far from my country, where a party reigns which pro-feribes me, far from the enemies ecalefeed against as, and whomshoped to combatat your break, to taske, in my retreat, the confolation of a pure conficience, and the first stackment. They are all picked uses, chiefly whom a retreat, the confolation of a pure conficience, and the first stackment, and perfors comfortably fettled, form ardent wither for the triumph of French liberty

The stackment of the first stackment of the triumph of the stackment of the triumph of the stackment of the stack form ardent willers for the triumph of French liberty over all the factions who feek to enflave it. (Signed)

LA FAYE'I TE.
This addreft was certified to the Editor, of the Leg-dth Gratette, by fix officery of M. de La Fayer's late etat major, who left France with him, but who have car major, who here grane with him, but who have been released from the prilons at Laxembourg. He is fill in that fortrefs with M. M. Is Toor Manbourg, Alexander Lameth, and Barean Puy, who sphear to be diffinguished by this i goar on account of their haring been members of the conflittent National Affem-bly of France. In their journey from Nivelles to Lox-embourg, an Admirin officer fat in the carriage with each perion, and 30 hullars efcorted the party. ich person, and 30 hustara escosted the party.

The other prisoners remain for further orders, either at Nivelles, or Lucembourg.

September 25.—Dr. Priefly has declined the office of fitting in the National Convention of France, the of firing in the National Convention of France, the has been chosen for three places.

Extra0 of a letter from Dublin, Sept. 15.

"Thursday evening a car, with some cotton wester, woolen and timen yarn, whichthy, Geryof Francis firest, was sending to his factory at Babringgan, was shopped by an armed body of wavers on the road between Drunconder, and Santry a Dediver, after being fruck with a broad fword, was obliged to faffer his winto brush twore, was conged to later — his none, car and the goods in his charge, to be taken away by this lawles toob, who triomphantly conveyed it to Marrowbone lane, where they barned the wool, the yam, and the car.

"Yefferday one of the perious guilty of the above offence, was raken by a party of the police, and on the information of the carman, was committed by Alderman Fleming for trial."

A Const.

man Heming for trial."
A Gourt-martial commenced on board the Duke, in Portfinouth Harbor, on Wednesday, the 21st inft. on a charge of mutiny on the 28th of April; 2787, on bisand his majety's armed veffel Boanty for running away his usjehy's armed veffel Bounty for mouning away with the fine and defenting his majedy's ferrice, against J ofesh Coleman, Charles Norman, Thomas Macinyofin, Peter Haywood, Huac Morris, John Milward, William Mofreatt, Thomas Elifest, Thomas Life, and Michael Byrn. The evidence for the profession closed on Friday night the 14th instant and the court indulged the prisoners till Monday to give in their defence, and on Tuefday took the whole into their confidention, when they were needed on the forcefence, and on Tuclay took the whole into their con-fideration, when they were pleafed to pass furthere of death on Hywwood, Morris, Millward, Mnfpratt, Birkett, and Ellison, the two first of whom the Contr recommended to mercy. Coleman, Norway Mackin-roth, and Byrn, were acquitted and dichasged. Mr. Haywood is an accomplished young gentleman, gen-reely connected, with a former of 30,000l. Fellen to him since he has been in confinement.

Extrast of a letter from Brighton, August 30.

"This place in its proportion, exhibits as many proofs of the wretched fine of our Gallie neighbors, by the number of refugees, as the capital tireft; every day brings been more or less, as their feveral means of day bringely of mote or lefs, as their feveral means of eleaps affered them opportunity.

"Yellerday, smoog others, arrived Madame Nomilles. This lady, whole celebrated bulband is among the emigrants, has gone through incredible hard-flips with a fortined almost unparalelled.
"She reacned Dieppe about a week ago, with an infant child and its nufe; these goraway without much difficulty, the woman pating the infantsaher own; but it was not till yellerday the mother bould effect her effective.

cape.
"During the whole time the was obliged to appear "During the whole time the was obliged to appear in rate and mean attine. She once offered herfelfro a collier, to work her paffage as a failor, but was resided; at length, however, orged with despair, and discloting her real fuvation to the Captain of one of the Packets, he with much homanity contrived to bring her off, by concealing her under a coil of a cable on the deck (where the was, incredible as it may frem, obliged to lie for 14 hours) and was landed fife, here yefferday, exhausted with the fatigue and terrors the had under-sone.

gone,
"The Prince of Wales, with diffinguishable bumanity and gallantry, paid every artebulon to this amiable nger."

