eather too long. They feemed fatigated, and to wish for tepole after lo fermal and flow movings unrich.
The holy facrament was borne by the archbishop of Paris, finder a fuperb canopy, the firings of artich were held by Monfieur the comit d'Artois, and the dates d'Angontele sate Chartres. After the departes of the third class had pailed there might be about toxof the four heralds at arm announced the nobility. They represented the four announced the nobility. They represented the four ancient provinces of rietardy, bout goyn, Champagne, and Artois. They were write fit tunice, tied at the arms with; and there, with some goyn, Champagne, and Artons, any wore white me tunics, tied at the aims, waith; and knee, with bands knots, and intersperied with flears de ht. They fall whate those with red heels, and the becomes and there hands.

Each perion who walked in the proceffion had a final toper in his hand, of equal fine without any all tindion. The queen berieft bore one of them: None were lighted. The awfulnels of the ceremony, and the were lighted. The awkinness of the ceremony and the visible marked for contentment on error one's count mance, caufed such an impression on the king, the the eyes were feel most with texts of joy. The procession returned in the faire order to Morte Dame, and it was pall four when the court re-entered the Cama.

R O S E A U (Deminica) Feb. 25. The following very extraordinary circumfante to pened on the Herrford effate of Thomas Jeannis, Ed at Mahaut, and is furnished us by Mr. Jenonis himself at Mahart, and is furnished as by Mr. Jemmit hindel.

On Sautday laft a gregnatic Negro woman, who was remarkably big, but uncertain in her rectuein, was delivered of a male, infant without any affine in the forenoon; but it appearing evident this was another child, two nagro midwives of the weak bourhood were feat for who continued, with her mail Sunday morning, when their fill being judged inless cient, a Dr. Grinfeppi was fent for, who arrived a zboat an hour; and, in half an hour after, delirent about 2n nour; and, her of three girls.

The four infants are 2s the ordinary fize; and, the four infants are 2s the ordinary fize; and the first three for the self. The The tour infants are as the ordinary face, and, a well as the mother, are in a fair way to do well. The infance of fecundity may be deemed as an extraordinary circumflance in itself, independent of the administration of the day of the property of the male getting the fair by upun of eightness hours of the female officience.

SAVANAH, July 16. S A V A N A H, July 16.

On Triday Ind, at the Superior Court held in salfor the County of Chathem, an axion was trought a trial before a Special Jury, between Col. WilliamMitoth, of Inberty County, plaintiff, and Neel Famin, of Camden, County, defendant for a halance of faildue on feveral bonds amounting to toool, which host were given in October, 1772, bearing natural from it is Innozity, 1773, for Innda Iying in Canden Ocun, Whether interefit in payable during the time of pemeral and national calumity, when no profit or alontage could be made of the lands purcheful, beingquestion of much importance to many inclindends this flate, was ably and with cendour debuted by the conneil on both fides, when retired and through is verdiff, that the defendant thould pay no interef lim the 19th of April, 1775, to the 3d of March, 1784.

NEW-YORK, Augult 22.

Extract S. E. W. - Y. O. R. K. August 22.

"It is faid that the refells now on their pulsy tas Hallfax will pay gool, for the duty on marked the "75 cents ber barrel country."

"That the mantle of national gratimate work hatter from the forms of adversity, the heavy head site FATAIOT was to be expected:—this confedance is friends of America have received in appointment of the Hos. General Liveous.—thanks be to the boy seign of our country."

reign of our country."
Perhaps in no instance has the patriotism and card Pertups in no initance has the patriotist and casts of acertain homourable. Affembly appeared in a mer conference spint of view than in conducting the fines of amendments to the conditions: They are given the molt indubinable pure of their desirable the confitution to the wither of their conditions, in the conditution to the wifnes of their conditional, far as possible, substantially sub

The Prefident of the United States has been plate ARTHUR St. CLAIR, Eig. to be Governor of it

Western Tentitory.
WINTHROP SANGENT, to be Secretary, and WINTEROF SAKONN, to be Secritary, and SANUEL HOLDEN PARKONS, JOHN CLEVES ST. 15, and WIZLIAM BARTON, to be Judges. Alfo-Hon. BANJANIN LINCOLN, Hon. Car GRIFIIN, and DAVID HOMPHERTS, Eq. as Camiffoners to be comployed to negociate a tray with the foothern. Indians.

ERNEYER TUCERS, to be Surveyor of Little Eq. Harboor, in the State of New-Jerfey, and WILLIAM GIBB, to be Collector of the part Folly Landing, in the State of Virginia.—To shoom castions the Senare did advile and confeni.

