

On bearing a young Lad, - a few evening late, in a large company.

Attunes her heavenly voice,
The thrilling music widely floats,
To ravish and rejoice;
But when in sooth, sooth strains,
She sings of love and woe,
Our bosoms throb with tender pains,
And tears of pity flow.

II.
Thus she, whose rosy winning charms,
Engrave every breast;
She, in whose gently circling arms,
Ten thousand beauties rest,
With countless and resplendent stars,
O'er every scene controls;
Her graces captivates our hearts,
Her voice commands our souls.

III.
Her warbling melody inspires,
The bosom with delight;
Can cause illusive, cheering fires,
To glimme thro' miser's night;
With magick power bid fancy roam,
To airy scenes of joy,
Or call the bly & tender home,
And the sweet spell defey.

IV.
Oppress'd with unrelenting grief,
I long had mourn'd in vain;
But Anna's voice gave kind relief.
And quell'd my bosom's pain:
While list'ning to the syren sounds,
Care lost a while its fangs,
A genial balm heal'd all my wounds,
And eas'd wos' rudest pangs.

V.
Thus when dire discord rag'd on high,
And anger fir'd the Gods;
When factions evill'd the sky.
And dash'd Jove's abodes;
Mild mists hid the powers above,
And melted them to peace;
Soft virgins with sweet notes of love,
Bade fiercer Furies cease.
Woburn, Nov. 21, 1791.

Printing-Office, Northampton, May 1791.
PROPOSAL
For Printing by Subscription, THIRTY FOUR SERMONS,

On the most useful and important
SUBJECTS;

Adapted to the FAMILY AND CLOSET.

By the Rev. SAMUEL DAVIES, A.M.
Late President of the College in PRINCETON,
IN TWO VOLUMES.

To which are prefixed, a

SERMON on the Death of Mr. DAVIES.

By SAMUEL FINLEY, D. D.
And another discourse on the same occasion,
together with an ELEGAC POEM,
in the memory of Mr. DAVIES.

By THOMAS GIBBONS, D. D.

R E C O M M E N D A T I O N .
PRESIDENT DAVIES's character as a Preacher so well known, and the Sermons here proposed to be reprinted have so long justly been celebrated, so much enquired after by the Clergy and Judicaries, and are so much needed for the promotion of personal and useful religion, that we suppose of the design, will afford it our countenance and wish every useful friend.

SAMUEL HOPKINE, Pastor of the Church in Hadley.

RUFUS WELLS, Factor of the Church in Whately,
SOLOMON WILLIAMS, Pastor of the Church
in Northampton.

C O N D I T I O N S .
I. The work shall be printed with a fair type on good Paper, & will be put to press as soon as five hundred copies are subscriber'd for.

II. It will be contain'd in about 1100 pages.

III. The price to Subscribers will be Five dollars, handsomely bound and lettered, (also the English Editor cost nearly double that sum.)

IV. Those who subscribe for six sets shall have a seventh gratis.

V. The Money to be paid as soon as the work is completed and ready for delivery.

SUBSCRIPTIONS are received by William Butler, the intended publisher, and by a number of Gentlemen in whose hands Subscription papers are lodged.

S R A Y E D away from the Subscriber, one of his pastes at Whately, some time about the 25th of October last, a pair of STEARS, three years old past, marked with a hole through the middle of the off ear, and a half penny the under side of the same, one of them black with white face, and eagles' hoods, the other red. Whoever has taken up said STEARS, or shall take them up, will give information thereto of the owner, so that he may have them again, shall be handsomely rewarded.

SAMUEL DICKINSON,
Haifield, November 26, 1791.

A LL Persons indebted to the Subscriber, by book
or note, by making payment by the first of January next, may pay cash. JOHN RUSSELL Deafield, Nov. 28, 1791.

P R O P O S A L

For RE-PRINTING BY SUBSCRIPTION,
ADVICE from a Lady of Quality to her CHILD-REN; in the last stage of a lingering illness.
Translated from the FRENCH, by S. GLASSE, D. D. F. R. S. Chaplain in ordinary to His Majesty. In two Volumes—divided into twenty—each conference on the following subjects, viz.

History of her own life.—On order.—On true patrictism —On social duties.—On virtue.—Further instructions on the same subject.—On pleasure.—On ambition.—On generosity.—On female conduct.—On duty.—On the clerical character.—On pride.—On friendship.—On the courtship.—On the vanity of the world.—On relative duty.—On religion.—
On the vanity of the world.—On relative duty.—On kindness to domestics.

EXTRACT from the Author's ADVERTISEMENT

Where present you with the pure effusions of parental tenderness. As filial affections preferred them from being lost, a desire to promote the health of mankind has induced me to make them public.

