And now, to conclude, "experience keeps a dear school; but fools will learn in no other," as poorRichard fays, and feareely in that; for, it is true, "We ichool; but fools will learn in so other, as poor Richard Gay, and fearned in that; for, it is tree, "We may give advice, but we wannot give condeft." however, remember this," they that will not be confelled, cannot be helped; and further, that if you will not here Reafan, the will furely rap you on your knockle, as poste Richard fays.

This the oil gestleman endel his harrangue. The people heard it, and approved the doctrine, and immediately practifed the contrary, jult as if it had been a comman fermon; for the artilion opened, and they hegan to buy extravigually. I found the good man had thoroughly fluided mysulmanacks, and digdied all had dropt on those topics, during the course of the must have year. The frequent mention he made of time, multihave tired any one eifer; but my vainty was wonderfully delighted with it, though I was conferious that not a tenth part of the wildom which hearierised to me, was iny own—but rather the gleanings that I had inside of the fense of all ages and nations. However, I refolved to be the better for the echo of it;—and though I had at first determined to buy fluif for a new cost, I were away resolved to wear my old one a new cost, I were away resolved to wear my old one. row cost, I went away, refolved to wear my old one a little longer, Reader, if thou wilt do the fame, thy profit will be as great as nine. Thine to ferve thee, RICHARD SAUNDERS.

GOVERNOUR'S SPEECH.

Purfuent to his Excellency's Proclamation, of the Pursuant to his Excellency's Proclamation, of the Stric-Hanke in Balban, on Wednerday the 15th inflature met at the Stric-Hanke in Balban, on Wednerday the 15th inflature and "lawing formed a quoromy. Committee of hoth Honks, were appointed to wait on the Governour and inform him that mey were usually to proceed to built-miss pand at potentier F.-M.-lins-Excellency, attended by the Secretary, met the two Branches, and addressed them as follows:

Gentlemen of the Senare, and Gentlemen at the Houle of Representatives:

Gestlemen of the Honfrof Reprefentatives,

NOTHING but a flrong conviction of the necessity of the Legislature's being together at this time, could have induced me to convene you at fo early a could have induced me to convene you at fo early a day after the late adjournment.

By your aft, passed in the late sessions, for a conditional repeal of the aft for rising a revenue by excise, it is privided, that "in ease the Congress of the United States, should assume, or permit to be loaned on the credit of the United States, the conditiated debt of this State, or otherwise provide, upon the credit of the United States, for the payment thereof; then, and in either case, the faild aft, entitled "an act to raise as

United States, for the payment thereof; then, and in either cafe, the faid act, entitled "an act to raife a revenue by excite, and regulate the collection thereof," feed by, and thereby sour repealed, from and after the time when any aft or law of Congress, for either of the purposes stretaid desaid be made and ethablished. "On the bourth of August lait, an act was made and established by the Congress of the United States—which treatment of the Congress of the United States, or come and of the debts of the respective states, incurred for compensations, expenditures, for fervices, or foughles, towards the profecution of the late war, or for the defence of the United States, or fome part thereof, during the same, is permitted to be loaned on the credit of the United States.

Upon receiving information of this aft, I directed the Treasurer to by before the Supreme Executive, the amount of the confoliated debt of this State, which I find to amount to one million sive hundred eighty-three thousand and eighty-fix pounds nine fullings & three peace, equal to five million two hundred seventy-six thousand nine hundred and fifty-four dollars and six finish so dollars.

thouland ninh hundred and lifty-four dollars and hye fixths of a dollar.

I have directed the Secretary to lay before you a copy of the act of Congress, that you may give it such confruction as sull appear to you to be restouable, and take such measures as may be fusted to the welfare of the Communical lift, in the present particular situation of sit. The Secretary will also lay before you the feveral acts of Congress, passed since your last adjournment.