A letter from M. Luckner incloses a note, received A letter from M. Luckner incloies a note, received by him from M. Dumourier, Commander in Chief of the French army at Grandpre, in which the letter flures, that two principal attacks were made upon his left and right wings on the 13th infl. in both of which the Profilians were repolfed with lofs. A detachment of Pruffian light troops had entered an abbatis of wood, from which he had fentifive battalions to remore them. As the time of his writing the exceeded that from which he had fent her battations to remore member At the time of his writing, he expected that amont attack would be made on the fame day, if the weather, which was then very bad, hould permit it.

SEPTEMBER 26.

By a letter from a Fernchemigrant at Broffels we are told, "that the Duke of Bronfevic has faid that he was egregically led aftray," and that the operations of the compaign have been greatly rearded by the falle afformaces that were given him by the French. M. Calono in particular had told him that the cities of Metz and Cennyille would formed to the freend gon hat was fired, and that therefore be had no operation to receipt the control of the control the cities of Metz and Cenville would furrender to the fectod gue that was fired, and that therefore he had no occasion to encumber himself with beavy artillery. He trashed his unstand difference, to their reports, and finding them goes fallmonds, he has manifelted great indignation. In consequence of this, M. de Colonne is about to depart and go to Insiy.

"We have a report here, I do not pretend to fay on what foundation, that M. Is Fayette has been in conflant correspondence with the archdotcheft, and that it was carried on by M. de Is Mark. Afforcelly there is the hea interview between the King of Profits, the archdotcheft, and M. Is Fayette, forthwith.

"You may be affund, that all the fining spect the

For the HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE. Northe HAMISHIRE GAZETTE.

I verye comminity, it is abiolately occellary, that the public thould be accommodated with well regulated lans. That in every public honefvice of every kind thould give place to the thrifield morals and obedience to the laws of the land. For lambeing defigned for travellers of every denomination, a door by that means is owned for recording to the comming of the committee of the comming of the committee of the committe dience to the laws of the land. For Innsbeing defigned for travellers of every denomination, a door by that means is opened for temptations of every kind, whenever those Inns become licentions. The legislatore of this Commonwealth, have forefeen the evils, which would enevitably be introdeced into fociety by irregular boofes, and, have wilely endeavoured to, guard against them. For this purpose they have enacted, iff.
That so one shall presume to be aniunbolder without ilcence on pain of fao sine. ad That the Selections of eevery town ball carefully consider the life of those whowere licensed the preceding year and certify that they have maintained good order in their houses, and have consumed to the laws respecting licensed bonfes, &c.
ad. That the Selectionen shall recommend those pertify and career fairm, and simply attached to the laws, &c.
the That no limbolder thall keep any Cards or implements of gaming in his boofe, or insiger any to be used in hishorde on pain of forty faithings size.

One would imagine that under such refrictions man of bad fame would never be permitted to keep public houses. But however strong the community may appear to be guarded by these laws, yet they are very inadequate to the pubpice, so long as many of the Selections of this county advance such doctrine as they did, at the selections in the selection of this county advance foch doctrine as they did, at the Selections to apply the severy of the Selections to apply that every long the selection in a probleme every applicant. This is directly in face or the law, (ver they were not correctly