The late appointment of committioners for same nominations the Senate did advite and content.

The late appointment of commissioners for saming regordances and treaties with the fourteen later may juffly impire the fullet confidence. But this first with the first with the fourteen later and turner figurilly be for conducted as to infere pages and fecurity in future, to our hardfield and differentiers.

frontien.

76. ADDRESS, of the PROTESTANT FEST
PALCHURCH, in the State of New York, New 1921 TENNSTLY WANTA, DELWAIN, MIR
LAND, VIRGINIA, and SOUTH-CAROLINA
TO the PRESIDENT of the UNITED STATE

19.70

To the PRESIDENT of the Detection of the Platta St. I. R.

WE the Bithops, Clergy, and Laity of the Platta Population of

When no continuities the floor but eventful history in our narios—when we recolled the ferries of effectual services performed by you in the coarse of the revolution, the temperate, yet efficient certaint of the mighty powers with which the nature of the contest made it meetling to invest you and especially when we remember the voluntary and magnariatous relinguished of the fight authorities at the innature of peace, we attripute the happiness of our country under your feature attainfundation.

But it was not alone from a faceassful and virtuous when these certainfundry powers that you were called

But it was not signe from a increment, and virtuous the of those extraordinary powers that you were called from your honorable retirement, to the first dignities from your honorable retirement, to the first dignities of our government, an affectionate admiration of your private lawarder, the imparitality; the perfevering-fre-index, and the energy with which your public duries have been invariably performed, and the paternal failenable for the happines of the American people; roughler with the wildom and continuous knowledge of our affairs, manifelied in your last-military communitation, have directed to your name the national angular produced, for the first time in the infrary of mankind, sectample of manimum curfors in the appointment of the governor of a free and enlightened nation.

To these confiderations, inspiring at with the atoft

To these considerations, inspiring at with the stoff planing expectations, apprivate citizens, permit us to id, that is the representative of a numerous and extended church, we most thankfully rejoice in the cleft-jin of a city inter defervedly beloved, and uninently distinguished smong the friends of religion—who has happily interested the control of the churches with a inviolable strachment to his own.

With onleigued infinification we configurately you on the challiment of the time condition of government for the United States; the stall, yet efficient operations of which, we consideredly trul, will remove errly remaining apprehention of these, with whose opinious it may not entirely coincide, and will construin the hopes of its numerous friends. Nor do these expectations appear on fanguine, when the inspectation, patriotifia, and windrout of the honorable microbers of the federal levillations at dule combiners. the federal legislature are duly considered.

ne recera regulatore are dely confidered.

From a body this eminearly qualified, humoniflosy co-operating with the executive authority in confine-tional concert, we confidently hope for the refloration of order and our ancient virtues; the extension of genuine religion, and the confined of the extension of genuine religion, and the confined of the oroner and our ancient virtues; are extension of gen-nine religion, and the confequent advancement of our telpetiability abroad, and of our fubfiantial happiness home. We devoutly implare the Supreme Ruler of the Uni-We derously implies the Sopieties water that Gar-verfe to preferre you long in health and profestly, an animating example of all public and private virtues— the friend and guardian of a lives, chilghtened, and grateful | people | — and that you may fi-ally receive the texand which will be given to those, whole lives have been fpent in promoting the happiarts of mankind.

[Signally obs Convention]

The PRESIDENT'S ANSWER.

To the BISHOPS, CLERGY, and LAITY of the PRO-TESTANT RPISCOPAL CHURCH in the States of Niw York, Niw-Jensey, Pennsylvania, Dala-wark, Manylann, Vinginaa, dad S. Ceroli-na, in general Convention affembled.

GENTLEMEN,

I SINCERELY thank you for your affectionate com

ININUERIELY thank you tor your anextunate con-granulations, on my telchion to the chief Magiffracy of the United States.

After having received from my fellow-circums in general the most liberal treatment—after having found-them disposed to contemplate, in the most flattering point of view, the performance of my military (ervices, pout of view, the performance of my miting terries, and the manner of my retirement at the close of the war. I feel, that I have a right to complete myfelf in any prefent ardunou undertakings, with a hope that they will fill be inclined to put the most favourable contractions on the motives which thay influence me in my future public transfactions.

The faustaction arising from the includent opinion.