You will observe, with farisfaction, that Congress are taking measures to support the credit, and maintain the honor of the Federal Government—And whilst the honor for the Federal Government—And whillt the eyes of the people are upon you, as Guardians of this State, their just expectations will be fully andwered, by your adopting those measures, which will do most spee significate our creditors, and have a just tendency to maintain the rank and importance of this Common-

By your aft, above referred to, it is provided that By your aft, above referred to, it is provided that the Supreme I structure, on having notice of the making, and estabiliting an aft, or law of Congress for either of the purpose a storefaid, that is, for assuming the confolidated debt of this State, permitting the fame to be leasted on the credit of the United States, of other wife to provide for the payment of the states, and the credit of the States, that they should make the same known in the Commonwealth.

When you shall have attended to the act of Congress, and the particular situation into which the Commonwealth, from our own asts, and the act of Congress is thrown, you will see that the Supreme Executive would have been remis in the exercise of the authority vessel in them, unless they had called the General Court together, in preserve to any other measure.

in them, unless they had called the General court to-gether, in prefere we to any other measure.

Supposing that the measurement featon of the year, in which you are convened, will preclude you from at-tending to any other 'adjucks, befules that which I have already mentioned; I forbear to mention any other to TOHN HANCOCK.

VIENNA, June ig.

Important Intelligence from Italy.

The letelling principles of democracy have pervaded the principal part of the Italian States; and to what lengths it have already carried in enthaliative lopporters, the following authentick intelligence will tellify, viz.

FLORE NCE, June 15.

Jaural of the Publict Protestings in this City during the left Weet.

Monolay June 7.

Various (editions and trainmable libels were read, being fixed at the corners of leveral threets in this city.

seing fixed at the corners of leveral fireets in this city.

being fixed at the corners of teriral iterets in this city. On Thefday, fome of the incient cufloon, relative to the carrying the dead to the places of burial, and other procedings, contray to fome late enacted laws of government, were in the exeming enewed.

On Wedneiday early in the meming, a turnsimous multitude of men and women pillaged and defitioned the house of a monopolizer of cil—afterwards plundered the house of a rich and unpopular man, not ettermed a friend to the poor. Then the mob threatmend the house of one impopular minister, infulted and flightly tophed the house of another much detertled by the peohouse of one impopular minifer, infulted and flightly robbed the house of another much deteited by the people.—Patting by the Archbishop's Palace, in their march to the Jews quarter, the mob were exhorted by him to peace and good order. He followed them, and in vain attempted to prevent their obtaining a confiderable plunder from the Jews. From that part the butchers of the market drove them, but, till late in the evening, they continued their intuits to patterners and carriages.

Thursday a number of armed cirizens seized, two Inumay I another to another trioters, who were drunkin bed, and conducted to prifon about 100 men and women. Before rwelve at noon, 1000 citizens were armed, and an efficiers guard mounted at each were armed, and an efficers pustd mounted at each gate of the city, and at the town-besse, where was treat the head quarters. At night many cit the nobility, on footand on horse back patroled the city, when more prisoners were seized, some of whom were Prieds.

On Friday about four theofaud men were enrolled armed at Leghorn gare, the inhabitants of that part, in a riotous manner attempted to force the gate, having no hread to eat. Two field pieces, and a derachment of armed rithers on hore back, kept them back; and allurances of lowering the price of bread kept them open. On Saunday the number of citizens enrolled and hrmed were 14000—the pounds of particles curvated. An injust articely from 15th of elactions of the regions of the price of the Regercy, Signor terificit, it the price of bread was not; within three days, redeed to jit original price. More citizens were now armed.

On Monday another trasforable puner was fixed up, threatening rengeach of the pricens were not releaf-On Friday about four thenfand men were enrolled

On Monday another transmante page: was not us, the treatening vengeance if the prifoners were not released within three days. Military order is more fully elrabilitied. Some priefis are barished, and many deprived the power of confession.

NAMUR, (Nelberland) June 18.

FEMALE SOLDIER.

We have just differered among the foldiers here, a runny woman who had taken ferrice in the patriotic army—the was at the taking of Ghen; and ferred four months afterwards, undifferenced, in the volunteer company of Capt. Keytim—the returned to her native city of Brudles, and became a fervant. tive city of Bruffels, and became a fervant, for two months; but her fweet heart having lately entered into the artillery, the then determined upon a fecond expedition, and engaged about a formight ago in the company of Capt. Philip Nuylar; when, being fubject to the vifit of the furgeons, the was obliged to acknowledge her fer. The same of this brave girl is Jeanna Delamottis, of the parts of the Chapeller, in Bruffells. Every hiddy is eager to receive her; and Mr. J. B. Vandermoothab prefer that he with a medallium, and a brevet of cadet, which pay the is to receive.

