RICHMOND. (Fir.) Feb. 8. DIED, lately in his 21st year, at Lucea in Jamaica, J. 10HNSON HYLTON, Efg. of the 10th regiment, and fon of William Hylton, Efg. refident in this

This generous youth, adorned with comely grace & fenfe, had an education and qualities which ornamented the mind and the man. The forrows of his difcon ed the mind and the man. The forrows of his discon-foliate parents and relatives, are magnifed by the ex-perfiction they had of feering him daily, on a vifit to this country, at the time the fatal tidings of his death were announced! His Phylicians had advised a change of air, to recover the Infs of blood, foliatined from wounds he received in Junefalf, from the following incident, which will perpetuate his virtues, and endear his secretor.

his memory.

A fergeant of his regiment, had been tried and broke, for mildemeanors, and was fentenced to punishment inflicted. But previous to the Sergeant's going to the hilberts, and experting the commanding officer would be prefent, he had concealed a dagger in his fleeve, to marder (he alledged) the officer who thould read the mounter (ne antegre) the emert was mound tent the dispreceful, and as he thought illegal fentence he had passed on him; and in the moment of frenzy and def-pair, drew it fuddenly and slabbed. Mr. Hylton twice, but as it, terned out, not mortally. Infleed of giving way to natural refeatment, and potting the culprit immediately to death with his fword, he calmly ordered menacry to death with me twood, a canny other the guard, to hurt nor, but remove the onhappy man, who was after tried, condemned and fhot, although Mr. Hylton exerted every interest and influence private. The following literal production, from the fufferer, was addressed to Mr. Hylton, a few days before his ex-

To Enfigu H- , 10th Regiment.

CIP.—
OW myour feer a wretched politate falls,
Who, for his crimes, on your forgiveness calls;
Whose wretched life lies tottering in your hand, is has be come command; And now enjoys it, but by your co Convinced what danger I expose you to, My utmest recompence is due to you.

Nor think not 'its those pitcous lines defign'd,
I'm jully-criminal. Oh I my writched fate,
Wrzak your refentment, but disciaim your hate; Wreak your refentment, but diteism your hate; Hate not a wrietch, who, to recal the deed, Would willing aryour feet a wiltim bleed; And if whofe virals could fome cafement give, Would willing out them out that you might live? The whole creation does my conduct blame, Where Aball I hide myfelf from conclosus finame?

Where the life is a myter from conclusion may be a deeped, excreas far remote from day, where ne'er the fun differs'd, it's cheening my, or drive from Chrillian, to form Savage those, Bayond Britannia, thouland miles or more; All: shy did I ferrive the balleful hour.

When fift shandon'd to the Devil's pow'r, which is the shandon'd to the devil of Cod. I der'd obnexious to the wrath of God, I dar'd—to flain my bands in human blood; Kly confetous breath, with anxious terror fraught, In deteflation loaths the baleful thought; With cheerfel mind, my overthinking foul Exults to have cleap if a crime to foul: Relieve me, fir, whatever pain I feel Reliere me, fir, whatever pain I feel 'That you're allive in own or choicel weal;
And; though with grief oppres'd my spirit droop,
That fole reflection (erves to keep them up.
Nor am I ign'rant \ kbit your geneous mind,
Prone to forgivened; for my weal defign'd;
Nor am I les, fo you a thankful wretch,
Becaufe the kinding's was beyond your firsteh,
For your compession, may the almighty pow'r
On you and yours, his choicest bledlings shower, Fortreelle bless'd is cither her of the. For trebly blefs'd is either he or fhe, Who bend their minds to meek humanity,
May riling honor and refounding fame, May rifing hount and refounding lame,
To alter ages propogate your name;
May you superiour to all worldly strife,
To oldest age arrain a happy life—
"Fill third of being, may you yield your breath,
And die achriffian in the pauge of death,
Chearfully bending to the fater command,
Your food refigning in your faviour'shand.—
And may the pity of the just and brave,
Of human rice, attend you to the grave.

