WHEN first the nappilal state we prove,
We live the happy live of lore:
But when familiar charge no more Infpire the bills they gave before; Bach less delighting, less is lov'd, Fielt this, then that, is disapproved. Comple cace flies, neglect acceeds; Neglect dudain and harred breeds.

Two thus a pair, who long time provid, The jons to love and be belovid, As keigh fell out for trifling things; From trilling, anger molter forings.— The with to please for rook each break, Love's throne by based rage polles d-Refule'd to part—they'd meet no more— En ugh—The chariot's at the door.— The manfina was my lady's own-Sir John result'd to live in town; Mr John reiniv'd to tire in town; i Writings were drawn; each caule agreed; Both vow'd they'd no'er recall the deed. The charior wairs.—Why this delay? The fequel finalt the cavie dilplay. One lovely gid this Judy bore, Dear pledge of joys the talles no more: The father's, mother's dailing the. Nor hip'd and prayled on each knee.— Sie John, when rising to depart, Turn'd to the carling of his heart, And ery'd with ardour in his eye, And ery a with arrows in its eye,

"Come Berjey, bud Maunia good hye."

The lade, trembling, antwer'd, "No.

"Go, kifs Vapariny Berjey, go."

"The child fealt live with me," facety'd; "The child finall choose," Sir John reply'd. Poor Beije look dat each by tures; And each the flaring tear diferrs; My lady alls with doubt and lear, "Will you not live with me, my dear?"
"Yes," half refole'd, reply'd the child, And half suppress d her tears, the smil'd.
"Come Besser," cry'd Sir John, "you'll go,
"And live with dear Papa, I know." Yes, Beifer cry'd.—The lady then, Address'd the wondering child again, "The time to live with both is o'er; "This day we part to meet no one;"
"Choose then"—Here grief o'er ffow'd her breaft,
And tears butfo out, no long juppref'd.—
The child, whose tears and chiding join'd,
Suprovd Papa displassed, makind;
And try'd with all her little fkill, And 119 d with an her fitted will:

"Do," en 'd the liper, "Pape! do
"Love dear Mamma! Manma loves you!" "Love dear Mamma! Musicus loves you Suhad d, the footreed maily pride; No rore his looks his heart belied; The tender transport foot d its way; Tagy both conferted rich other's (way; And prompted by the forein finant, Breal ruh'd to breast, and heart to bear; Each clasp'd their Bester, o'er and o'er; And Tom drove empty from the door.

Ye that have paffinus for a tear, Give nature vent, and drop it here.

DURING a trial on the Weltern circuit, five years fuce, a winnis made afte of the word likewife very frequently in the course of his examination. His Lordhip pertifility teld him, he did not, he believed, have the meaning of the word likewife. "Ver 12.9" Lording pertially teid him, he did not, he believed, Enow the meaning of the word likewife. "Yes, Ido," fays the witeris, "Reafe your Lording, for I remember your Lording's father, who I believe was a Judge." Right, fellow, "fayvold Willin. "Yes, my Lord," anfected the wines, "And your are a judge off; but you he not time. WISE." The whole court, it is you are not tire. With, the warm, need of to fay, were in a roat of laughter.

Treasury Department, Sept. 20, 1790.

It is hereby made known that the following arrange. I ment has been adopted towards carrying into execution the Act, making provision for the debt of the U-ention the ACt, making provision for the debt of the United States, viz.

Loan Office Certificates, and those issued by the Communities, will be receivable only at the Treasury and by the respective Commissioners of Loans within the States in which they were respectively issued. The certificates issued by the Register of the Treasury, by the Pay Master General and Commissioner of Army Accessing, by the Commissioners for the adjustments of the Accessing the theory of the Accessing the Acc depted from the issue consideration for the execution of the business are facil, that it will give facility and dispatch, if applications from the Holders of Certificate of the Regilter of the Treasury and of the Pay Maker. General, and Commissioner of Army Account, and of the Commissioner of the fire. Departments abscruentioned, are made in the first instance at the Treasury; and if applications from the holders of Loan-Once. Certificates, and Certificates flued by the Commissioners for the adjustment of Accounts in the respective States, are made in like manner to the Commissioners of Loans within the States in which they were illust-Trensfers can effectivaries be made to any office that the Proprieters of their Centificates may defire.

Wer Deperment, Sept. ozir, 1700.