LONDON, June 10.
The Marquis de la Fayette bas lately performed a The Marquis de la Fayette has lately performed an aft, which has defravely acquired him nucle psynlarity. He made a motion in the Afrimbly, but the command of the national troops was too great a trult to be entirely velled in energetion. The motion was adopted by the Senate. The Marquis; therefore, fo far from being appointed Grate Priver, is net mearly of the motional forces. He new commands only a part of the mational forces.

the national forces. The Queen of Spain's party, which is much the The Queen of Spain's parry, which is much the flooned, are determined, as is gure rally underflood, on a war. The King's parry fee the receff is of arming, but with to protect giving any after to Fingland. The fignal for war it is supposed will be given by the King of Prulla and intelligence of Spaining commenced hostilities against Audria, it wert hour expected.

HODERD MIDDED

HORRID MURDER. Accounts from Riga mention a Expirid morder hav-ing been committed at that place. A man who kept a taxers without one of the gare of the city, and had also a windmill entity sproud. Exiting detected one of his more-fervants in feveral france, turned him away, and retained his wages for some limite in the molfention. The fellow as his some away throughed his moles, he and retained his wages for fone little inde moifeation. The felle was this going away themerized his makes he would make him repent detailing his wages; whereupon he went and affortised hunded with effects more as bad as himself. Even after this they went to the house in the middle of the night, and meeting one of the maid forwards going for water, they wantered her, and pur her body under the ice; they then entred the wards and thisles and prondered three eater women 5. and put her sony accors the very tory from entered the boule and fishles, and murdered three older women & few men ferrants——at last they entered the landlord's apartment, and mordered his wife and thrie of his children before his face the formbetter of five years of age, had hid himfelt in the contents below a bed unperceived—they thru sound the land lord to open all his chefts had drivers, and carried away whatever was portable and valuable out of the house—they then tied the handland neck and dischool to the house that have table, as which they find the house they then the day of the former hand a bour table, as which they find the house table. bout—they then tied the landlard nect and the the foot of a large table, at which they far down and regaled themselves with the best things the boute at forded: Here they made an end to their repail, porting hay and straw in all the apartments, and then for the house on fire, that the villain of a landlard, as they called him might be burnt alive, and which would at fo confinme the mardered bodies, and prevent any positive of the strawn and the strawn and the forward made to the fo father being thus cleared, took his little fon in his arms, and made his way through the flames, and immediately retired into the covered way of the town for mediately retired into the covered way of the town, for fear of being diffeored by any of the villains who might be full larking near the place. The noufe and cut-houfes being all, in flames, the governour ordered the gates to be opened, and fent out a party of mea to try to fave what they could from the fire; tout before they could gate to the place all was huma to the goned—The plot of those villains was fowell laid, that if it had not been swing to the miraculeus prefervation of the child and his father, it might bave lorever renam-ed a fecret. The landlord differenced hisafelf to the efficer that was at the head of the detachment, inureschiere that was at the beak of the detachment, intrac-ded that be "hit be privately critical to de government, to return he differenced the whole of this dreadful feenes and who gave orders to fecure and ex-amine all perions who fitted enter the town that morning; by which caution the villains appre-hending the meletes fecure from every possible differ-ery, as all evidence had perished in the fire, were, on ery, as all evidence had perified in the fire, were, of entering the town, every one taken, and foon afteren entring the town, every one taken, and foon after excused.

JUN 6.

Extree 9/a letter from Nymen, 7 sec 16.