Of human race, attend you to the grave.
Oh! may your life in radiant glory thine; As wors and terrors are the lot of mine, As wos. and terrors are the not or mine, who am, the last of human race, not meet, thise dogs) to lick the dust beneath your feet : Who, were I free, could not presume to crave. The usuage of your father's meaned flave: Who, if, I ever might furvive the firife Should gladly give to you my forfest life— And confectate (for doubtlefs it's your due) My life, my liberty, my all to you! Ah filarink and from these lines although they're

As are poluted by a Cain's touch : As an poluted by a Cain's touch:
But righteous Abel at the throne of God,
Pray'd for his brother though he folk his blood;
And in compassion, on his bended knee,
Fortender mercy; do not lefs for me;
What'ero my panishment, or wors defin'd,
I'll her affiftion with a willing mind;
I'll kift the rod, howe'er fevere the talk
Lift herod, bowe'er fevere the talk I'll kis the rod, however levere to tak
Your love and bleffing is the whole I ske—
Your love and bleffings is the whole I crave;
Fated to live, or burried to the grave;
To meet with fortitude the pangs of death,
And doubly nexts you with my lateft breath.
Your unhappy and wretched ferwats,
MAURICE HAY.

I CANNOT fufficiently express my concern contrition for ever having been wretched enough to expose you to the shocking danger I have done. I am extremely happy to find you bear me no refentment.-- me, am not lefs obliged to you for them, as though it one who employs me, Inall always find me portail that had been in your power to perform them. God at-might ! will reward you for your kindness and MIGETT! will reward you for your kindels and compation. I do not blameyou in the leaft for my mifery. I thould think myfelf happy, if by magnifering, I could give you the very leaft faisfaction. I thould be glad to meet you half way, if they could afford one minute's pleafure. Your goodone's flings me more pungently than the tumoff feverity possible could have done. May God Almighty! bless and preferve you in professity.

I remain Sir, your humble fervant,
M. HAY.

CONCORD, (N. H.) Feb. 18.

IVINTER FISH.

YOU have all heard, ere this, that France has lately experienced a happy and glorious REVOLUTION—AMERICANS, featible of the blefings of Freedom, have held Days of repoining with exceeding Joy for the Emancipation of their Gallic. Brothers from Tyranny. In most of our great tower, they have had Civic Bar-beenes, Fenges, Toufes, &c. facrificing here an OX and -there a Shad, and here a Salmer-LIB ERTY and EQUALITY are all the Ten-and "Citizen" the only title allowable (at the prefent Day) in Bolton.—At the Feaff in Philadelphia, it is notified, almost a Mirrele, that they had --FRESH SHAD (almost a Mirrele, that they had—raism shad—canght in January ! in the River Delaware—where Water runs, and Fish (wim, all the Teat through !—At Botton, (itrange to tell!) they book look it both saving excelled the Fhiladelphina—for, inflead of shad they booked of frieth falmonat their Feat!! that were can't in Mernmack river—which was never known to be dryl —Some fay this Salmon was fold to the Civic Citicen-Baffonines, at the moderate Price of FOUR and L-Lincs per Pound! Some fay more and fome lefs!-But (as Bofton Folks are full of notions) we cannot tell o a Penny !

In Concord, we did not meet, and have a Feathwe did not harbecue an OX—a sheep—nor dine on had or falmon, to celebrate the Gallick Independence thad or falmon, to celebrate the Califox more consequence— Yet all our Countenances are glad, and all our hearts rejoice—But we have a Fift Story to tell, full equal (see think) with the Boftonians, or Philadelphians, or even the New Yorkers, who allo had from Salmon ex-poted for Sale in the public Markets of their great City.

WASHINGTON'S BITH DAY. The 11th inft. being the mattl day of the Man for the People, Citizen Wassisorton, our Political common Father, the dawn of Day was announced by the different political common father, the dawn of Day was announced by the different political common father. charge of a Cannon. In the evening, a number of Citizens affembled at Citizen STICKNEY SBell Tavern. pherof Citizens aftembled at Citizen SPICKELY Stell lavern, and regaled themselves with a civick Supper; at which was furved up, A FRESH SALMON TROUT, prefented by Citizen DUNCAN; which was caught in a Pond about 20 miles horth of this Town, on the shi link, and weighed fourteen pounds.— After Supper, a number for republican Tosts were dame.— Joy was fested on every Face, and every heart glow of Lore and Unity: The occasion of their meeting infpired each Boson with the gratinde of Noble Freenien; and the Evening past in friendly Mirth.