INFORMATION is hereby given to all the maintary Invalids of the United States, that the fours to which they are annually entitled, and which will become due on the fourth day of March cading, will be paid on the faid day, by the commissioners of the Loans within the States respectively, under such regulations, as the President of the United States may direct.

H. KNOX.

dutied States may direct.
H. KNOX,
Secretary for the Department of War.

HOLY BIBLE.

Printing Office, Westeffer, Offisher 1, 1790.

MR. Thomas most respectfully begs leave to inform the Public, that his Edution of the LARGE ROYAL QUARTO BIBLE, is now committed to the Prefs, and will be carried on with all the dispatch that Prefs, and will be carried on with all the dispatch that the nature of the work will permit.

The many discouragements behad met with in getting forward with this large, extensive and important undertaking be finds have principally artifen from people in general being unacquainted with the Real faze of a Royal Quarto Bible—many suppose that there is no difference in the faze and quality of Quarto Bibles; whereas, there are Quarto Bibles of many fizza and qualities, as Dundeelmen, Otharos and folion. The Edition he proposed to print, and is now printing, is of the larged that of Quartos, and of the first quality; and the British Edition are commonly told in this and the British Edition is to other States at Eight Dollars each—his Edition is to be but Searce Dollars, and warranted that they shall be be but Serve Dellars, and warranted that they shall be at least equally as good—smaller quarto Bibles are fold at ican equally as good—insuler quarto number are som from 10f to 24f, each.

He begsall juch as have been difcouraged from fab-feribing, from an idea that the work would be high priced, to make themfelves acquainted with the vari-coss face and prices of Bidle and they will foon per-ceive their multike. He is confident that when there all five of the edition is though the wares, obsertion at ceive their middee. He is confident that when the re-al fixe of the edition is known, that every objection at to the price will be removed, and that it will actually be found tobe cheaper than any Edition of its fixe and quality now felling on this Continent—he pledges him felf that it fhall befo.

In full affirmance, when the facts are known, that he shall be encouraged, he is now proceeding with the work:—He request, that the Reverend Clergy would examine into the truth of his affections, and oudceive fuch as have formed a wrong opinion as to the fize, quality and price:—He wither for a continuance of their exertions, now the work is in the Prefs, to obtain fiblicitiers—fich as have not returned the Subfaription Paper will be pleafed to do it by the first day of June next—Those who have returned their papers, and are disposed to make another trial, will be again furnished with specimens, on giving information to their, and the Public's most obedient and very humble servant, ISAIAH THOMAS.

PRODUCE implenty.

Pay your Debts and fave Cost. HOSE debts due to DAVENPORT & M'LEAN, contracted at Northampton, previous to the first day of April last, will politively be put in fuit without further notice, unless paid by the first day of January next.

By order of Mess. Davenport & M'Lean. N. B L A K E.

Northampton, Nov. 1790.

Wright and Stoddard, Have juff received a large and general Affortment of G O O D S,

Spired to the leafon, which they are now felling, at their flore opposite the meeting-house in Northampton, as cheap for Cash as at any store in this county;—at which place their friends and cuftomets may depend on the fametesms for Produce as they have formerly experienced, and the smallest favour most readily ac-

November 24, 1790.

BROKE into the inclosure of the subferiber, the 6th of Sept. 1st, a pale red yearing STEAR, marked with a half crop the under fide of the left car. The owner is defined to prove his property, pay charges and take him away.

JOSEPH PARKS.

Norwich, Nov. 10, 1750.

Stop Thief! S TOLEN from the subscriber, on the night of the 23d ind; a black stone HORSE, of the French breed, with a star in the forchead, one hind foot white, breed, with a flar in the forehead, one hind foot white, has a floot came, a small piece cut out of his right ear, fupporfed to have been done when young, between 13 and 14 hands ligh. Whoever will fecure the thief, to litute may, behaveght to infine, and return the borfe to the owner, findl receive Five Dollars reward, and for the horfe coaly. Three Dollars, and all receivary charges paid, by DONATHAN FELT.

Well-Springfeld, Nov. 16, 1790.

TAKEN up lift he fublication, a red linear a lift of a year old laft firting, with a crop in the off-car, and two filson the upper fide of the same rails, other red HellEER, year old paft, with no artificial mark. The owner is defired to prove his property, pay charges and rake them away.

Northampton, Dec. 1, 1790.

cs and take them away. I I Northampton, Dec. 1, 1750.

Masiachasists Mountly State Lottery. CLASS THE SEVENCE.