The faisfaction arising from the miningent opinion entersisted by the American becopie of my conduct, will, Irrult, be some seasity for precessing ne from coing any thing which might infly incur the forfeiture of that opinion. And six confidention that human appoints and moral daty are indepensive connected, will always continue to prompt me to prompt the progred of the former, by inculcating the practice of the latter.

on this occasion it will ill become me to conceal the On his oceasion it, will ill become me to conceal the joy I have felt in perceiving the fractural affection which appears to encrease everyday among the friends of greatine religion. It associated edifying professiondeed, on fee christians of different denomination dwell together in more charity, and conduct themselves in reflect to each other with a more christian like spirit, than ever they have done, in any former age, or in any other artists.

it; than ever they have done, hisny, former age, or in any other nation.

I receive with the greater latisfaction your congratuations on the eliabithment of the new Confinmion of Government, becache, I believe, its mild, yet efficient operations, will tend to femoue every remaining apprehending of those with whole opinion is may not entirely coincide, as well as to confirm the hoper of its numberous friends: And becasife the moderation, patholic through the state of the moderation of the wildow of the prefer federal legislatore, feath to promise the refloration of order and our ancient virtue; i the extension of genuine Religion, and the confequent advancement of our respectability about the confequent advancement of our respectability. The request, Most Reverend and respectability about the respectability and the confequent advancement of our respectability after the surface of the confequency of the confequency and the confequency and the confequency and the confequency of the confequ

By accounts from Philadelphia, we are informed that the hear there left week was fo press as to oblige the most in the agents as to oblige the most in the agents to be carried away and thrown into the Delaware, at 100 cl. clock A. M. The meatin general water a flate of for trefaction, and the Mayor had critered the market to b walked and cleaned every day, in order to prefer on the health of the citizents.
This has been the hotels weather known in this

This has been the hotell wrather known in this country for many years; fevral hispkeeper have that up their hops and testred to the country for a few days, in order to fave their lives. Deaths are namerous, and it is melancholly to observe, that childres in particular are dying to fall at Philadelphia, that no parent can be a moment happy there during the months of July and August; increas infrasts were buried there on the first Sunday in July;

B O S TO'N, Augest 27,
Friday last 2 Son of Mr. George Stanley of Attleboro, aged 5 years, in attempting to climb the off Wheel of a Carri the team as the Laste moment moving forward, was instantly killed. The youing man who drove the team came in fight of the child, just, 25 the wheel fruch this head hole unfortunately of tere to rifede him. The Shoot and British his head hough but it by fuch a prefure, flew to an incredible diffance.

By a welfiel which arrived here on Manday in ten days from Vieginia, we learn that the French fleet was at anchor at old polarcomfore, and was to fall in a lew days for this port.

NOR TEH A M 2 TO N, Sept. 2.

Monday laft the Court of Common Pleas finished their August fellion in this town—daring the term the following persons were convided at follows, and received fentence accordingly, viz.

Diniel Brit, refident at Springfield, convided of theft fentenced to be whiched to firipes, and to pay heet, tentace to to whipped the threefold damages and collis.

Godfrey Waggoner, refident at West Springsleld, convicted of Theft, sentenced to be whipped to stripes, onviced of Inter, tentents to the suppose of the control of the pay three fold damages and coffs.

David Farmer, refident at Welffield, convicted of Thieft, fentenced to pay a fine of joy, damages and colts.

Richard Negro; refiger at Springfield, convided of Theft, fentenced to pay a fine of 20% damages and

- FOR THE HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE: Mr. ROGER NEWTON, Mr. ROGER NEWTON, late of Creenful. — By our of the Friends.
BENEATH this Marble.
Are deposited the remains of an amiable young mish
By Nature highly favour'd, yet when living.
Festure from a upon.
Passing readet:
Woodle's how became his character of I do.

Paffing readet!

Would'st thou know his character 2s I do;
Therstop and from this little

PORTRAIT!

Born tacke ample rollession of an intelled

Emphatically strong,
And a disposition spontaneously fertile,
In the riched virtue of the human bears,

Wildomwas hispelsfart Benry Olen on his conductors.

Wildomwas hispelsfart Benry Olen on his conductors.

By the first he was enabled By the fifth he was enabled To fappers the fatigue of literary inquiry with uncommon refolution;

with uncommon relolution;
And to bear the burden of opprefite accident,
with a certain integrid framels;
The offspring neither of infentibility nor rathrie i, stratarally feringing from that noble & early englated Principle of belief,
"WHATEVER IS, IS RUGHT,"
By the fecon d.

By the fecond, He became to the circle of his friends and acquaintance, The centre of their parell love and most explicit effects; While his unremitted executions For the promotion of their happineds.

Sed by the wiled wither of his heart.

Did not fall to render their friending as perpetual, As it was extraordinary!

As it was extraordinary!

As it was extraordinary!

He was policifed

of a fingular aumanity of temper,

And a peculiar aumicalization beauty of behaviour in turb disgreet aprivations.