"We cannot tell what river produced the New York Salmon. Tis no Matter !

[FROM A CORRESPONDENT.] Philadelphians fivet, and almost burth, To think they'd had a "shad the first; Newyork unsaly, (as is common) Did boldly write about a Salmon. Boftonians' Pride now took a firide, And Salmont had they three; Befides an OX, that caus'd a Eox,

And many a Rapartee. But Concord will be Concord fill, Who fix'd great George's Fame; And, without Rout, fup on a Trout, 1 To celebrate his Name.

North - A fand at the Civic Feaft in Philadelphia.

† Account in a Newyork Paper, of a Salmon offered for fale there in January; burno account of its being Three Salmon, taken from Merrimick River in Newhampshire, and fold in Boston, in January 1793. at 4s. per pound.

6 The Ratification of the Federal Confliction, the inth State, in 1787, which fixed the Federal Edifice.

[A Salmon Trout, taken from the Bay in Samborn-(Newhampshire,) which weighed fourteen Remarkable nice Senfe of Honor in a Brave. Remarkable nice Sonje of Humar in a Brown.

AT Naples there was a very particular man of honor, whole name was Randoli. He was the greated Bravo' of his time; and it was faid that he had with his own hands dispatched upwards of eighty perform by affaffination! For that was the profession he got his bread by. He made use of occasionally of pifful found of the state of nean up. He man use of occurrent on position any one teniars' and fillatts; for he scenard on position any one he was hird to make way with alledging that there was fomething numaly in it;—that it was not an action any man of honor would be guilty of; and that it was as much beneath a Brare to turn possitioner as it would be for a regular bred physician to commence Quack

Two Neopolitan gentlemen quarrelled one evening at an affembly, and according to their honorable cofform of the times, each fent separately for Bandoli, and gave him fifty piffoles a piece, to make quick, work of each other. The last man he dispatched as soon as he had other. The last man he dispatched as soon as he had paid him, and then returned to the first person, who, on hearing Bandoli relate how he had flaughtered his adverfary, commended the Bravogreatly for his detterity in his bulleds. "Yes, Sir, replied Bandoli, every "WILLIAM"

Acharafter at common with it edieses throughout Italy,

NORTHAMETON, MARCH 4-1793-

i one wan employ me, then sways mor me pottal; for a ma aman of honor, Sir, and to convince you send not forfeit it, the geatleman whom I have juff for how, by your order, gave me fifty pilloles to reake an of you; now, although he is dead, and campe call as of you; now, although he is dead, and campe call as of you; now, although he is dead, and cannot called to an account for nor, doing what he employed us in yet, Sir, I am fo much a man of honor, that I forms heguilty of a breach of promife to any gentless. He immediately thrult has failents deep into the older

TAKENOTICE

HEREBY forbid all perfons cuming HERESI IDDIO an PETIODS CHING Wood on the Land belonging to the heim of the Late TIMOTHY DWIGHT, deceased, (as they do it, their perial) without a written Certificate Item one of the heim: — In behalf of the heim, and by ordet of it.

Executors.

MAURICE W. DWIGHT. NORTHAMPTON, MARCH 4, 1793.

 $A \overline{S}$ H. AND THE HIGHEST PRICE, GIVEN FOR SALTS of LYE, by

WRIGHT & STODDARD. Northampton, January 2, 1793.

IAMES INGOLS Throrms the poblic, that he has lately removed a floor, nearly opposite the Court Honfe. He say there has been ed a floor, nearly opposite the Court Honfe. He say the say that he shall be able to gratify the seed-men and ladies, in the vicinity, with the nesself sincond wigs, yeer, commodes, &c.—Call and the last off price will be given a faid floop, for all tists of HUMAN HAIP, and every favour grantfully as knowledged.

knowledged. N. B. Wanted a likely roung lad, about form years of age, as an apprentice to the above buffers. Northampton, March 12,1793.

WANTED,

A San apprentice to the Joiner's bulines, a four w A tive Boy, 14 or 15 7 ... well recommend. Enquire of ...
BENJ. A. EDWARDS.