SCHEME

Of the SEVENTH CLASS of the

| 5000 Tic                     | kets, at TWO DO | LLARS each            | y.ollen |
|------------------------------|-----------------|-----------------------|-------------|
|                              | 100             | is                    | Ico         |
| 10                           | 100             |                       | 20          |
| 10                           | 50              |                       | 100         |
| 10                           |                 |                       |             |
| 10                           | 4020        | 地區的巨洲                 | 45          |
| 15                           | 10              |                       | 10          |
| 29                           | 8               |                       | 16          |
| 100                          | 87          |                       |             |
| 1492                         |                 | 新州等的名          | 50          |
|                              |                 |                       | 45          |
| 1669 Prizes.3331 Elanks. |                 | Deduction,            | 858         |
| cooo Tickets.                |                 |                       | 200         |
| John - scarces               |                 | Control of the second | 225         |

coso Tickets.

The above Clafs will commence diaving, on or hefore THURSDAY the 13th of Jammry next.

$\frac{\pi}{2}$ TICKETS in the above Clafs may be lad of the feveral Managers—of James Whitz, Frankling Head, Court-Street, and of the Treasure of the Commonwealth, each of whom will pay the Prizes on De-

BENJAMIN AUSTIN, jun. ] DAVID COSE, SAMUEL COOPER, GLORES R. MINOT, >Managent JOHN KNEELAND, Boston, Dec. 2, 1790.

URRS. CASH, and a generous price given for all thindied SHIPPING FURRS, by ROBERT BRECK & SON. Northampton, Dec. 16, 1790.

Sleigh Belly & Harnels Buckles.

Silver Shoe and Knee Buckles, Plated, do.—Pinchback, do. &c.—Crucibles—Chree and Tongues, and all kinds of work in the Goldfenib's Bulinefs, may be had of the fableriber.—who want to purchase old Silver, Copper and Brafs, for which good pay will be made.—He allo wants an Approximate the above buffarefs.—Enquire of J. H. BRECK.

Northampton, Dec. 8, 1790.

To be SOLD & PUBLIC VENDUE,
A The house of Mr. Jonathan Clap, inshelder in Eatlampton, in Thursday the 23d day of De camber inft. 2 one o'clock P. M. 2 picter or peccased LAND, belonging to faid diffirit of Eastampton, containing to acres, bring part of the original forty red highway, that lies, between Eastampton meeting hose and Capt. Lemned Pomeroy a farm, adjoining on the westend of the mountain division, DAVID LYMAN, Chairma of the Committee.

Eaffampton, December 6, 1790.

STRAYED from the fible fiber, last June, two yeating STEARS, one a dark brows, the other red and white, both marked with a flir in the left act whoever will take up faid creatures, or give information where they may be had, shall be handformly rewarded by ISAIAH BROWN Whately, December 2, 1790.

STRARED or Stolen from the fublicities, the set of Sept. laft, a dark brown MARE, with a form horfe COLT—the mare a natural trotter, mare from horhides of the neck, large mane and tail, three years old past—the cold lass star in the forehead, paces and canters, was folded in July last. Whoever will take up faid Mare and Colt, and return them to the for-feriber in Worthington, fault have Three Dollar re-ward, and necessary charges paid, by SYLVANUS PARSONS.

Wotthington, Dec. 3, 1790.

HUDSON and GOODWIN.

Have for Sale, nearthe. Bridge Har FORD,
CLOTHIERS Prefs Papers, by the grossor death;
Cattridge Paper, by the Ream or Quite; Bonnet Papert by the gross or dozen; Wrapping Paper, by the Ream; all parts of Webfler's Inflitter, in large or funal quantities; Writing Paper by the Ream; Marchle Paper; Account Books of various fizes; Wafen, Sealing Wax, &c. &c.

. ALL Perfons indebted to the Printer hereof, for the Hampshire Gazette, are called upon once more in this way, to make payment-Those indebted and have discontinued receiving the papers, are informed, that a speedy settlement will prevent their accounts being lodged in the hands of an Attorney to collect.—Those indebted for ADVERTISING are also called upon to make payment.

HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 22, 1790.

