freheld the goddels in an erest attitude, supported by Religious on her right hand and Virtue on her left. She and another right hand and Virtue on her left. She and another right hand and Virtue on her left. She and a mode lovely countenance, and finited with inefault faitfaltion on her votaties. My transports in finding my felf in this delicious place cannot be experienced to see finding my felf in this delicious place cannot be experienced to left. The treacher is not considered to Dimonrier, and I will warrant that by finding my felf in this delicious place cannot be experienced to the finding of the treacher was inconceivable to fee delicious place cannot be experienced to Dimonrier, and I will warrant that by finding my felf in this delicious place cannot be experienced to Dimonrier, and I will warrant that by finding my felf in this delicious place cannot be experienced to convict himself the state of the middle and lower see my completion in the those of the middle and lower self-state with the conviction of the set of the middle and the self find my fred to convict himself the self find on the conviction of the self of the self finding my felf in this delicious place cannot be expected and the self finding my felf in this delicious place cannot be expected to the self find on the conviction of the self finding my felf in this delicious place cannot be expected to the self-state where the self-state where the self-state where making a great firm of the self-state where, making a great firm of the first self-state where, making a great firm of the first self-state where, making a great firm of the first self-state where, making a great firm of the first self-state where, making a great firm of the self-state where the self-state where the e heritorious indigents whom they had protected and inetered from wordy injuries. I was about to protect the myfelf to the Deity, when the effect of adotation twatened me, and the bafelefs fabrick of the vision left lyind only the faint traces I have communicated.

BERGEN-OF ZOOM, April 4.

Intelligence has been received from the Frince de exactoboutg's head quarter's at Mons, that an arrival to the state of th Dutch Brabant : That Gen. Dumonrier fet out on the 3d inft, on his march to Paris: That his ferer Mighneß had put his toops into very clofe can towerds, keeping them in immediate readineß to cit—That the Xing of Profin had confied the Phine at Buhter, attacked the French at Bingta Creuzenach Altheim, rock General Neuwinger, 50 offices, 200 non commissioned officers and privates, 15 canada, and a military cheff, and had formed the blockade of Mayence: That General Warmfer, with a Proffix corps, was immediately to pais the Rhine at Manheim and act on the left of the Kine: That Warms and Compaching the left of the King: That Worms and Oppenheim, were evacuated, and that the enemy had retreated from those places towards Landau. These operations happened between the 17th of March and the 1th of April.

HAGUE, April 4.

Intelligence has been re-ived from General Clairfavt dated at Tournay the 3d inft. advising that GenDemocrate had that morning feat to him, as prisoners,
M. Bournonville, M. Camus, and other commissioners, which had been sutherized by the national convention to at prehend im, and conduct him to the bar, and that, in a letter to General Clairfayt, he declared his intentien to march the next morning to Paris.

April 8. Lord Auckland, the British Minister, set off yefferday morning for Antwerp, to meet his Royal Highness the Deke of York, and the Prince of Saxe rignies the Deken Fork, and the Frince of Sate Chburg.—The honorable terms grained to the French garifons of Breda and Gertrudenbourg, appear now to have been flipulated by Domourier, in his conference with the Frince of Cobourg.

BRUSSELS, March 21.

Contrary to the orders of General Domourier to retorn all the plate with had been forsibly taken out of ite Cherches, it was get been given back; and it is tracen perceived on its fending off to France. This offends the perceived many places they have taken upzinth the Fred William many places they have taken upzinth. The perfants in the peighbourhood of Tirlemont and St. Turn have joined the Audirians.

MARCH 31. *
Extract from bit Excellency General CLAIRFAYT, a

Extract from his Executing General Camparat, at Mons, to Coste Standarder, period Minifer at the Hogge, dated Taumon, April 3, 1793.

"I lofe not a moment, in communicating to your Excellency what M, Duwdey track haiful written to me, when he fred to our completion or nine priloners, this meaning, four of whom with General Bownsonville, lee fay, were specially commissioned by the National Convention to attre fland consideration personners before rec lays, were specially commissioned by the National Convention to artefland conside him a prisoner before their har, and, on our refifance, on the parcof De Mona-TIE. to have him eliafinated on the road —"But," adds the witter," I have been before hand with them, in fecarring toble cammifficarer and their depatite at my prifus-ers." Their be has feat under a firing effort to the Prince ps Conougo, after baving put feals on all their papers, &c."

