Part of the people armed went to offer the French General a cockade, who found that he wat obliged to wear it. They then demanded that the debtors bloud be releated, and on the Governour's expressing a distilke at this measure, they opened the prison door. The ancient monicipal constitution was an unlied, and a new one formed, composed of further and the contractions of the contraction of the cont nulled, and a new one formed, composed of such citi-zens as had diffinguished thamselves in this new revoconstant as a sequence insented with this new revo-lution. One happiness, however, we have ro board of; all has been accomplished without the loft of a drop of blood. The only aft of vengenne was in deftroy-ing the House of the chancellor of the Police.
