

HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 9, 1790.

NORTHAMPTON, (MASSACHUSETTS) Published by WILLIAM BUTLER.

CONGRESS.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WEDNESDAY, May 12.

THE bill for repealing the late day of the duties heretofore laid upon Wines; imposed from foreign ports or places, and laying others thereon, was read the second time, and referred to a committee of the whole on Monday next.

The House then proceeded to reconsider such of their resolutions proposed in the bill sent from the Senate, as they should think proper to amend or to confirm.

An act for giving effect to the act thereto relative to the State of North-Carolina, and to amend the said act, as were agreed to by the House and the Senate, were read the second time, and the same were confirmed.

Resolved, That a conference be desired with the Senate on the subject of said amendments; and that Mr. White, Mr. Steele, Mr. Folger, Mr. Liver-more, and Mr. Williams, be appointed managers to attend the conference, in the part of the House agreeable to the order of the day, the House again resolved itself into a committee of the whole on the report of the committee to whom was referred the petition of the merchants and traders of the town of Northampton, in New-Hampshire. The motion for reading out the same which proposes a tonnage of 100 cents on foreign bottoms was put and negatived.

A motion was then made to insert 75 cents in lieu of 100 cents, but was also negatived. The committee proposed to be appointed from the joint committee of both Houses to consider and report their opinion on the petition. When, according to the Constitution, the House for which the President, Vice-President, Senators, and Representatives, have been respectively chosen, they shall assemble in the City of New-York, and the same shall continue to sit until the first day of September next, and until they shall have chosen a President, Vice-President, and Representatives, and shall then adjourn to the City of New-York, and shall continue to sit until the first day of September next, and until they shall have chosen a President,

Vice-President, and Representatives, and shall then adjourn to the City of New-York, and shall continue to sit until the first day of September next, and

until they shall have chosen a President, Vice-

President, and Representatives, and shall then

adjourn to the City of New-York, and shall continue

to sit until the first day of September next, and

until they shall have chosen a President, Vice-

President, and Representatives, and shall then

adjourn to the City of New-York, and shall continue

to sit until the first day of September next, and

until they shall have chosen a President, Vice-

President, and Representatives, and shall then

adjourn to the City of New-York, and shall continue

to sit until the first day of September next, and

until they shall have chosen a President, Vice-

President, and Representatives, and shall then

adjourn to the City of New-York, and shall continue

to sit until the first day of September next, and

until they shall have chosen a President, Vice-

President, and Representatives, and shall then

adjourn to the City of New-York, and shall continue

to sit until the first day of September next, and

until they shall have chosen a President, Vice-

President, and Representatives, and shall then

adjourn to the City of New-York, and shall continue

to sit until the first day of September next, and

until they shall have chosen a President, Vice-

President, and Representatives, and shall then

adjourn to the City of New-York, and shall continue

to sit until the first day of September next, and

until they shall have chosen a President, Vice-

President, and Representatives, and shall then

adjourn to the City of New-York, and shall continue

to sit until the first day of September next, and

That the tonnage on all foreign built bottoms belonging to nations not in commercial treaty with the United States, be raised to the first of one dollar per ton, from and after the first day of January next.

The Committee rose and reported progress.

The report of the committee on the memorial of the officers of the late navy of the United States was read; this report was in favour of granting the prayer of the memorial, viz. that they should be placed on a similar footing with the officers of the late army of the United States—and be allowed five years pay—laid on the table. Adjourned.

FRIDAY, May 14.

In committee of the whole House on the report of the select committee respecting an enhanced tonnage on foreign vessels.

Mr. Boudinot in the chair.

Mr. Maddison moved an addition to the resolution agreed to yesterday in the following words, viz. That from and after the day of next, the tonnage on all such vessels be raised to and from and after the day of next no such vessel be permitted to export from the United States any unmanufactured article being the growth or produce thereof.

This motion occasioned a debate—but was finally carried in the affirmative, 28 to 19.

The second resolution proposed by the select committee for an addition of ten per cent. on the duties already imposed by laws on goods imported from places to which American vessels are not admitted; Mr. Lee moved should be expunged from the report, this motion was seconded by Mr. Parker, and carried in the affirmative. The committee then rose and reported progress.

The House took up the resolution, which was further amended, by adding the following proviso, viz.

Provided that this resolution shall not extend to prohibit vessels of any nation which permits the importation of fish, and other fish provisions, grain and hemp, and other articles of the produce of the United States. The resolution being then amended was adopted by the House, and a committee of three appointed to bring in a bill pursuant thereto.

A message was received from the Senate informing the House that they have adopted the report of the joint committee appointed to consider and report their opinion, when according to the constitution, the terms for which the President, Vice-President, &c. have been respectively chosen, &c. and request the concurrence of the House. That they have also passed a bill for the encouragement of literature, by securing to authors, &c.

the copy right of their works—with amendments.

Mr. Bland of the committee appointed to take into consideration the arrears of pay ordered to the officers and soldiers of the Virginia and North-Carolina lines of the late army, brought in a report.

A petition from the American prisoners in Algiers was introduced by the Speaker—and referred to the Secretary of State.

A report on the petition of Thomas Jenkins and Co.

was read, which was in favour of granting the prayer of said petition.

MONDAY, May 17.

An amendatory bill to regulate trade and intercourse with the Indian tribes, was read the second time and ordered to be committed to a committee of the whole on Wednesday next.

The following is an extract from Dr. Price's Revolution Sermon.

WHAT an eventful period is this? I am thankful that I have lived to it—and I could almost say, “ Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, for mine eyes have seen thy salvation.” I have lived to see a diffusion of knowledge which has undermined superstition and error—I have lived to see the rights of man better understood than ever; and nations panting for liberty which seemed to have lost the idea of it.

I have lived to see thirty millions of people, indignant and resolute, spurning at slavery, and demanding liberty