Selectmen to perpolate every applicant. This is di-reflly in face of the law, (yet they were not correfled.) There would be nonproviery in Xuff had haw, if all went to be approbaged. The Court could put no con-ficience in any facin recommendation, and the whole County might as well apply for literals without being appropriate to have a commenced without being County might as well apply for literafe without being approbated as to have a recommendation. The Selectimes are prefuned to be well acquainted with their Townsfuen, and for this principle reason they are commanded to certify in regard to their characters, and when they certify; that a man is of fober life and convertation, &c., we suppose they intend when they fay. Nor do we think they are playing children's play & do not intend to be believed. By this means the little month of the flatter is entirely defeated. This conduct perhaps has been the caseleng introduction we consider the second of the state is entirely defeated. tion of the faints is entirely defrasted. This conduct perhaps have been the careful finteducing men of perhaps have been the careful finteducing men of perhaps have been been public honder, even in those bonders where we ought to have men who are the most family attached to be laws of our coputy. A failure in this point has opened the doors of many of our naversato a band of Gamblers and Upplers who are consensated in victability of the laws, by the Landlard. Figure to yourdere my Commynden, mechanicas for cry that quiting their thous full the gaming tabler: Alast, what a long twin of critis are introduced in configurations of this conduct. The framer infines for went of the mechanic, and the mechanic for the farmer; are of the mechanic and the mechanic for the farmer; are of the mechanic and the mechanic for the farmer; are of the mechanic and the mechanic for the farmer; are of the mechanic and the mechanic for the farmer; are of the mechanic and the mechanic for the farmer; are of the mechanic and the mechanic for the farmer; are of the mechanic and the mechanic for the farmer; are of the mechanic for the farmer; are of the mechanic and the mechanic for the farmer; are of the mechanic for the farmer are of the farmer and the mechanic for the farmer are of the farmer and the mechanic for the farmer are of the farmer and the mechanic for the farmer are of the farmer and the mechanic for the farmer are of the farmer and the mechanic for the farmer are of the farmer and the mechanic for the farmer are of the farmer and the mechanic for the farmer are of the farmer and the farmer are of the farmer and the farmer are of the farmer and the farmer are of the farmer an of the mechanic, and the mechanic for the fatmer; &c. Difapointment who, the whole community, delay of business, idleness, demakenness, their, profaments, larger, intred, district, division of families, difastes of the and mind, rags and poverty, year a whole army of evile attend them. These are diforders which call for redefits, for 'dis a first that the blackfinith leaves his hambers, the trailed in marks. attend them. Their are diforders which call for rederfs, for via a faith that the blackfinth leares his hammer, the taylor his needle, the shoe maker his bench, the haltend his hagestining wife, and ragged children, even for the shoffing of a park of cards. At mildight, you will find their miterahle men (for furely they are in he prited) at the table half intaxicated, eager to rilque the fear pence they have left, (for they are all reduced to or will be begarn), and perhaps by the means shatch from the mouths of their hungry children half of their sinted meal. But this in an all-Strange to rell!

Even the Landlord himself (the recommended to be a man of short life and convertation, and simply stanched to the laws) I say even the landlord not only allowsof this iniquity, but will himself join the crazy club, and facaredly find time to lay down his cards to entertain a weary traveller that callear his wretched door.

The car as fash too notions to be contradified, so well known that our Grand Jurots and other officers can never fron the relemnity of an oath. The tarnelly defired that some method may be taken to remady this growing eval, so that the fleepy traveller (for whom luns were chabilished) he no longer intermpted in his repose, the landlord no more softiered to entice our young men. To idlends and diffigurios. But that business of all kinds be parfixed with diligence, this cloud of evils he featured abroad and tavers haunting be eternally forgotten.

HARRISBURGH, November 19, A gentleman from Detroit, which place he left the roth of Odober, and on whole veracity we may de-pend, arrived in town last week, has favoured us with pend, arrived in town laft week, but faroured us with the following intelligence, vir. That the valk (applies broughtto the garrifous of Detroit and Niagars, indi-case. a firm determination of the British court to bold those peds in possession, unlest compelled to give them up by force; that a contain and regular communica-tion with the Indiantis kept up, by which they are fup-plied with every netestary in abundance for parrying on the war; that the ribes in contest with the 'United States, understanding the disposition of the Americans, were for peace, wher willing to counts to regular of States, unnertaining the disposition of the Americans, were for peace, were willing to come to terms of reconciliation; for this perpofe a council was to have conciliation; for this perpofe a council was to have been held on the first of October, at the Mannee towns, about 60 miles from Detroit; but the determination of the council had not arrived when the gentlemin fant correspondence with me archotechets, and max to the connect has not alrived when the gentleman it was carried on by M. de Is Mark. Afforedly there is the leaf interview between the King-of-Predits; the leaf interview between the King-of-Predits; the leaf interview between the King-of-Predits; the leaf interviews, that it was the general opinion, that archdotchefs, and M. Is Fayette, forthwith.