Northampion, March 20, 1793. ALL Persons indebted to N.Blake, 6 Co. A of Northampton, are hereby tequeled, when their accounts with the lubscriber, on or before the first day of May next: As a fettlement after that time may be attended with more expense. A ready out may be estenoise pliance is expected.

In behalf of N. Btorr, and Co.
SAMUEL LYMAN.

Northampton, March 19, 1793.

For BOSTON

THE Sloop LUCIDA, William Wicklam, Mass. For New York, the Sloop 74. COB, James Hindale, Males, both of which will fail is March. For Freight or pri-fage apply to the Malenca bard, or to Nathaniel Black & Co. near the berry Hardord: — Who have for his,

V. I.and N. E. RUM, BRANDY GINN, WINK
Loaf and Bown SUG ARS, TEA COFFEE CHOOLATE, BAR-IRON, STEEL, NAILS of differentia-OLA IE, BAR-IRON, STELL, NAILS of differentiation of the control of GROCERIES, tao numerous numbers, all of which they will fell by WHOLESALS of RETAIL, as cheap as can be purchased in Hannal those who will have fail these who will have fail Blake and Co. without cumflom, either by perfonally applying or by their der, whather for Goods, or for Freighting that any erry to Bafforor New York, may depend, that the first stream of half be paid to their order, and for finall a compensation as buffors of that kind is transfer. ed for, by any one in Harrford. The fmalled from will be gratefully acknowledged, By the publick's humble ferrants, ed for he NATH. BLACE, and Co. property with the fubfcribers, and intend to this iter to which it must be fent, and if configued to any or to whom configued as the River is now clear to ice, and opportunity prefents for forwarding it on of ther to Bofton or New-York, immediately.

Hartford, March 1793-

ALL Persons indebted to, of have any demands on the effate of DAKIEL GLAYO, late of Sunderland, deceafed, are defired to call of the fubicriber, administrator on faid eftate, for lenk

COTTON GRAVES

Sonderland, March 20, 1793-THE fubfcriber having purchased the Station lately occupied by Mr. Rocces Wisedinals carrying on the CLOTHIER' BUSINES, and its Branches; Those who will please to Israelian with their Cloth to Act of Stationary and the Stationary of Station au its tranches; Those who will please to favorible with their Cloth to dres, may depend non solvingdispatch: the smallest several gratefully acknowledged by the Public's Humble Several;
SA MUEL POMEROT.

WILLIAMSBURGH, MARCH 12, 1793-LOST on the 18th ult. be tween Capt. Warner's in Belchertown, and Landed White's in Hadley, a Check'd WOOLLEN RUG, Inteed. Whoever has found find Roy, and will learn with the Printer, or rementate to the owner, find handformely rewarded by WILLIAM COLLEGN.

Rampshing Dazette.

NORTHAMPTON, (Mafachefett) PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY WILLIAM BUTLER.

Vol. VII.1

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 3,1793.

[NEMB. 344.

FROM THE CONCORD HERALD. MR. PRINTER.

I feed you the following copy of a fournal which a friend of mine kept while on a work's tour in the upper part of this flate.

QUNDA Y.—Attended merting. The people were afronbling all the morning, and flamping their may feet as they entered the boofe, diffurted my decition very much. But feventy-four perfons armaded, which I thought palling flamage, considering the pepulonface's of the place, the mildness of the weather, and the excellency of the preacher. He mild his people the right way in a forcible, agreeable maurant. The decone housewer with two agreeable maurant. net. The descon, however, with roo much apparent facility to be real, and much too unconferentials a tone fashing to be real, and much two unconfigurable a tome no be any nife entertal, whited out the plain line by line in the morning—the fingers turned their backs to the audience sather fung in the afternoon. A reform in their respects I thought most devoutly to be withed.

Menday.—Travelled until night.—came to a tavern—no other boale within from miles—turned in the most hard to be a tavern.

