

Folio Pulpit and Family Bible.

With fifty elegant copperplates.

Worcester, October, 1791.

P R O P O S A L S
of ISAIAH THOMAS, of Worcester, Massachusetts,
for printing by subscription,

The Holy BIBLE.

Containing the Old and New TESTAMENTS, with the Apocrypha and Index, complete.

Illustrated with fifty folio copperplate engravings of Scripture history; taken chiefly from the best designs of the most celebrated European artists, with the addition of some original pieces; the whole engraved by our own country artist, in Worcester and Boston.

The following is a list of the 50 engravings.

No. 1. A large and elegant frontispiece to the Bible.

2. The creation.

3. Adam and Eve in a state of Innocence.

4. The expulsion of Adam and Eve from paradise.

5. Noah and his family going to enter the ark.

6. Abraham offering up his son Isaac.

7. Moses in the bulrushes, as found by Pharaoh's daughter.

8. Pharaoh and his host of Egyptians drowned in the Red Sea.

9. The battle of Rephidim; or the defeat of the Amalekites by Joshua.

10. The ark of the covenant with the divine glory defending them.

11. The falling of the walls of Jericho, with the burning of the city.

12. The battle of Ai, or Bethel, with the destruction of the city by the army of Joshua.

13. Gideon's sacrifice confirmed by fire, as being ouched by the staff of the angel.

14. The fugitive Shechemites burnt & suffocated in the hold of their idol Berith.

15. Samson slaying the Philistines with the jaw-bone of an ass.

16. Samson carrying away the gates of Gaza.

17. The Philistines cutting off the head of Saul, and his three sons.

18. The assassination of Absalom, the general of king Saul.

19. An exact representation of Solomon's temple, as described in the sacred Scripture.

20. King Solomon seated on his throne, receiving a visit from the Queen of Sheba.

21. Elijah raising to life the widow's son.

22. The prophet Elijah carried up into heaven in the presence of Elias.

23. Benhadad, king of Syria, killed to death by Uzzal, who succeeded to his throne.

24. The destruction of the temple of Baal, with the priests thereof.

25. Zerubbabel, the son of Jachin, the high priest honored of death.

26. Minaiah, king of Judah, bound with chains, and confined in prison at Babylon, by order of king Esarhaddon.

27. The ancient city of Jerusalem, and places adjacent.

28. The prophet Daniel in the lion's den.

29. Frosty insect to the Apocrypha.

30. Queen Esther fainting before king Artaxerxes.

31. Susannah and the two Elders.

32. The defeat of the Samaritan army, by Judas Macabeus.

33. Frontispiece to the New Testament.

34. The head of John the Baptist brought to Herodias in a charger.

35. The body of our Saviour taken from the cross
by Joseph of Arimathea.

36. The woman miraculously healed by touching the hem of the garment of our blessed Master.

37. Christ reviving the sight of Bartimaeus.

38. The ascension of Jesus Christ to heaven.

39. The baptism of our Saviour by St. John.

40. Mary Magdalene.

41. Jesus Christ and the woman of Samaria.

42. Christ curing the impotent man at the pool of Bethesda.

43. Martha.

44. The crucifixion of our blessed Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, between two thieves.

45. St. Paul, the chief apostle of the Gentiles.

46. The preaching of Paul the apostle before Felix and his wife.

47. The apostle Paul shaking the viper from his hand, after being shipwrecked on the Island of Malta.

48. Jesus Christ the Saviour of the world.

49. St. John the Evangelist.

50. Michael the archangel binding Satan, and casting him into the bottomless pit.

CONDITIONS.

I. This large and elegant work will be published in two volumes, in boards.

II. It will be printed on fine demy paper, folio,

on an elegant new large type, cast for the purpose.

III. Subscribers will be supplied at the very low

price of $$10$ Dollars each volume.—The engravings

alone will be worth that sum.

IV. Those who subscribe for it shall have a seventh

part.

V. Both the letters and the copperplates are in great forwardness; the first volume will be published

in the first week in December next; and the second

volume in the first week in February next.

VI. Payment to be on the delivery of each volume.

VII. Works of this kind are not fit for Wicks

bidding under several months after they are printed, as
the plates and the letter press are both liable to injury
by the hammer and press of the binder. This is the reason of their being published in boards, in which
state the work may be read and handled without injury.
Subscribers can have the work bound afterwards,
either in one volume or two, as best suits their convenience.

To the PUBLIC.

NOTHING need be said on the part of the publisher
to convince a discerning public that this is an undertaking, in this country, of vast importance; that the labor and expense are exceedingly great; or that the
undertaking, if well executed, merits encouragement.
He begs leave only to observe, that he is now
carrying on this undertaking at his own risk and expense. The greatest care has been taken to have the work correct, and every way execrable to no end to disgrace, but to do some credit to our country.—The magnitude of the work exceeds anything of the kind
attempted in America; the letter press will, he thinks,
not be inferior to any that has been done in the United States; and the plates much superior to any heretofore done by our own countrymen, and would not disgrace more experienced British artists.

He solicits the aid of such christian societies and
private gentlemen, as will supply their subjects or
families with an elegant edition of the same; if ruptures;
and he desires himself such aid will be given him by a liberal subscription.

* * * SUBSCRIPTIONS are received at the Bookstore of ISAIAH THOMAS, the publisher, in Worcester, and at the bookstore of said THOMAS, and ANDREW,
in Boston; where specimens of the work may be seen.
WE the Subscribers, being appointed Commissioners by the Hon. Judge of Probate, &c. for the County of Hampshire to receive and examine the claims of the creditors, to the Estate of ISAIAH THOMAS, late of Eastampton deceased, represented in insolvent; six months from the tenth day of December last, being allowed the creditors to file a date to bring in their claims. Herby give notice, that we shall attend the business of our appointment at the house of the said Deceased, in Eastampton, on the first Mo-days of January, March, and June, from 10 till 6 o'clock, in the afternoon, on each of said days, no accounts will be allowed after said term.