"You may be affored, that all the florings about the leaf interviews to be lookaried of the frontiers along the Ohio, alteration of the Preditant arc untrue. Not one man has on the subject, who, with about 30 warrion of the Si Nations, were on their way to the concell; but ner-delayed some time by the indisposition of Col. Band, Many of the warriors of the different tither, he was to formed, were willing that the boundary line should run 60 as to include the thown of Galiopolis and Man-etta, and the country immediately dependant outbur, that it was thought the former opinion would prend in the council.

in the council.

On Saturday 118, about 12 o'clock, a min by the name of William Carpenter. In crofting the river about 2 miles below this place in a canoe, by fome accident fell overboard and was drowned.

NEW-YORK, November 21.

NEW-YORK, November 21.
When the northern cands, in this flate, are cospleted, fays the Albany Register, that part of America which comprehends the five New-Bagland States, and Nova-Scotia, will form one great Island, which can be circumnavigated through the Haddon into Isla Champlain, and down the river Sr. Lawrence into the contest.

PORTSMOUTH, November 20.

By a gentleman immediately from Canala we an informed, that another battle with the hotile Indian will inevitably take place from; the has been among turn, and by what he can learn from them, they an much easily person the infelts offered by force of the factors and the manufacture with the infelts offered by force of the satisfacture with many fled from them, they are much exasperated at the infults offered by fome of the outlawed vagrants who have fled from judice and took up their abode on the frontiers, and who are confinely doing fomething to energe them. Our informat this, that at the place where he was, ferral Indian from the hofile tribes came in they were all pained from the hofile tribes came in they were all pained from the hofile tribes came in they were all pained they fore war, and looked more like drells them mentally female to be of a morole disposition, and were not pleafed at the fight of a white person trading with health of their colours a few belonged to the Shawanfe. not pleased at the tight of a white person trading with those of their colour; they belonged to the Sawwarf, and he supposed they were in pursuit of horse, as they sheared towards the English settlements. Monders and robbeits are daily committed by such sholling pains as the abovementioned, ashich renders, the simular of a traveller very critical. BOSTON, December 1.

BOSTON, Decrapher 1.

Our accounts from Barope, are only to Odober 18.

At that time the armies under the Dake of Brasleich were about 100 miles from Paris, in force about 10,000 men. The French armies, equal, if not fapping in numbers, were in the vicinity; and almost innomenable bodies of volunteers from all parts of the "Republick," oddies of volunteers from all part of the "Republic," were on their march to meet the enemy, to whom it was fupposed they would give battle, as from as the Deke's armies finculd have entered the great plain of Clampaigne. Intelligence of events, highly intereding to mannity, may therefore be momently expetied.

The Emprets of Ruffin, joins actively in the wat a

The Emperior be momently expedied.

The Emperior of Ruffla, joins addively in the war against the French. At the date of our accounts namy of 2,000 of the forces, were faid to have arrived in Pusifica, on their match towards France.

Six fail of French menor war were in realized to bombard Nice, in cafe the Sandician troops join the confectance arrived France.

Domain vincent can under the description of the the tribute of unleigned commiferation. Lately fo happy in a liberal confliction, a partiot King, and a faired and in a liberal confliction, a partiot King, and a faired tribute to the tribute tribute tribute. rangoil prosperity; the entry of Despeti-the stide of Freemen-with forcow the fees thee fallen fallen, fall-franqui prospersy; sue emy or support presents—with fornow he fees thee fallonfaller, fallon, from thy blisful condition, & receiving law from the imperial and imperious Catharine.

A letter from Philadelphia, by laß maits fay; "We have no news, except that the war with the ladims feems fast-declining, such e different tubes they writed marks of a disposition for proce." Some chief of the most turbulent parions are daily expected here, to make a treaty with the United States."

Malt Works.

MAIL WORKS.

THE subscriber begs leave to inform the public that he has procured an English Maller, one who has ferved a regular apprentice thin better that bedien's, finter hanfelf that he shall be able to give entire sanisficing—is now ready to receive Barley, those who with Maltin exchange, shall be supplied as fast as it can be made and in general on delivery of the Ruley. Grain and other Pay to the fatisfiction of the Seller will be given in those who will not differed the Ruley. given to those who will to dispose of the Seller will be given to those who will to dispose of their Barley, by the Public's Humble Servant,

Northampton Dec.