-no oner mone-with rout miles—tatrie. in --norm was Interfaced or entering, no find two play in the carry way, and three in the keeping room; but thefe quadrupeds and the family appeared for moch altie, thus I afterwards thought it was not very necessary to keep up feparate persistion. A welled of difference was shooling in the beautient, and all the diffuse offed in the market of the architecture. seg in the beaufene, and all the differs ofed in the cantient fine day piled on, the table nowathed—the hoole fronking—the floor evinced (what I was after-wards told) that the broom was loft. The good wo have to wishing and fitting up the differ-the children hawling after her for, their suppers, and the feelding at them for being hangry.

When this tumoit, by the bein of a hearth full of petators, bad a little subfided, I called for fome supper—was preferred with a diff of bruiled funfages—my

-I was prefented with a difh of broiled faulto fears took the alarm on being told their pork had been killed but three days, and I declined the mess. Re killed but three days, and I declined the mefs. Recollecting that "Apples, exp, and unis," people night, tat after fowe fallet, I called for fome eggs, which, sogather with fome madled postures, and a lifeout from my portmantant, made my fupper—was introduced to a bed, not the mod agreeably Remed; but, warry of the faringwest of the day, and borrom of this cold, fmosty, ditty, noisy hostic, at length I fell a fleep.

"Ind?ay—Leaving this ferme of disfagreeables, I travilled on—a good toad, good weether, and good afage, made my journey pleasant. At F. M. called sta-good farm-hopic-land rarried.—Here-was-cleanireds in the hostic, but in famility government they did lage, made my journey pleasant. Art 7. M. cause at a good, farm-hoise f-and-tarried. Here-was cleanline in the honte, but in family government they did not corek iright. Unluckly likelt Tom, burt his brother Bob—Boh bawled out, O dear, O dear! "Come there, little-ducky," [Said her mother, "give me a blow, and I will beat him." I alked her, if feet things did not learn children to fight. She 'Shilule unpleafactly replied, they did not mind fuchtontiont.

Prefently Tom cried for a pifful to play with—his falher, after forbidding him, hired him to be quiet by a loop of fugar; hat fill the pifful was the cry, and crying faally obtained it. I could not father retling the food partnet, that homouring a child fo I thought would certainly 'fool him. Het replied, "JDan it house, was I—lone falks are eather notionel, I thinki." About cight o'clock an dider boy arrived, who, by the way, was charged to be at home from fishool in good feafon lohe came, "I did dom, "I'd ed daw. "Why Jonny," fas his mother, "do you come in finging fo?" Yes, maher, "faid dem, "I'd ed daw. "Why Jonny," fas his mother, "do you come in finging fo?" Yes, maher, "faid dem, "I'd ed daw. "Why Jonny," has his mother, "do you come in finging fo?" Yes, maher, "faid dem, "I'd ed daw. "Why Jonny," has his mother, "do you come in finging fo?" Yes, maher, "faid dem, "Yed daw." Why Jonny, and in a time to -Tiel-dem Vid-dum." Well, I thought, how can parents espect their children to make out well in the world, and to take good care of them when they are eld, if they take to little care of their children when

50. It they take to little care of their children when kerv are young. Tarried. Wedneyfay.—Called at night at an old acquaintance, aban lociable, pretty fenible, but rather old, and fund of flories—he often used the expression I wonder. "I wonder." flays he, "that people don't fer out muretters in six house time I fer out zo trees round when the six of th my boofe, twelve years ago, which now I would not take fifty filver dollars for. I govader people don't keep more regular accounts, and fertle them oftener; awould fave them and others much trouble. I counder People don't take newfippers more than they do: I read all the news—and befides, I keep all my papers, and filtenthem together, and fo have got three large books into the bargain, and all for a trifle, but nine fhillings a year.—I covered people don't hire better School-malters—we had a four dollar man all laft winter, who had fearrely four dollars worth of knowledge in the world; our children went to febool, tore their clothes. sout; our children went to (choo) tore their clothes, both their floor, foolied their books, loft their meantra and got no good. I awarder people will be fo imposed upon; we have had a firefuling preacher in our town some time, who fave, that the moral bonest was it much farther from Heaven than the licentious; and if half we bear of him is true, be is at that rate much never the same the control of the same than the control of the same than the iim, profanencis, and oppression, are prominent fea-tures in his character . But yet his has often been elect tures in his character. But yet his has often been cred-ed into office in the State—a fitting fumpion, of the decline of public viring, when the visious obtain the infinger of the people."—" In that house," [aid be, " lives a man worth four good farms, beldes money ar interest, but fill he is alraid of coming to wan." intered; but fill he is atraut or coming to want-Prefearly we fine, with the clashing and counter-nance of beggary, pining in ideal powers, while his poor neighbour, as we puffed, was whilling a merry tome to express his joy and country. We called at an inn—the landlord mer us with a finished complexency: I knew it was nothing more than formality; that food attentions are plealing to firmgers. Here we saw four advertisement for folen horses: " If theres must feel, "fid the "old man, "I with they would feel wholly from the members of the G 1 C 1, unwholly from the members of the G ... C ... to make the G ... C ... to make the could be done. "Why," faid he, "bid as large to bount on bone to horis thieras, so on wholes, and bant the raiceas that the world from Est to West." On we passe they in the make the destroy of the make the world from the to work." On we passe should be made to the make the world from the to work."