To all year starration.

The based of nature had deposited in his bosom
A rich treasure of compessionate follow feeling:
He melted as the upon of others,
And took numericable deligate:
In aswaying the angular of distress,

With the genile condition of a street,

Sympathetic traderics,
In private and domethic life
He was agreeable without levity. He was agreeable without levity; and affectionate without weakness.

He was agreeable without levery,
And affectionate without weakneft;
And whether we can template him in the character of a fon, a brother, a friend or a companion,
We finall but broeden the foundation of our love,
By a discovery of the most arniable Correspondent qualities.

Without that fudden getre of character;

So pregniate with inflantations but fickle admiration,

o pregniat with inflantacous but fickle admirate He was one of those men. Who gradually riper the frastrost friendship By the enverage translations of a benevolant beart; While the hand of TIMS gendy operator on the minde of others, Impresentibly derives the print of these elements of fortunes exprise. Whenever he failed in an understaking, He was the deficient of the enforcements of the state of the stat

While the continues bonefly of his heart Opelied the rifug morents of complaint, And objectured as a natidate Against the fresh of disproimment. His onshateshle defire shere knowledge Wata perpensal and a subject free To his confinution, While the most about an increase of the con-

Served not in the least differnible degree.

To greet his all-thirfful

All the events in section is according.

All the events of learning were equally exceptible.

To his aftive genius;

But while he was travelling with unrival drap, diry,

Un the public byte cars of acquinitian,

DEATH firsted at the senses of DISEASE.

DEATH farted at the answer of DISEASE,
And arrected the youthful ravellet
In this confe.
Smiling angula have bailed in a same of DISEASE,
Smiling angula have bailed in a same of On the confe of MMORTALITY.
Happy for his concemporaries that he lived long concept.
To draw the carlies of a perfect character.
For their imitation
Letthole who knew him,
Stripe to imitate and excel him;
While from his cold clay, granly registing.
Springupand flourith with or dark it maintenfield.
The plants of WISDOM.
And theevisi lossing bad of instruction grazefully adors his TOME.

ELAMINONDASE.

James Byers; & Co.
INFORM the public, that their Farnace at Sprinfield is now commeacing a hidd-any orders for IRONCASTINGS will be attended to, and executed with exactness.—They have for falle as usual an affortunent of HOLLOW WARE. of the best and most approved kind.

Advertisement.

ALL military affociates to be ALL military affectates to be included in the Ohio parchafe are hereby, informed, that no powers of surface which have been forwarded to me will beathfured at the War-Office, that have not been acknowledged before a Margitarte—All who have regeleted to do it, and fill with to avail themselves of the bereit of being included in this delightful purchafe, are sortified that unless they execute a well anthequirated power to me, or form other pertan, and thought it is the War-Office immediately over the hands of the honourable Refur Paintan, Eff. they of courie will be excluded:

I have given full power to the honourable Refur it matters that respect my suggest a Mars-England, who will transfer the trifficial it applied that featon.

Mariette, June 16, 1756;

CLEUD WILLE A.T.

SEED WHEAT.

The Subfcribes has for fale, a few bullets of the White Bearded Wheat, of an excellent quality found by actual experie or an execution quanty, many of the Holfien Fly, and tells fellight to that or winter-kill, than any other Where that bath heretefore been introduced into the Country of the March and Ma

HENRY FORTER.

GENERAL ORDERS,

For the fourth livilies of the Militie of the Commen-en, all b of Melfachedetts.

Neverly feture made to the Major General of the e-leftion of art Officer, under the lead of remarks mult be given the name of the perfort who laft held the fame office, and the manner in which the variancy was considered, either by religation, promonon, removal occasioned, either by relignation, promotion, reme from the regiment, or by death. Any remain not companied with this information, will not be recencompanied with this unformation, (c)
by the Major General

Aporter of the Mej. General

Joseph Williams, D. A. G.

August 1, 1563.

Notice is hereby given.

To the following non-relident proprietors of the town of Williamiburging the county of Hamphire, that their hadrane tred for the year 1787, 22 follows.

Gen. Comfort Sage, Adam Beals, Rufas Wells, Luke Packard, Johna Morron, Widow Lucy Hubbard,

John Notton, United fails to be see paid on or before Monday the 25th day of October next, to much of their lands will then be fold at PUBLIC VENDUE, as will be futter to the control of their lands will be futter to the control of their lands will be futter to the control of their lands will be futter to the control of their lands will be futter to the control of their lands will be futter to the control of the control o cient to discharge the same, with intervening cha

August 28th, 1787