Northampton, Dec. 12, 1792.

Northampton, Dec. 12, 1792.

ACHILD LOST.

I LEFT my Child, named Margaret Hogao, aged about foor years, last spring, with a certain Nichells Williams, a Frenchman, then living near Liberty-Town, for him to take cate of until reunred from Thisladelphia, to which place I was then going on based. And now, on my actom, find that fall William is moved away, with my child, to some place that all my vigilance has failed in finding one. Therefore my person who can give account where the full William now resides or can be found, and will take the trouble to convey such intelligence to the Persen in Hagait. to convey fuch intelligence to the Printer in Heart town, (Vir.) will thereby confer a most litting shigh into on a poor difficulties Mother, thus because of her Child, and who has no reward to offer other than gratitude.

N. B. Said Williams is a Silverfoith, but mofile folher pedding; and I am told, that be and hit Wife (who is in Irift weman) call the child their won. 13 The different Printers in the United State, who platfed to publish the above. Odo. 17, 1792.

TAREN up by the subscriber on the regulate laftfpring Heifer CALF, pale red, marked with a toole in the near car, some white under ber belley—hind freet white—The owner undered to prove property, pay charges, and take ber away.

ABNER BAKER.

Northampion, Dec. 12, 1792.

BOSTON, December 5.

BUSTON, December 5.

[Capt Wardinbe, of Portfmonth, who arrived. In this rown pederday, from Dankits, in France, via New-Bedford, has favoured us with the Paris: Papers, to Orlober 2, and withother Papers to the 5th.]

COMPENDIUM.

The opper and account from Paris On the 5th.]

COMPENDIUM.

The papers and accounts from Paris, flate, that the account of M. Demories's stamy being furrunned by the Dake of Branswick's and taken prifeoers, is erroneous; and that it originated in the false clamor of fome ous ; and that it originated in the traite claimer of tome frolling weggoners and folders: Buerthat; inflead of a facefith Andrian forsit, they had difappeared; fati-fiedwith having respeddle fronts of amountary error, That camp Marthal Omeran has nearly driven the en-ny from bits part of the frontiers—That M. Luckner, the content of the Taris by the executive power, to give we receive a flux confidence. "That a mighterellamine." account of his condo & - That a mileodectlanding, an account of his conduct—"That a missudestlanding, of a ferious nature, had taken place between the King of Profits and the doke of Brunswick—That bills had been fluck up in feveral parts of London, written in the following words—"Feed routh France, or a Revalution in Landon"—That M. Dumoriez, has under his Letise in Landon"—That M. Dunoriez, has under his command 70,000 men 10 000 of which are exactly—The the Ministler for foreign affairs informed the convention, that the King of Proffia has proposed conditions of peace to the outstern and central Generals; but the council answered. "That the satisfact would not be described by the peace of the country—that all France is in amm, marching to join the different atmics in defence of their country—that the Convention daily received donations, from friends to the rights of man; to said in defraying the expense of war—that the concern on the frontiers of reposite of war—that the concern on the frontiers of reposite of war—that the enemy on the frontiers of expense of war—that the enemy on the frontiers of Eighant were repalled and that St. Award and the camp of Mande were retaken.—Do you wish to know of Manide were retaken.—Do you wife to know med M. Ronyer, in the National Convention, in how desperate a flate the Proffiant are at prefent-they live on the borfes our foldiers kill.

NATIONAL CONVENTION, Sept. 30.

MATIONAL CONFIGNTION, app. 30.
The Minister at War communicated the following:
M. Prefident, I have received two letters from the Army, one from Gen. Demouris, and the other from Gen. Metelysis's, M. Damouris's, informs, that he is to make a movement on the left. He has established a direct communication with Chalons. As to the letter of General Montefquiou, I thought proper to fend the literal co-

Martington, a merger pro Altter from General Mantiquina, in the Minister at Wer, dated Chambery.