NORTHAMPTON, (Massachuserts) Published by WILLIAM BUTLER

rillang athlbited in the fulletting NALARTYD will printly afford Entertalmutut far a great number of ser Readers: Shekher of the Life of JOSEPH MOUNTAIN, a No gre, cobb endertieted at New House, (4n. the 2015) der of Oneber, 1790 for a Kape, commined on the 2016. day of May laft.

friends.
The first seventeen years of my life were spent in Mr.
Mission's samily.—As a servant in the house I acquired Millin's camily— as a reversal, in the nouse 1 recent ra-the reputation of mutfal forightlines and activity. My maker was industrious so instruct me in, the Prechyse-rian religion which be professed, reach meter treat and writes and imprefa my mind, with feature-off virtue.

write; and imprefa my mind with femiments of virtue. Hew großly their opportunities have been neglected, the following flory will too fully evince.

To the 17th year of my age, on the 17th of March 1775, with my mafter's condent, I entered, on oward the fing Chalkley, commanded by Joseph Spain, and owned by Medi's) james and Drinker of Philadelphia, and on the 26th of May following we arrived in the Downs. Floon quinted the veeler, and in four days wiff frolling the threets of London in quest of amore-ment. In this first than, the public will easily conceive, I could not long tenain an ritle spectaror. It will not be fourtise to told me freedly instituted in will not be suprizing to find me speedily initiated in practices dispraceful to human nature, and destructive of every moral virtue. Unfortunately for me, a scene open which will close only in the shadow of

One day, at an ale-house in London, I accidentally became acquainted with one Francis Hyde, originally from Middlefer, and one Thomas Wilfon, of Straf-fordhire in England. They were travelling the trainty with a hand organ and various other mutical coloury with a hand organ and various other multical influences, pricetoding to great art in aumerous performances, and really possessing surprising knowledge is every factive of piggling. This was their employment in the day time, for the purpose of executing more effectually the principal business of the recent incentive, the highway noblery. They foon found me indeeptable of almost any impeditions, and rather incapable of, nor writer to become a companion in their insensity. of aincid any impleifions, and neither incapalle of, nor writer by hexcuring a companion in their iniquity-We all fit out from Loudon about $8 e'cleck in the creating after I had joined them, each armed with a harger and a brace of piftols. We had alfo foitable druftes and a dark landsom. Our landlord, who kept textra at the fign of a black horfe, at Charing-crots, furnished as with every thing regulate for the expedition. Hig name was William Houphirtys. The plan this evenlingwas to attack the mail-coach, which would hart at 120 clock, at night, from the fluj tavera, hetween Woolwich and Graves-end, about 9 miles from London.

London.

We were on the foot at the hour agreed upon, and dignifed outfelves for the adventure. Hyde and Wilfon were dreffed in white frocks and boots, with their ion were dredled in white frocks and boots, with their facet panced yellow to refemble Mulattones. Mountain was drefled in the fame manner, with the addition of a large rail wig, white gloves and a black made over the face. When the flags arrived, I flarted, and caught, the leading horses by their bridles, while Hyde and "Elliongach prefeated a brace of priblos in a the caucht window, and demanded of the patteragers their money. smany, and demanded of the pallengers their money. There were from gentlement and one lays in the court. They denied having any money. Willian faid, "Defirer or death," They gave us a hank note of gol. one other of 201, and about 60 guiness in cath. We then grained to, an unfrequented place, thifted our drefit, and wenter the parties of the court of the and prepared to profecute our journey to Chathain cs, and prepared to profecute our journey to Chathain rin the county of Kent.

In the day time, Hyde and Willon commonly played upon their influencemt, and performed varietas, feets of flight of hand, at the that was their folle genopation. We were also very particular in maning olicivations upon all travellers, to learn if they might the ranked; (for that was one word for rebbed.) In four days after the Jorner robberty, we met a Capt. Hill at the foot of Rocheftre brige near Chatham —He was a captain of the mariners, and we had feen him in the days time at Brumpton birracks, about half a mile from the bride. Wilson aked him the time of night. He made an reply. Hyde then cample the bridle. I, his kit hand, and Wilson prefented a piffol to his breath, & faid "Deliver, or death." He aftered us that he had as money wont taking. Wilson faid, "then give up to money worth taking. Wilfon faid," then give us your watch," which he did. The watch was gold, and Triped at 50 guiness. We then walked off about 300 Polis towards. Graves each and immediately tacked for was a great but sudery for we; but the partners for points from Capt. Hill's information we had gone for Craver-ind, entirely millions out rout. The next morning we took post-chaife for Dindon, where we arrived about 50 clocks in the execution. Our boars, and heart so of the bricker whom we containty employed. He was a level in Strick in the morning we took post-chaife for Dindon, where we arrived about 50 clocks in the execution. Our boars, the was a level and the disk is the containty and the results of the former months. My time was front in that truend of diffication which was the medifierly section to obtain a point for reclaim to point for the most for calkin my policition, and the former months. My time was front in that truend of diffication which was the medifierly section to obtain the point of calkin my arrived about the medifierly section with one of calkin my policition, and the former months. My time was front in that truend of diffication which was the medifierly section to close the medifier when the medifierly section to close the medifier when we see front in that truend of diffication which was the medifierly section to close the mediant point for front months. My time was front in that truend of diffication which was to close the mediant point for the mediant point for front months. My time was front in that truend of diffication which was to close the mediant point for the mediant point for front months. My time was front in that truend of diffication which was to close the mediant point for the mediant point for front months. My time was front in tha England, with whom we had conflant communication, and who were perfectly acqueinted with our modes of acquiring property. After such a joint we thought it advitable to recruit ourselves by rioting on our fipalic.