This excellent woman having herself given us the history of her own life in her first discourse, we shall only add, that she had every advantage of person and understanding; and that nothing can be more affecting, than that display of female delicacy and manly-courage, which appear in these conferences with her children.

We here see a mother, elevated as it were above herself, and insensible of the miseries of sickness, and the horrors of the grave; while she is, increasing in the minds of her children the duties, which they owe to God, to themselves, and to society. Her discourse is chiefly directed to those two of her sons, who had engaged in a military life, in one of their conferences, she addresses herself particularly to her third son, who had dedicated himself to the CHURCH; and theris confined to the instruction of her daughter. In all of them, her admonitions are informed with tears, and interrupted by sighs; they are the natural dictates of the tenderest affection, which we bodily infirmities could prevail with her to suppress. If the reader finds not in this work those episodes, or that variety which distinguishes a romance; it is only because TRUTH wants none of these embellishments. She needs only to be seen, to command our attention and our admiration; The voice of nature is heard throughout the work, and the eloquence here displayed is the natural language of the heart.

The life of this incomparable mother was but too short, as it did not exceed 39 years; but she will yet live in the esteem of her confidantes, which no doubt will be watered with the reader's tears.

C O N D I T I O N S :

I. It will contain between Two and Three Hundred Decades Pages; shall be printed on good paper, and a new type—will be handsomely bound and lettered.

II. Price to subscribers will be four dollars, and sixty cents.

III. Those who subscribe for six Books, shall be prefixed with six dollars gratis.

IV. As soon as a sufficient number of subscribers appears to defray the expense of printing, it shall be put to press, and finished as soon as possible.

V. The money to be paid when the books are taken.

SUBSCRIPTIONS are received by E. W. Weld,
the intended publisher, and by the Printer hereof.

William Pratt,

INFORMS the Public that he carries on the BOOK-BINDING business, in all its branches, the next Door to Mr. ASAHEL POMEROY'S Tavern, where old Books are re-bound in the Neatest manner. He has also for sale, Spelling-Books, and Account-Books, of all sizes.

Northampton, November 25, 1791.

Just Published and now selling by the Printer hereof,
THE LITTLE FRIENDER'S ASSISTANT; CONTAINING,

I. The following Stories, mostly taken from the history of America, and adapted with Cuts, viz.

Story of Columbus—Story of Capt. John Smith, who first settled Virginia—Story of the First Settlers in New-England—Story of the Pequod War—Story of Phillips' War—Story of a Girl eighteen years old—Story of Major Waldron—Story of the taking of Da-ver by the Indians—Story of Sarah Gerrish—Story of the Burning of Skene-City—Story and Speech of Logan, a Mingoo Chief—Story of Charles Churchill, the Poet—Story of Gen. Putnam and the Wolf—Story of Gen. Putnam; while a Prisoner—Story of a Grateful Dog—Story of a Faithful Dog—Story of the treason of a Dog—Story of the Devil—Account of the Treason of African Slaves—Story of Governor Talbot of Connecticut—Account of the Burial—Lamentation of an old Female Slave—Story of the Young Cottager.

II. Rudiments of English Grammar.

III. A Federal Catechism, being a short and easy explanation of the Constitution of the United States.

IV. General principles of Government and Commerce.

V. The Farmer's Catechism, containing plain rules of husbandry.

All added to the capacities of children.

By NOAH WEBSTER, Jun.
Attorney at Law.

 ALL Persons indebted to the Subscriber, by book
or note, by making payment by the first of January next, may pay cash.

JOHN RUSSELL

Deafield, Nov. 28, 1791.

Levi Shephard,

H AS just imported from England, and now ready for sale at his new Store in Northampton, a quantity of HARD WARE, (which will make complete a very general assortment of useful and necessary Goods, for this part of the Country) among which are BRASS KETTLES, of various sizes,
PEWTER PLATTERS, PLATES and RASONS,
KNIVES and FORKS, of an excellent quality,
Steel Plate Stand, and tenant SAWs,
DOOR LOCKS, and Door Tackles, of various kinds,
An assortment of FILES,
SADLER'S WARE, &c. &c.

Most kinds of produce will be received in payment, for the above GOODS.

Said Shephard requests those Gentlemen that are intending business, who have made contracts for the delivery of Brass, that they would dress it out as early as possible, that he may be enabled to purify his Brass Manufacture the next season without interrupting a few interruptions that are occasioned for want of Stock to keep the workmen employed, will totally discourage the prosecution of this beneficial Manufacture in the County. In short, the whole encouragement of our Manufactures in general, depend on the Farming Interest, of consequence the prosperity and happiness of the Community at this time, is at their disposal.

N. B. A quantity of good FLAX, will be soon wanted at the Duck Manufactory in Northampton, and such pay will be made as shall give entire satisfaction to the owner, if it is well dressed.