This tity has for fome time-exhibited the med dreadful frene of mediacre and confution.—The roops who came to the adightance of the inhabitants were eduged to match over the desire of the inhabitants were eduged to match over the desire of the inhabitants were eduged to for the week of the the week of the desire of the week of the the desire were killed, and among the number were found feveral priefts. The refinans had for far months been hired by the Clergy of fome of the municipal body, at the race form of tray to fax day. The conspirators have a his been disperied; more than two hundred of then are killed, and fifty or faxty taken. The chiefs of he conspirators are known. The circumfances are undertaken to be all meanismed. The chiefs of he conspirators have a state of the circumfances are undertaken to be all meanismed. The chiefs of he formed to be all meanismed. The chiefs of he froment who was chief of the party. It was found that feveral partiols, and good citizens were there devoted to addradion. The municipality were the novers and improvement of the plot. The loss on the part was not longer any of the configurators to be found in the city; and those who escaped are disperied ever the country, where they commit the greated exceller. The city is at last in a flate of fecunty."

On Sunday last, a very conforces and noncommon pursonemon occurred in one of the gardens as Duminis a hive of bees having cast, happened to light eponas adiacent one, and foon after began to enter. The he

On Sonday lat, a very cutous and minist is a hive of bees having caft, happened to light epona adjacent one, and foon after began tenter. The her within perceiving the enroachment, and alarned a the number of the intuiders, immediately declared their intention of repelling the invaders, by a general bina, which was no fooner made, than they all came forthis order of hattle. A dreadful conflict then enfued, which ladded upwards of three hoors when the befregers were talf forced to retreat, after a very oblinate flingiff, with the loft of about 2000.

A new flip has lately been bunched at Carlie, which is had a force of the confliction of the conflictio

Not Hubbard, flip broker in the city, has the cor tract for 200 fail of transports for twelve months co

Wheat has rifen by the last return above that of the wenty-first of June, 25, in the quarter and slands at

The prefent rife on wheat is in a great degree to be al. 14.5 8d.

The prefent tife on wheat is in a great degree to be accounted for by the late coat nells for the many ither in, however, fortunately for the poor, a reely favorable pro peel of a beneficial harvest, which, with importants likely to take place from America, there is ground to hope for a redection of the high yrice of the necessaries of life.

Yesterday or redection of the high yrice of the meeting of the latest per Plyments, July 4.

Yesterday or rived at the Mother Bank, the Lindon Favourite, and Lindy St. John, from Gilurite.

These ships have been 33 days from that forties, and bring disparches for government; also such was men and children as, it appears from the following in telligence of the operation of the Spaniard before that garrison, there was a necessary for the case starting of the garrison, the Spaniard hear that garrison, there was a necessary or the case starting of the garrison, the Spaniard hear that of their lines into the civital ground.

General O'Hara, the commander there, who is the same disert intens into the civital ground.

General O'Hara, the commander there, who is not made at the firme time, that if they perssed in cattring at the farme time, that if they perssed in cattring at the farme time, that if they perssed in cattring at the farme time, that if they perssed in cattring at set works, in violation of the peace criffling between the work and immediately commence a few or nations, he would immediately commence a meaning upon diem. This menner the Spaniards manually upon the first state of the second of the works. His Excellency therefore hegan immediately make every presuntion necellary for the first family make every presuntion necellary for the first family make every presuntion necellary for the formation, who coold not pay for fix months provisities, were ordered immediately to duit the garrifon, iss, were ordered immediately to duit the garrifon, iss, were ordered immediately to duit the garrifon, is also trainfoots, with three others, which were to have a completely to carry them to first. Bruain and Ireland.

"The number of men compleyed by the Spaniards of the hine before Gibralear were upwards of 3000; and at the rings those trainfoots failed, the exerctions used the set of the property of the property of the set of the property of the property of the set of the property of the propert

the Speciards in forwarding their works were such those who care over in these thips think i challe that a regular facge lias commenced before is time.

of the Reet in the Bay of Cadiz conditing of thirty fine the man way of contractonating of thirty fine fide line, with three flag ships, feveral frigures, brokkettes, see."

Capain Wolfe, of his Majefly's Packet the Thyoe, bombacture,

Capain Wolfe, of his Majelly's Packet the Thyne, smived a Palmouth, has fent an account up to the Admirally. Office, that on the 30th lait month, foon after he lad pfield scilly, he was chafed by a Spanish frigate,
which halled hun, and ordered him to thorten tail;
which halled hun, and ordered him to thorten tail;
which halled hun, and ordered him to there the faipen her way, on which they fired three thetests him has could not come up with the packet.
On the 24th of March two Spanish thips arrived at Calle from the Hawannah, one of 74, the other of 64 gast, with eight millions of dollars on board; and on thir arrival me Spaniards began to equip with all pofsible dispatch.

the dispatch.