In a few days, it was concluded that I thould go alone and attempt, to "touch" foine grattemen who frequented the plays at Covent Garden; this, confidering my age and inexperience, was thought righer a bold ftrake. age and inexperience, was thought righter a bold findle. Being villain enough to attempt asyrbing. I did not hefitate; has polled my fell agreecibly to direction. My efforts, however, were wholly unforcefitol, and I returned empty. The west night I was placed at London bridge, while Hyde finod at Black fryurs, and Wilfen at W. Heinfler. At half past as o'clock I met a Capstan Deffield, and alsed him the time of night, life that me. I fail, "You know my profesion; deliver or death." He theyed hack to frike me with his case; I cocked as pillol, and dold him to deliver instantly, or death. Bould ne has portion. He then three me has purfer which reacted about to guineas, and a filver watch, which was valued by our broker at $61. Hyde, the faue night, obtained about to guineas. and a filver watch, which was valued by our broker at 61. Hyde, the faume night, obtained about 40 gaincas of 517 John Griffing. Willon about 30 g of a Mt. Burker, and such a watch, one gold, the other pinchbeck. The next day we faw advertisement, describing the robberies, and offering rewards for the perpertation.

The next night, with littled difficulty, I robbed. Hyde, Lindly of 16 guinear, and a gold-sing. Hyde, on the fame evening, rook from Lord John Cavendith about 10 guineas, and Wilfon robbed. Wilfiam Burke of 11 yeiness.

of 11 gainess. We now concluded to remain in London for a while ay ender congruence to remain 14 Lorson to a waiting a perillene of plasfers. The physical orbitries had furnished as with each in abandance, and we included in every frecies of debanchery. We gaubled very deeply at dice, cards anot billivida. Hide and Wilfon the control of t deeply at dice, cards and billierds. Hide and Willian were very expert at this billierds, and would almost invariable foundles aftenged out or his money.

In March 1776, we went to the city of York, about 200 miles from Lindon. Hete we continued feveral weeks, waiting found farour ble opportunities to rich at the plays; that sone prefented. We want from York to New Market, to attend the famous races which took place about the first of Jane. There we from: Lord-Gore of Richmond, and Lard Turton of Sheffield in Yorkthire: We were much perplexed to invent the mod advantageous mode of "touching" them. It was at length concluded to attack them at their lodgings, which weren an inu very large and greatly frequent as tength continuous to attack them at their lodgings, which werent an inu very large and greatly frequented by various claifes of people. About 7 o clock in the evening, while the attendants of those guideness were in the kirchest and flables, we cutered the front were in the kurchest and limbes, we entered the front door, and having bribed the porter with a few guideas, were immediately let into the room. Lord-Gore and Tufton, were fitting over a table ar a dith of coffee, and reading newspapers. We industly prefented our pit-ols, and demanded their money. Lord-Tofton deliver-us one hank note of tool, and three others of col. each, ols and definancia their more processing and the content of the co riding from New-Market to York with Wilson, and that he saw him pick up a packet book containing those hills. The couchman, having hean previously bribed force to the same, fact. Upon this testimony Wilson was acquired. I was not feet for as a winness as the examination, as I understood Lord Robert Manners was then in New-Market and would probably attend the trial. The reason why I tild not with to meet his Lordship's gre, was, that on the night before we less Lordship's gre, was, that on the night before the lord Lordship made a med daring attack upon him. He was walking unamed, next Hounslow Heath, attended by his soot-man. I met him, presented my pisson and he gave me 75 guintess, two gold watches, piflof, and he gave me 75 guinets, rwo gold watches, and two gold rings.—Hyde and Wilfen were near at hand; but they did not differer themselves, leaving nand; but trey did not encover unemerica, icaving me" to play the herosthine.