"I have promifed you, that my next letter would be dated at Chambery; you feel keep my word. I made myielf master of the entire country, from the banks of the Here, m the thores of the late of Genera,
The people crowd from all parts to pay homage to the nation, and implore its procedion. The flight of the nation, and implore its protection. The fli then is as confiderable as if a complete victory took place. I fend you a fuccinct account of the arms, provisions, and ammunitions of all kinds; that fell into our hands; and I shall send you a statement in full 23 foon 23 it is drawn up.
"I had only twelve pattallions noder my command;

"I had only twelve battallions under my command just they forced 17,000 men to fly before them, and to fack the country of Volges. I do not expect from them the leaft refinance; I final advance to the hof-pital with 8 coo, and my ranguard, command by M. Cafaska, haspenetrated into the mountains. I have taken politions of Annecy, Caronge, Toron, &c. Ihope hatin 8 days I final hecois mailer of the entire country, from Genera to Mount Cenis. The people crown the French with benedictions; they have taken the three-colouted cockade with extary. A deputation from the Municipality of Ckampherry waited on me at the gate of the town-houfe, and delivered into my hands the ters of the city with rapturous transport. All the army war invited to a freat which was prepared for them. I cannat praife fufficiently my foldiers—their coaductwoold; not have been more cordial in their own country. The tree of Liberty was planted in the mounter forms as the same and the name their conduct would not have been more contain in their own country. The tree of Liberty was planted in the public squares; the taxes are raifed in the name of the French Nation. The people seem disposed to make a Revolution on the fame footing with ours. I have already heard them speak of makings way as shall department of France, or at least to form themselves.

into a Republic, under the protection of our nation.

"I have promited, in the name of the French Nation, the free execution of the laws of the country, unhithe people of Saroy, affembled in Convention, judge fit to change them, thave iffued out a proclamation experied in the following terms: "Peace and Liberty with People." War with King.". I follicit you to impart to me, if I should hold forth a different language. It would be perhaps, necessary to came a civil gov versor, for I can give only military orders."

NEWPORT, Der. 4

Entrail of a letter from France, to a grademan in this two No. 200. 4

"It is this day reported that the King of France of the control of the ten to treat with as and to return home: but no terms will be accepted, until he leaves the kingdom." Translation from the Gazette Nationale; printed at Paris, September 28.

mies, have informed the Executive Consicil, that over-tures het been made them on the part of the King of Profits, insatieffing his delire to enter into a nego-tizion.—The Council refulved that the French Recurion.—The Council rejuived that the Profiles public will bear no propositions until the Profiles though shall first execute the French territories."

Yefterday arrived here Brig Hibernia, Capt. Robinfor in ro days from Belfaft, by whom we have received the following very important intelligence, viz. BELFAST, Octo. 10, Letter from General DUMOURIER.

Saint Manebould, Ogo. 1. "At length, my dear Servan, what I experted and predicted in my letters has taken place, The Profitant are in full retreat. The prove Bormonvile, who has been filled, "The Friend dies," has taken from them dening the two left dies, best these farm bandred men. Hilly congress, and above two bandred berjes. All the congress, and above two bandred berjes, exhand. phylogogae, are aware two desires ower. An in-prisoners and deferren agree, that this stem; exchange ed by famine, farigan, and the bloody flux.—The com-my decampevery night, and march only two leagues in 24, hours to cover their baggage and heavy artil-lery. I have fent a reinforcement to Bermonville, who has more than 20,000 men, and who will never quit them till be has exterminated them. To give the finithing froze to this boinels I shall join him in person. I have fent you fome copies of my negociation, which I have cauled to be printed, because the commander of an arcaufed to be printed, becaufe the commander of an army of freemen ought to fuffer no folgotions to exist respecting his conduct with the enemy. I think that the prefeat circumfances will deliver us from the from the free of the conduction of the anyhurt -- I embrace you. (Signed) " DUMOURIEZ."

BENJAMIN PRESCOTT. I sufficiently a very extensive and beautiful affort ment of English and India.