ELIAZER HANNUM, Commissioner.

ELIJAH WRIGHT, Commissioner.

AARON CLAPP, Jr., Commissioner.

ALL Persons indebted to the aforesaid Estate, are requested to make immediate payment to

E. POMEROY, Administrator.

Southampton, December 9, 1791.

MEDARD CLARKE.

Northampton, Dec. 14, 1791.

TO BE SOLD,

A VALUABLE Tract of land, lying in Belchertown and Pelham, given by the late Mr. JAMES Hawley, Esq. to the town of Northampton. It will be sold in such quantities as to suit the purchasers, and payment therefor will be made as easy and convenient as they can desire—please apply to

ROBERT BRECK,

JOSEPH LYMAN,

SIMEON PARSONS,

S. HENSHAW,

B. SHELDON.

Northampton, Dec. 6, 1791.

WANTED,

A gentle single SLEIGH.

Enquire of the Printer.

WANTED to hire by the year, a man that understands the FURRIERS' business.—For particulars enquire of the Printer.

WANTED,

A gentle single SLEIGH.

Enquire of the Printer.

THE subscriber hereby informs his customers, that

No. 178, of this paper, completes one year since

Mr. Pink discontinued riding—he therefore expects, all indebted, will make payment at that time, as he is under absolute necessity of making a settlement with the Printer. JOSEPH BASCOM.

Colrain, Dec. 2, 1791.

STRAYED

AS just received, at his store in Eastampton, a large and general assortment of West India and English GOODS. Consisting of almost every article enumerated for at a Country Store.—Also, a quantity of BAR LEAD, by the hundred.

Dec. 6, 1791.

William Pratt,

INFORMS the Public that he carries on the BOOK-BINDING business, in all its branches, the next Door to Mr. ASAHEL POMEROY'S Tavern, where old Books are re-bound in the Neatest manner.—He has also for sale, Spelling-Books and Account-Books, of all fizes.

Northampton, November 25, 1791.

S. STRAYED away from the Subscriber, out of his possest at Whately, some time about the 25th of October last, a pair of red STEARS, three years old, pat-marked with a hole through the middle of the ear, and a half penny the under side of the face, and a hole in the other ear. Whoever takes up said Stears, or shall taketh them up, & will give information therof to the owner,

so that he may have them again, shall be handsomely rewarded.

SAMUEL DICKINSON.

Hanfield, November 26, 1791.

CONDITONS.

I. This large and elegant work will be published in

two volumes, in boards.

II. It will be printed on fine demy paper, folio,

on an elegant new large type, cast for the purpose.

III. Subscribers will be supplied at the very low

price of $$10$ Dollars each volume.—The engravings

alone will be worth that sum.

IV. Those who subscribe for it shall have a seventh

part.

V. Both the letters and the copperplates are in

great forwardness; the first volume will be published

in the first week in December next; and the second

volume in the first week in February next.

VI. Payment to be on the delivery of each

volume.

VII. Works of this kind are not fit for Wicks

bidding under several months after they are printed, as

the plates and the letter press are both liable to injury

by the hammer and press of the binder. This is the

reason of their being published in boards, in which

state the work may be read and handled without injury.

Subscribers can have the work bound afterwards,

either in one volume or two, as best suits their convenience.

To the PUBLIC.

NOTHING need be said on the part of the publisher

to convince a discerning public that this is an undertaking, in this country, of vast importance; that the

labor and expense are exceedingly great; or that the

undertaking, if well executed, merits encouragement.

He begs leave only to observe, that he is now

carrying on this undertaking at his own risk and

expense. The greatest care has been taken to have the

work correct, and every way execrable to no end to dis-

grace, but to do some credit to our country.—The

magnitude of the work exceeds anything of the kind

attempted in America; the letter press will, he thinks,

not be inferior to any that has been done in the United States; and the plates much superior to any hereto-

fore done by our own countrymen, and would not dis-

grace more experienced British artists.

He solicits the aid of such christian societies and

private gentlemen, as will supply their subjects or

families with an elegant edition of the same; if ruptures;

and he desires himself such aid will be given him by a

liberal subscription.

To the PUBLIC.

NOTHING need be said on the part of the publisher

to convince a discerning public that this is an undertaking, in this country, of vast importance; that the

labor and expense are exceedingly great; or that the

undertaking, if well executed, merits encouragement.

He begs leave only to observe, that he is now

carrying on this undertaking at his own risk and

expense. The greatest care has been taken to have the

work correct, and every way execrable to no end to dis-

grace, but to do some credit to our country.—The

magnitude of the work exceeds anything of the kind

attempted in America; the letter press will, he thinks,

not be inferior to any that has been done in the United States; and the plates much superior to any hereto-

fore done by our own countrymen, and would not dis-

grace more experienced British artists.

He solicits the aid of such christian societies and

private gentlemen, as will supply their subjects or

families with an elegant edition of the same; if ruptures;

and he desires himself such aid will be given him by a

liberal subscription.

To the PUBLIC.

NOTHING need be said on the part of the publisher

to convince a discerning public that this is an undertaking, in this country, of vast importance; that the

labor and expense are exceedingly great; or that the

undertaking, if well executed, merits encouragement.

He begs leave only to observe, that he is now

carrying on this undertaking at his own risk and

expense. The greatest care has been taken to have the

work correct, and every way execrable to no end to disgrace, but to do some credit to our country.—