On the fourth of April, one 74 and three frigates

On the fourth of April, one 74 and three frigates filled from Cadiz for the Havennah, for the purpose of ordering the reft of the ships home by the middle of ordering the rett of the large stoke by of july.

Remarkable inflance of Longerdiy.
A few days ago died in Yorkthire an old man, forpoled to be man 130 years of age. He gave the following actount of himself to a gentleman about at week before he died: He was born in Wales; was brought up to the farming boffands, which he had followed all tallife lings: thus the wall repembly red Charles the Ild; his life time; that he well remembered Charles the IId; that his wife died about 10 years ago in her 92d year; that his wife died about 10 years ago in her gad year; hat he had one daughter by her about 10 years ago, who died in child barth; that he had never accusioned himself to eat any breakfail, and only milk for his input; their many years he had akken a diffice to attend 100d, and feldom eat any except boiled mutton. His hair was early white, but his face had but few wrintless at he timbed his death.

On the 3 fill of May, the people in a tunulturess manor, broth pein two churches at Leghorn. They then advanced to the quarter of the jews, threstenies entirely to extripate them. Some fuldiers were halfity affembled and ordered to fire on the mutineers, like week killed and a great number wounded. Still.

hathly attended and offset in the mounded. Still, six were killed and a great number wounded. Still, however, the diffurbances continued. They have opened other churches, and convert them into magazines, and nave altumed the fed and white cockade.—The Senate and Governor have endeavoured to perfuade them to adopt peaceable measures. They have answered by a memorial, flating their civil and religious grievances, and-demanding rederfs.

PHILADELPHIA, September 9.

PHILADELLPHIA, September 9.

Extrast of a latter from England, June 21.

"What great events have we lived to fee i France has catched the facred flame of liberty from America, addisons following her example. We thought that France had been a country of flave, with characters and dilpo fitions encivated and dehaled by a cringing fulfilling the country of the countr miliken. FRANKLIN the American is dead, shid the National Affenbly go into mourning for him three-days. But he has left many Franklin's behind him in France, a Barnave, a Robertfrierre, a Freteziu, a Menow, a Volsey, a Bennzat, a Reynault; a Laneth, and many others. The SCHOLAK of WASHING. and many others. The SCHOLAR of WASHING-TON too commands the army. They appear to act with great wifdom in forming a new conditation— May their endeavours be crowned with foecess.

May their endeavours be crowned with investigation May their endeavours be crowned with investigation of the late Emperor for the changed the civil tyranny of the late Emperor for the changed the civil tyranny of the Clergy and not be compared to the change of the clergy and not be compared to the change of the clergy and not be compared to the change of the chang composed the civil tyranny of the late Emperor 1 of the civil and ecclefishineal tyranny of the Clergy and no-bles; bot according to prefent appearances, the people in that country will foon change their matters, and bits i but according to prefent appearances, the people in that constry will floon change their mailers, and tome again under the power of the Entperor.

"I apprehend that the hobile disposition manifested towards us by Spain in taking our thips on the northwest coast of Amenica, was partly owing to a define of preventing a revolution in that kingdom similar to that in France, actuating to the family compact, to call off the attention of that repuredly fickle feeple from refloring their liberty and settling their constitution, and to first upon external affairs. But the National Affamily were caple, de enough to see the design, and to guard against it by Keeping the power of making lease and war in their own hands.

"Our prefent ministry are not friends to liberty; they keep extending the excise laws; they refuse to admit Protestant Differents into civil onlice; they refuse to make any reform in the representation of the people, &c. &c. &c."

PORTLAND, Sept. 5.
On Monday evening laft, a Mr. Adams, belonging to the county of York, was stopped in the woods between this town and Succarappa, his money demanded, and his life threatened in case of his refusal. Mr. A-which Mr. Adam's hor's was afrighted, fprang for-ward, and left the robber and his blanket belind him; neither of which have been leard of fines.