matfiel, only the landlady frote often, and chewel tobacto very rively, which I thought not very amiable accomplishment for a summe.

Fridge.—Nothing material through the day—called at atween for longing in the creating—found a number of town peopledinshing, gambling and f-searing; and perceiving withal that a feritual fight was coming on, I could not but reflect what a nity that boofes for the benefit of flrangers should be so abofed by the sicious inhabitants, and what a shame that such vices should be so publicity practiced where example mult be spermicious. Came on to another inc. where was inould be so publicity practifed where example must be so permissions. Came on to another into, where was a company, not of gamblers nordersalerds, but of singers—baving a relighter facend medic, was highly cateriained. Now young people naturally, with to be together; this very well they should be acquainted when single, that cannex inout may be formed with more wildom; where single perfors of high fergi thus mere, they are ambitrous to please—they impure the manners of each other; and befides, I. thought that their sized must be impured white recentives in their more. minds must be improved, while repeating in their tones to many foleme words. I was much pleafed with the m and good humour. After the finging was over, I could not be with, for the improvement of our youth as well as the improvement of mulick; that there who do not be the major of young perform in every town through the State.

ry town through the State.

Saturday.—Arrived, at home—found a generous fire, a clean hearth, a loyal wife pleafed with my return, together with two pratting children who had much to alk and much to tell—Here I fatme down with graftude to Heaven, enjoying all the riches of do

SECOND CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES

Begon and held at the city of Philadelphia, in the State of Pennfylvania, on Monday, the fifth day of November, one thouland feven hundred and ninelating foreign Coins, and for other purpofes an AB revoluting foreign Cates, and for other juryfets.

Sec. 1. Be it meaded by the Sease and Hoofe of Reprofessions of the United States of America, in Congress assessment of the United States of America, in Congress assessment of the United States, and by a legar tender for the payment of all delays and demands, at the feveral and respective rates following, and not utherwise, with The gold enins of Great Britain and Portugal, of their present thandard, at the rates of one hunddred censo for every twenty seven grains of the actual weight thereof, the gold coins of France; Spain, and the dominions of Spain, of their present Emaland, as the rate of one hundred censo for every twenty-feven the rate of one hundred cents for every twenty-feven grains and two fiths of a grain, of the actual weight thereos. Spanish milled dollars, as the rate of one hundred cents for each dollar, the chinal weight whereof thall not be lefs than feventeen, pency, weights and feven grains; and in proportion for the parts of a dol-lar. Crowns of France, at the rare of one bundred and ten cents for each crown, the attual weight wherenf, is and ten cents for each crown, the actual weight whereof, theil not be life than eighteen penny weight and for ventures grains, and in proportion for the parts of a crown. But no foreign coin their resy, have been, or thall be iffied fubforgent to the first, have been or thall be iffied fubforgent to the first, have been or thall be iffied fubforgent to the first day of January, one thouland feven hundred and untery, tree, thall have been considerable to the reference flattly have been to conformable to the reference flattly have been to conformable to the reference flattly are guired, and proclamation thereof flattl have been made by the Preference and proclamation thereof flattly have been made by the Preference and proclamation thereof flattly have been made by the Preference and proclamation thereof flattly have been made by the Preference and proclamation thereof flattly have been made by the Preference and proclamation thereof flattly have been made by the Preference and proclamation thereof flattly have been made by the Preference and proclamation thereof flattly have been made by the Preference and proclamation thereof flattly are the preference and proclamation to the flattly are the der as afprefaid

der, as siorchied.