NOTICE is hereby given to the Non-resident proprietors, or owners of Land in Belchertown, that their Lands are taxed in State No. 6, made July 18, and in Town, County, Minister and School rates, all made January 1789, committed to me to collect, as follows:

State, Town, County, Minister and School Tax.
Total.
Benjamin Thomson, 5 d. 0.
The Heirs of Benjamin Lynd, Esq. 8 d. 0.
The Heirs of Paul Macfarlane, Esq. 9 d. 0.
John Abercrombie, 15 d. 2.
John Plumley, 2 d. 3.
Joseph Sprague, 1 d. 0.
David Patrick, 3 d. 0.
William Scott, 5 d. 0.
John Johnson, 7 d. 0.
Jacob Edson, 3 d. 0.
Simon White, 3 d. 0.
Bliss of Wilbraham, 4 d. 0.
Nathan Pettengill, 11 d. 0.
Rev. Grindal Rawlton, 2 d. 0.
The Heirs of P. — Graves, 4 d. 0.
Stephen Pettengill, 1 d. 0.
AND that unless said Taxes are paid by the 2d day of December next, so much of their lands will be exposed to sale, at public Vendue, at 2 o'clock P. M. on said day, at the house of Col. E. Dwight, Husband-er in Belchertown, as will be sufficient to pay said Taxes and charges, to me, AMASA SCOTT, Col.

Belchertown, Nov. 24, 1791.

T O B E S O L D ,

A VALUABLE Tract of land, lying in Belchertown and Pelham, given by the late Hon. Joseph Hawley, Esq., to the town of Northampton. It will be sold in such quantities as to suit the purchaser, and payment therefor will be made as early and convenient as they can define, please to apply to

ROBERT BRECK,
JOSEPH LYMAN,
SIMEON PARSONS,
S. HENSHAW,
B. SHELDON,
Committee.

Joseph Clapp, jun.

H AS just received, at his store in Easthampton, a large and general Assortment of West-India and English GOODS. Consisting of almost every article of use or convenience, that can be required in a family.
As soon as a sufficient number of subscribers appear to defray the expense of printing, it shall be put to press, and finished as soon as possible.

JOSEPH PARSONS.

Northampton, Dec. 6, 1791.

LOST, some time since in this town, TICK-
ET No. 1517, in the 2d Class of the Semi-annual
State-Lottery.—Whoever has found the same, and will
leave it with the Printer hereof, shall be rewarded for their trouble. The number being registered in the Managers books, as lost, it can be of no benefit to any one but the real owner, should it be fortunate.

BUROKE into the enclosure of the Subscriber, the 15th of November last, a red and white STAR, two years old past, marked with a slit in the end of each cat. The owner is desired to prove property, pay charges, and take him away. Also staved, at the same time, seven SHEEP, five white and two black ones, with white about the neck. Whoever will give information of said sheep, shall be handomely rewarded.

JOSEPH PARSONS.

Northampton, Dec. 6, 1791.

LOST, some time since in this town, TICK-
ET No. 1517, in the 2d Class of the Semi-annual
State-Lottery.—Whoever has found the same, and will
leave it with the Printer hereof, shall be reward-
ed for their trouble. The number being registered in
the Managers books, as lost, it can be of no benefit to
any one but the real owner, should it be fortunate.

BUROKE into the enclosure of the Subscriber, about the 15th of August last, a yearling STAR, a pale red, with white spots of white about him, a piece cut off the upper side of the right ear, a slit in the same; the owner is desired to prove property, pay charges, and take him away.

JOSEPH PARSONS.

Northampton, Dec. 6, 1791.

LOST, some time since in this town, TICK-
ET No. 1517, in the 2d Class of the Semi-annual
State-Lottery.—Whoever has found the same, and will
leave it with the Printer hereof, shall be reward-
ed for their trouble. The number being registered in
the Managers books, as lost, it can be of no benefit to
any one but the real owner, should it be fortunate.

JOSEPH PARSONS.

Northampton, Dec. 6, 1791.

LOST, some time since in this town, TICK-
ET No. 1517, in the 2d Class of the Semi-annual
State-Lottery.—Whoever has found the same, and will
leave it with the Printer hereof, shall be reward-
ed for their trouble. The number being registered in
the Managers books, as lost, it can be of no benefit to
any one but the real owner, should it be fortunate.

JOSEPH PARSONS.

Northampton, Dec. 6, 1791.

LOST, some time since in this town, TICK-
ET No. 1517, in the 2d Class of the Semi-annual
State-Lottery.—Whoever has found the same, and will
leave it with the Printer hereof, shall be reward-
ed for their trouble. The number being registered in
the Managers books, as lost, it can be of no benefit to
any one but the real owner, should it be fortunate.

JOSEPH PARSONS.

Northampton, Dec. 6, 1791.