THE PROPERTY OF STREET

We are also informed that another person was faulted, during the last week, in Seco woods higheryman was obliged to make off.

BOSTON, Sept. 15.
On Thoulday lad, bis Britannic Mujelly's Frigate Penelope, Capt. Linze, arrived here from Halifax.—
He faluted the town with 13 Guns, which was return-

Extrast of a letter from a Captain of a wessel-belonging to Baltimore, dated in the barbour of Aux-Cayes, A guff 3.

"The inhabitants of this place suspectings from the

The inhabitants of this place imperinger out of the contents of finite intercepted letters from the General, at Port-au-Prince, to Monfieur Codere, late Major of the Major of ar Port-an-Prince, to Monfieur Codere, late Major of his proceedings of that place and Sr. Mark's) that there was fome fector plan in agitation, which might prove fatal to them, if not timely prevented, disembled a large body of horfe and foot, and repaired to Codere's plantition, which the determination—of-heringing him to town, dead or either. As they were pailing one of his Cane fields, they were fired on by Codere and his negroes, who had fectreed themfelves in that place—they rectived no injury from the fire, but immediately returned it with interest, and killed fome of the agroes, after which they fee fire to the Cane, by which mean turned it with intereft, and killed fome of the negroes, after which they fee fire to the Cane, by which measus Codere was taken prifoner, and brought into rown under a ftrong pared, and lodged in the guard house.

It was with the greatest difficulty that the commoil and leading men could refirm the engaged populate from inaking an jammedjate facilities of their unbappy prifoner—but they were, at last, prevailed apon to agree to his standing trial by the law: It was then removed made of the proposed to the common and till matter. under a firing guard to the common goal, till matters could be arranged for his trial; but while the council were deliberating on the most proper mode of proceeding, the people grew mail corresponds imparient,— threatening the Judges, that if they did not find him guilty, and deliver him up that night, their lives thould notwer for it; however, before they could give an anfiver in these enraged men, the poor unhappy prilioner was feitzed upon by another party, taken from the pri-fon, and seated in a chair in the public market place.

The instant she council and mayor were apprised of the first and, they absolved the thorist (the place dehis firstion, they abandoned the charch (the place defigned for his trial) and in van flyore to refice him from the fury of the populace—but they were not permitted to approach him; the Mayor excepted, who in win effayed to appeals their releatment and fire the prifoner—Nothing could be heard but the cry of—it. Kill. Him: 12—They attempted to himself lights, the which the molo objected declaring he should due to the dark. As the people were still narms, it was apprehended many lives would be lost—but to intent were they used to reach the till fatted. they upon wreaking their vengeance on the ill fated Codere, that they shandoned the idea of further mif-Coders, that they abandoned the idea of tarber mit-chief. About feen o'clock in the evening, after a great alterestion, one of the rabble flabbed him with a bayoner—another, with a culds, levelled him to the ground, while others dicharged the contents of their mekets into his body—bits head was then cut off, and kicked about the market place with the most flavage harbarity—all his bones were broken, and his body cut and mangeled in a manner too mocking to relate— the the discount his londy confer to the water fide. cut and manged in a manner to notating the water fide, where it remained until a prieft obtained liberty to take two negro criminals from the goal, to afish at its borial. Monflern Codere was a very opulent platery, and has left an amishle wife, and several children to la-and has left an aminht wire, and ieveral children to he ment the few ritty of his fate."

The writer of the above letter has arrived from Aux-Cayes, and informs, that on the 9th Aug. 300 inhabit, ants of that place, completely atmed and accounted, were to march to St. Warks to gaill their friends there, is appendicular to the dangerous measures of the Generon to the dangerous measures of the Gener

NORTHAMPTON, September 22.

The Treasurer of the United States has iven notice, That purchases, pursuant to the "act making provision for the reduction of the public debs," will for the prefer be made in the city of New-York, commencing the arthing.—Proposals fealed, accompanied with the certificates, which must be of the prefent debt of the United States, including Indents, are received by the Trea-furer: The Geruficates, excepting those iffued by the Register of the Treasury and Indents, to be regillered before payment will he inade!

Commonwealth of Maffachusetts. In the House of REPRESENTATIVES, Sept.