GOODS,

Soperfine, and feronder a complete affortment of Broadcloths of the moll 5. Bickles and Battons, fallianable colours. Hand H. Hinges, First do. Swankins and Cautings. Baixes and Flannels, Sovered and other Efrat-Work Rishkers. Baixes and Flannels, Role Blankers, Thickfetts and Velvets, Penknives, PRazon, do in cafes,
Razon, Straps and cafes,
Locks of all kinds,
Plated and other Spurs, Royal Rib. Satinetts and Laftings. Plain and figur d Toilanets

Satin Beaver, Swanfdown, Veft Shapes Scarlet Longfile for trius ming Ladies Cloaks, Callimaneoes, Taylor's Shears, Common do. Sheep do. Sciffars, Led Pots, and Crneibles, Callimaneoes, GLed Pots, and Crucibles, Shalloons, Durants, and Brafs Locks, Knobs, and Thumb Latches.
Center and Pod Bitts.
P A large affortment of Cafe

Moreens and Camblets, Linuens, and Brown Hol Jand. Jand.
Sartin and Modes,
Plain and StripedMullins,
Blue, White, Fink, and Carving do. Brais headed Shovels and P Tongs, Common do. Bolts of verious kinds, Slates and Pencils. SleighBells, Curry Combs P Candle Sticks of differen Green Sarcenetts Shawls of various kinds, Callienes and Chintzes, Sewing Silk and Twift, Black and Figur'd Ribkinds.

Seed Snuffers, Spike and cocher Gimblets. Steel and other Tobacco hons. Black Lace, Temple and other Spect-acies, Carpenters and Joiners Tools. kerchiefs. White Edgings, Ladies BlackBeaverHatt

do. Hermit do. do. Shoe-Makers, do. Men's white LambGlo Chapel Needles do. Beaver Au affortment of Tea Trays

do. Veherdon
do. Habit,
do. Wine Waiters, and SonfSilk and Worfled Mitts, Worfled Hofe.
HARD WARE.
Smith's Anvils, and Vices,
Crofs Cot Saves,
Hand and Tenuant do.
Sheet Iron, Shovels and Wever's brukers,
Hand and Shovels and
Wever's brukers,
Hand and Shovels and
Wever's brukers,
Hand Shovels and Hearth do. Duffing do.

Spedes. G Hearth, do Duffing, do. Said Iront, Screw Augen, Shoe, do. Houle, do. War, do, Backle, and Tooth, do. Alao Hearth,de Duff

ALSO
An affortment of GLASS, CROCKERY and SONE
WARE—WOOL and COTTON CARDS, wholefall and retail: Northampton, Dec. 12,1792.

WRIGHT and STODDARD, HAVE just seceived at their Stores in Northampton and Westampton, a general affortment of GOODS, fuitable for the prefent feafon, which they will fell as reafonable as at any Store in this County. They receive most kinds of Country produce in

N. B. Cash, and the highest price given for SALTS of LVE.

SALTS of LYE.

Northampton, December 12, 1792.

TRAYED from the follegiber the Summer pail, a yearling STEER, a Brownith calor, with fome white about him, marked with a crop in the left ear, two holes through the fame. "Whoever will give information of faid Steer, or bring him to the fublicabler, thall." be handformely rewarded,

PHARES CLARK

Northampton, Decemb. 12, 1792-TAKE NOTICE!

WHEREAS LOYER, wife, of me the folicriber, bas forfoot my house without any just coust; All perforpare warned against harhoring or truthing her on my account, for I declare that I will pay no debt which the may Contract after this date.

JOHN TUTTLE.

Sauth Hadley, Nov. 27, 1792.

Simeon Butler,

R ESPECTFULLY informs the Public, that he has PRSPECTFULLY informs the Public, that he has just commenced the building of -BOOK BIND-ING is this town, nearly opposite the new School-Hoofe, where he purpoles to carry it on in all its various Branches; having been regularly hard to the befineds, he flutters himfelf, he final be as to give entire fastaskinion to all who may pleafe to favor him with their commands. Merchants Account Books ruled to any pattern, may be had on the hiertest Notice; Old Books re-bound on reasonable terms.

He shas rea Sales.

He has for Sale,
Pfalm Books, Webser's Spelling Books, all parts, by the Plain Books, Webbler Spelling Books, all parts, by the dozen or fingle, at the fune price as they can be bought for in Hartford,—Writing Paper, Account Books of "difficient fize." Ink Powder, Sealing, War, Bible, Telements, Entick's Diditionary, Bennett's Letter, Chap-Books—Ayanet of Books diritable for children, fee, for Any of the above practise, or Cath, given in exchange for Parts. For fale by the Printer hereof, and by nearly opposite the new School House, Northampton. 2f. per doz. and 4d fingle.