In the latter end of June we again met at the old read errous in London and divided our plunder. The property which I then had on hand enabled use to live very freely for feme months. My time was front in that trand of diffipation which was the next flart valendal upon for recious a charafter, and which was tolerably well fupported by the flock of each in my own podictions, and that of my broker.

I now refolved to quirthis courfe of life which I had hitherto purised with 60 much thocefts. Accordingly I entered on board the brig Sally, as Cook. Accordingly I entered on board the brig Sally, as Cook and made two royages in her to Lifbon. Upon my resum, after exhauding my pay, I made another voyage, in the Fanny, Capt, Sinchis, to Kingfion, in Jamaica; which being saidfied in time months, I again wilted London, and concluded to relinguish the feafaring butnets for the purfect. At the old place of refort I because at quainted with one Haynes and Jones both of Vorightime. They were partially initiated in the frience of fost-pads. They doon propoled that I flought reform my prodefolm, and join these. My former mode of life, the iniguishly vicious, yet podictid many charms in my vice. I therefore compiled with their requelt, at the faves time doubting, if they were postedied of fulficient courage and Kull for companions to one who had ferved under expanienced makers, and who considered himleff at the head of the profession. Our first object was to affall Newcastle flage, which would be in Tottenham-Court road at 8 o'clock in the evening. We were on the post in feafon, and Mauntain address them thus: "My Jals, in a hazardous strength from London, I faise make a hold fiches." Upon the arrival of the coach at half past 7 o'clock, four miles from London, I faise make a bold ficheryed a prish of force, and faid "deliver," and infantly dicharged a prish of special or death, Lond Garnick and freeral chere were patiengers: His Londhip inid, "Yes, yes, Yil, deliver," and infantly dicharged a prish of special or death, Lond Garnick and freeral chere, Lond Garnick and freeral chere, and which he and Haynes made the reflexop. The chackman was then directed to "direct doing bortes. 15 minutes before our engagement, one of whom was badly wounded. The next day we faw an advertise meats offering a reward of 60 guiness for the derecmeate our right reward of the gunness for the deter-tion of the robbers, and informing, that it was fun-posed three were killed. This specimen of enterprise of my new affectates convinced me, that they were not adept in their occupation, and induced me to guit their fonciety.

The buffings which now feemed most alluring to me, was that of bigbourge men. Confidering myfell at the head of foot-pade, I appreed for a more becommable cm ployment, and therefore determined to join myfelt to ployments, and therefore determined to join myfelt us the gang of highway men, whole randervous were at Broad Sr. Giles's, up Holborne, at the fign of the Hamphire hog, and kept by a William Harrifon, a native of the like of Man. Harrifon, was the (upport the proteflor, and the landlord of this whole company. The horfes and accontrement were key and form the by him, and occasionally impolied to adventures. He enquired, my name and finding that I was Monentin who was confederate with Hyde and Willon, he realists a singulation; and finding the willing for any time. ly admited me so the fraternity. He afted if Listerake a just alone; and finding me willing for any thire; he quiedly furnished we with equipments proper for the expedition. Moanted on a very seet herfe, and prepared with proper changes of drefs, I far out for Coventry, about 95 miles from London. I madigate the content of that profession, and that he must deliver or abide up of that profession, and that he must deliver or abide-yes confequences. Upon this he gave mashis gold water! I infilled on his money, and cocked my pillol, threat-vi-ing him with infill medath. He perceived that refi-tance and perfindion were equally unavailing, and the w-me his partic containing 13 half guinean and fine-pocket pieces. The gold watch was valued at the opti-ness. I then redered him back down the hane, are: panied him thither, and fied with the greated bathe it it or an adjacent wood: Here I fillited my own and horf; I dreft, leaving them in a bye place, rode directly to a neighboring town, and there put up for the night.—

Thence I tok my courfe for Newcastle in Devonfi re, about 250 miles north of London, and thence to Warrington in Lancaferthire. Here about 7 o'cleve in the exeruig I rest with a gentleman who appeared in object of plander. I after him the time of night; in other himself, and the different control of the first watch, and told me the hour. I object to You have a very fine watch." He answered, "Ene-