R ESOLVED, that all matters and things whatever, which were referred by the Legislature at the laberession of the General Court, to this resistance to any particular day of this fellion, be further referred to the next felion of the General Court, and to fuch day therein as was appointed therefor, in this feldams few forme money from his packer, and preleased his being his money from his packer, and preleased from :—and that all executions that were originally warman in antempting to take tryltopista a blanker that was wrapt about him; by she fall of dered in the faild laft festion, to flay until this fession, or to any particular day in this fession, be further Ordered to flay until the next felfion of the General Court, and unto fuch day in faid next festion, as was directed therefor in this festion; and that all persons, who in the faid last fession, were directed to shew cause against granting the prayer of any petition at this fellion, or on any particular day in the fellion, have the fame day in their faid next fellion, as was appointed therefor in this feffion; any thing in any resolution of the General Court, passed at their last selsion, to the contrary notwithstanding.

And the Secretary is directed to publish this Refolve in the public Newspapers as foon as may be.

Sent to for concurrence. DAVID COBB, Speaker. In SENATE, Sept. 15, 1790. Read and concurred. SAMUEL PHILLIPS, jun. Prefident.

> Approved, JOHN HANCOCK

True copy-Ancit,
JOHN AVERY, jun. Sec'ry. Mailachusetts Monthly State Lottery.

SCHEME

Of the FIFTH CLASS of the ufetts Monthly State Lottery.

TATAL	a Tickers.	at TWO DO	LLARS each	h.,
Prizes.		Dollars.	10.40	Dollar.
	of	1000 200	is	200
10		100		ICO
-10	39 1 1	- 50		500
10	or has the factor	4D 2D		100 500 500
10		10		150
20		8		100
.100		= 5		4176
1492
1669 I	rizes.		Deduction	856s
. 5 3 4 1	HALLAS .	Charles of the second of the second	111	1.00

5000 Tickets. 10000 The above Class will commence drawing, on or be-fore Thursday, the 28th of October next.

ps TICKETS in the above Chis may be had of the feveral Managers—of James Wayre, Franking Head, Court-Street, and of the Treasurers of the Commonwealth, each of whom will pay the Prizes on De-

DAVID CORE, SAMUEL COUPER, Managers. George R. Minor, John Knieland,

THE Collector of Excise for the County of THE Collector of Exc1ss for the County of:
Hampflite, open more informs all who have not rendered their accounts of Exigic, and those who have not rendered and not paid, and those who are indented by bond, and likewife those who are accountable for Excise on carriages, unto the first of May 1st, that unless they fertle with him pu or before the freezed Tuesday of October next, their accounts will be port-in foir.

NOAH GOODMAN.

South-Hadley, Sept. 20, 1790. TO BE SOLD:

Convenient DWELLING-HOUSE A Convenient DWELLIANG-TAGUSE, and SHOP, with half an acreof LAND-finated in Deeffield, within a quarter of a mile of the Meeting Houte.—A thort credit will be given, and payment made easy to the purchaser. Enquire of HENRY MCNELLY, (at the Duck Manufastory, Northeaspire.)

R AN away from the Subferiber on the first of August Indiana, and Indiana, got Indiana indented ferrant boy, manual JOEL, ATCHISON; fourteen years old, thick feet, freeked face, and brown hair. Whoever will nake up fail boy and return him to me thall have two-pence reward, and no charges paid.

Outside Stiff 1700. Colrain, Sept. 1790.

NOTICE is hereby given that the time for the fettlement of the chair of Oren Tarrior, late of Shelburne, deceafed, reprefented infolvent, is prolonged to the fifth of March next. The full crimers on faid other, will work of the full committeement on faid other, will work of the full crimers. longed to the first of March next— The subscribers, commissioners on faid citate, will amend faid business on the fast Manday in February next, at the house of the widow Sarah Nims, in faid Shellburne, front one to fix o'clock, P. M. ASA CHILDS. 1. [ABEZ RANSOM, SAMUEL POYD.]

A second-band

A fecond-hand

Fall-back CHAISE,

TO BE SOLD.

Cornell-Chamber, Beffen, Sept. 15. 1790-