SIMEON BUTLER,

Beer's Almanac for 1793.

CONTAINING.

The Lunations, Conjunctions, Eclipfes, Judgment of the Weather, riting and fitting of the Pinners, length of Days and Nights, Courts in Connections and Madfachufents, Tide Table, Table of Interell at 6 per Cent.

—The Anatomy of Man's Bedly as governed by the Twelre Conficilations—The names and Characters of the feven Planets—Inc five. Alpeds, &c..

A L S O.

The remarkable Adventures of Jackson Johonson, of Maffield fern, who ferved as a foldier in the wellern The remarkanic Adventures of Accison yolons are of Maifachaferia, who ferved as a foldier in the weiters Army, in the Maifachaferts line, in the expedition under General Harmer, and the unfortunate General St. Clair; containing an account of his capitisty, inflictings and eleape from the Krickpool Indians, writers by hindelf.—Thoughts on Martinge; by a Sailor.—A new Song on Burntlines, never before, mallified.—The old Maid Apology.—On an Old Maid at Church.—Epinph on a Tombinoce, where a men and his wife are buried together, and are repreferented as quarreling in their graves.—A Farmer's advice to his wife on his death bed,—A curious Wells Semon.—An mecomon flory of a Sleep Walker.—Original Letter from an Irith Criminal to his wife.—A curious Wells Semon.—Or a lawyer and a Doctor.—Or an ignorant Lawyer.—Of Chief Julice Holte.—Or Sir Circipyman and Chinney Sweder. Of the celebrated Whirefield.—Of a Circipyman and Chinney Sweder. Of the celebrated Whirefield Mincolf and Collegious and Sailor.—Of Mincolf Collegious and Sailor.—Of Mincolf Collegious and Sailor.—Of Mincolf Collegious and Sailor.—Of Coll. E. Haltings.—Of a Clergyman and Salor,—Of Col. E. Allen.—Of Dr. Kraklin.—Of two Sailors.—Of the Vice Ctancellor of Trinity Dublin.—Of a person engaged in a Lawfuit in a Court in the Commonwealth of Milicahofetti.—A curious Advertisment, &c. &c. NORTHAMPTON, DEC. 12, 1792.

ELEAZAR, & W. PORTER. HAVE now received a large and ofeful affort-ment of English and West-India G O O D S, moft kinds of Produce

They have likewise for sale. Painter's Colours, Dying Drugs, and Drugs and Medicines. Want fill no purchafe, Pork and Beef, for which good Pay will be made.

ALL Perfons indebted to the fubicipiers whose accounts, and obligations are of more than one years standing are defired to make immediate payment.

EISAZAR and Wm. PORTER.

Hadley, Dec. 4, 1792.

THE Members of the corporation call—ed the proprietors of the Lokus and Canals on Cannefticut River, in the County of Hamphire, are hereby southed, That a meeting of faid corporation will be bollen at the Houfer of Capt. Samued Chrice. Innhalder, in Northampton, on Monday the twenty-fourth day of December current, at once clock in the affirmnoon, then and there to act on the following matters, viz:

viz: coverie reports from any agents or committees, appointed to procure farther advice; and information on the bulinest of canalling, and to procure further foreyest of the places proposed for making fach, canala. To determine whether the Corporation will take any further measures at prefere for obtaining further information from any perfora fapposed to be experienced in sich bedienes.

fuch holinefs.
To confider the expediency of making any speedy To confider the expediency of making any speedy provision of Timbers, tools, implements, and other stricker secretary for carrying on the business in the vest fepting and fammer, and to appoint agent in committees, to procure the same, and to ratie monies to defray the charge unkered, and to ratie any further monies, that have been exceeded for any other purposes relative to the fail general defige—and to enske any other years, orders and refolgitions on the faild business, that may be content and refolgitions on the faild business, that may be then thought proper.

JOHN WORTHINGTON, Prefident.

J. DWIGHT,
J. WILLIAMS,
B. PRESCOTT.

December 10, 1792.

(ASH and the highest price given for BEES-WAX, by the printer hercos. Northampton, Nov. 1792.