LOST, some time since in this town, TICK-
ET No. 1517, in the 2d Class of the Semi-annual
State-Lottery.—Whoever has found the same, and will
leave it with the Printer hereof, shall be reward-
ed for their trouble. The number being registered in
the Managers books, as lost, it can be of no benefit to
any one but the real owner, should it be fortunate.

JOSEPH PARSONS.

Northampton, Dec. 6, 1791.

LOST, some time since in this town, TICK-
ET No. 1517, in the 2d Class of the Semi-annual
State-Lottery.—Whoever has found the same, and will
leave it with the Printer hereof, shall be reward-
ed for their trouble. The number being registered in
the Managers books, as lost, it can be of no benefit to
any one but the real owner, should it be fortunate.

JOSEPH PARSONS.

Northampton, Dec. 6, 1791.

LOST, some time since in this town, TICK-
ET No. 1517, in the 2d Class of the Semi-annual
State-Lottery.—Whoever has found the same, and will
leave it with the Printer hereof, shall be reward-
ed for their trouble. The number being registered in
the Managers books, as lost, it can be of no benefit to
any one but the real owner, should it be fortunate.

JOSEPH PARSONS.

Northampton, Dec. 6, 1791.

LOST, some time since in this town, TICK-
ET No. 1517, in the 2d Class of the Semi-annual
State-Lottery.—Whoever has found the same, and will
leave it with the Printer hereof, shall be reward-
ed for their trouble. The number being registered in
the Managers books, as lost, it can be of no benefit to
any one but the real owner, should it be fortunate.

JOSEPH PARSONS.

Northampton, Dec. 6, 1791.

LOST, some time since in this town, TICK-
ET No. 1517, in the 2d Class of the Semi-annual
State-Lottery.—Whoever has found the same, and will
leave it with the Printer hereof, shall be reward-
ed for their trouble. The number being registered in
the Managers books, as lost, it can be of no benefit to
any one but the real owner, should it be fortunate.

JOSEPH PARSONS.

Northampton, Dec. 6, 1791.

LOST, some time since in this town, TICK-
ET No. 1517, in the 2d Class of the Semi-annual
State-Lottery.—Whoever has found the same, and will
leave it with the Printer hereof, shall be reward-
ed for their trouble. The number being registered in
the Managers books, as lost, it can be of no benefit to
any one but the real owner, should it be fortunate.

JOSEPH PARSONS.

Northampton, Dec. 6, 1791.

LOST, some time since in this town, TICK-
ET No. 1517, in the 2d Class of the Semi-annual
State-Lottery.—Whoever has found the same, and will
leave it with the Printer hereof, shall be reward-
ed for their trouble. The number being registered in
the Managers books, as lost, it can be of no benefit to
any one but the real owner, should it be fortunate.

JOSEPH PARSONS.

Northampton, Dec. 6, 1791.

LOST, some time since in this town, TICK-
ET No. 1517, in the 2d Class of the Semi-annual
State-Lottery.—Whoever has found the same, and will
leave it with the Printer hereof, shall be reward-
ed for their trouble. The number being registered in
the Managers books, as lost, it can be of no benefit to
any one but the real owner, should it be fortunate.

JOSEPH PARSONS.

Northampton, Dec. 6, 1791.

LOST, some time since in this town, TICK-
ET No. 1517, in the 2d Class of the Semi-annual
State-Lottery.—Whoever has found the same, and will
leave it with the Printer hereof, shall be reward-
ed for their trouble. The number being registered in
the Managers books, as lost, it can be of no benefit to
any one but the real owner, should it be fortunate.

JOSEPH PARSONS.

Northampton, Dec. 6, 1791.

LOST, some time since in this town, TICK-
ET No. 1517, in the 2d Class of the Semi-annual
State-Lottery.—Whoever has found the same, and will
leave it with the Printer hereof, shall be reward-
ed for their trouble. The number being registered in
the Managers books, as lost, it can be of no benefit to
any one but the real owner, should it be fortunate.

JOSEPH PARSONS.

Northampton, Dec. 6, 1791.

LOST, some time since in this town, TICK-
ET No. 1517, in the 2d Class of the Semi-annual
State-Lottery.—Whoever has found the same, and will
leave it with the Printer hereof, shall be reward-
ed for their trouble. The number being registered in
the Managers books, as lost, it can be of no benefit to
any one but the real owner, should it be fortunate.

JOSEPH PARSONS.

Northampton, Dec. 6, 1791.

LOST, some time since in this town, TICK-
ET No. 1517, in the 2d Class of the Semi-annual
State-Lottery.—Whoever has found the same, and will
leave it with the Printer hereof, shall be reward-
ed for their trouble. The number being registered in
the Managers books, as lost, it can be of no benefit to
any one but the real owner, should it be fortunate.

JOSEPH PARSONS.

North