Sec. 3. Andle is further conflict. That all foreign sold and filver coins, (except Spanith milled dollars, and parts of fuch dollars; which thall be irectived in anyment for munics one to the United States, after the laid time, when the incining of gold and filver coins thall begin at the miss of the United States, filell, previously to their being isseed in circulation, be con new, in conformity to the act, entitled, "An act effab-lifting a mint, and regulating the coins of the United Sice. 4. And be it further end. Etc. That from mo ar-fer the first day of July next, the fifty fish feeting of the adt, entitled, "An aft to provide more effectually for the collection of the duties implied by law on for the collection of the duties implied by law on the advantage of the duties of the duties of the United States. for the conceins of the dates imposed by law on goods, wares and merchandize imported into the United States," which affects and the tast at which for reign gold and filter colour thall be received for the dates and fees to be collected in virue of the faid aft, be, and the fame is hereby repealed.

SEC. 5. And be it far ther exaded. That the affay, provided to be made by the affa, entitled. "And aft effab. vices to be made by the act, consted, "And act ethics lifting a unit, and regulating the coins of the United States, "Shall commence to the muner at by the field act is prefereded, eache feecoud Monday of February, annually, any thing in the field act, to the contrary notwithdunding."

JONATHAN TRUMBULL, Speaker of the Hanfe of

JOHN ADAMS, Fite Prefident of the United States,

Arrange of the United States, and Arrange of the Sentent of States.

TELLTY of State

T. JEFFERSON, Secretary of State.

FRANCE.

NATIONAL CONVENTION,

DREMBER 27.

THE Minifler for foreign affairs informed the Convention, that he had appointed Mr. Geneff, late Minifler at the Hauge, Minifler of the French Repoblic to the United States of America. It was then refored, that an official letter fould be perferred to the faid States by the new Minifler; and this difficial letter was read and approved of, and decreed in be font by this new diplomatic agent to the United States of Asserica, on the part of the National Convention.

The letter was read in this fitting by M. Ghadet, & is as follows:

is as follows : Official Letter, to be delivered on the part of the FRENCH REPUBLIC toto UNITED STATES of AMERICA.

"Prefident of the United States of America."

"AMIDST the florm which huffet our infant liberty, it is a comfort to the French Republic, to have communion with republicks founded on the fame prin-ciples as our own. Our brothers of the United States commanion with republicks founded on the fame frin-ciples acont own. Our bothers of the United States will no doubt have heard with gladness the new revo-lation, which overthrew that laft obfacely to our liber-ty. This revolution, was necessary. Royaley was full existing, and in every constitution where it exists there is no true liberty. Kings and equality are incompati-ble with each other; it is their bufiness to confpire a gainfi equality, and against this fovereignty of Na-

ons. "The United States of America will hardly credit it the through the hardest French Court had alforded them? a recover their independence, was only the first of hafe specialton; their globy offended it ambitious views; and the ambifinders hore the criminal orders of flooping the career of their profiperity.

"Nay, it is only between free artions that finere and fattenal trains a whole formed." In the second fraternal freaties out he formed. The liberty which the French Republic withes to reflore to the nations the French Republic wishes to reftore to the nations that shall call for her affigured, will not be plotted with similar fairs; it shall be pure like herfelf.

"The immens distance which pure in, prevented your taking, in this glorious regeneration of Europe, that concern, which your principles and pix combats referved toyou, Single and alone against the colition of Kings, we have shewn outsides worthy of being called your brother; and the ignominious remean of their combined armies, Geomappe, Spires, Savoy, Flanders all these successful the continued armies, Geomappe, Spires, Savoy, Flanders all these successful and the geometry of the property of the combined samiles, Geomappe, Spires, Savoy, Flanders all these successful armies, Geomappe, Spires, Savoy, Flanders all these successful armies of the property of the same property of the s much marry Heaven than be coglet to be. I winnier fillent of the United States, and be in the United States and our arms will finally give them again calm the United States and our arms will finally give them again calm the States and our arms will