" M. Dunounce transmitted me at the fame time nift of the prifocer, and concludes by faying, that he was that inflant about to move with the trulty, part of his army, in order to defuny those who may further optot themselves to the public good of France, and to pire to the diffracted kingdom permanent peace and tranquility. Thave the honour to be, &c. &c.

COLOGNE, April 2.
We are this inflant informed that Custing having marched from Mentz on the 18 inflant, to retake Op-marched from Mentz on the att initian, to retake Op-penheim, the two wings of the Profiles a ramy cut off his retreat, and he was entirely furrounded with all his ar-my; it was furpored that he could not eferpe. Every thing is ready for the bombardment of Mentz and Caffel, and if the garrifons do not furrender, they will be entirely defiroyed.

By fome Damourier is accused as a traitor; and as having acted all along with view hofilleto his country. By others, his condect is jostified upon the ground of necessary, and represented as the only resource which his present situation allowed. He has been publickly threatened with a flashnation. In the club of Cordellets, it was resolved on the 26th March, that he and the other commanders of the army should be brought to Paris, in order to be tried, "and is," cried some of those present, "They state the subsual, text field not specified.

Orders of arreft are affaced against Madames Sillery, Egalite, Lady Frizgerald; against Valence, Egalite the younger, Manujoke, and others, who are officers under the command of Damourier.

Setting of the Jacobins, Mereb 31.

MALT.—"The dangers which threaten our country are at their height, and the moment has arrived of which he was a member, room rearing that and on-laft. He knew Dimmoniter to be caprincipled and am-bitions; but he knew his military talents, and wished to give his country the benefit of them. But Du-moniter conceived the project of conquering the Neth-erlands and Holland, and making himfelf their Prote-tor—All his actions were infected by this idea—and if the Lita consulting the Defines in the came of if he did not annihilate the Profitans in the camp of La Lane, it was because he wished to reserve himself an alylum, in case of defeat, in the States of Frederick an alylum, in case of defeat, in the States of Freedits William. His retreat from Belgium was rather the fault of his inferier officers than his own. Miranda was a fool or traitor. When Damourier returned from Holland to Belgium, he was quite dejected. The failure of his visionary projects reduced him almost to a state of infastity. He retained nothing of a repubromain to neighbra, he was quite describ. The failure of his visionary projects reduced him almost to a start of infanity. Heretained nothing of a republican but his military ardor, and songht every two leagues. "But," continued the speaker, "let us leave this traging General, and think only of faving the republic. France is far from having lost her force, Under Louis XV, she combated all Europe, with the fources is inferior. But where are those resources? It is for the Jacobias to find them. It is not enough to have levied an army of 500,000 men; we misst raise a central army to defend Paris and succour all the rest. Let the Jacobias call upon all good citizens, and felt those who are the most capable of defending their country, and we shall soon have a formidable army. The festions, alls of disconting the Convention; I cannot endure the idea of discontion.

"Let those who have shown themselves too pullaminous to join their tames to those whose glory will nimons to join their names to those whose glory will aftend to posterity, withdraw from it. Let us engage of those who are incapable of faving the Republica-I hose only who have killed a King, are worthy of h hole only who have and recenting Republicans."

MARAT. — Dumourier is the creature of a wicked Marat. — the country of the cou MARAT.—"Demourier is the creature of a wicord faction. He was at first their pupil, and now he to their protector. I suspect the commissioners Camus and Treilard. Such men ought not to give us a report on our squastion in Belgium. I must request that Danton will tear aside the veil before the tribune of the quefi." MRRAT.—"Aft with energy and courage. Behare like a true-spebblican." Do as I shall do. If the energy enter France, I shall draw my poignard and fall upon the traitors. (Here Maret, drawing a diagram from his bosim, brandiford it in his band.) I am determined to die rather than bend the knres. The despair of liberty will give me death. I propose that a considerable number of such arms shall be manufactured & fiderable number of fuch arms insul to manufacture or a given to all increases of koosen particulting, who are not acquainted with military evolutions. Let us for our foot a fubliciption for this purpole. I myfelf final! Vinake the full facilities to it." This was adopted, and the fullfeription agreed to.

DANTON .- " Lengage to comply with that re

St. Just. - I denunceBoursonville as a trait-

Of the fituation of French affairs at prefent, in point of fact, his country appears, perfectly ignorant; the remement of the day, the offspring of political prophery, are as follows: —That Dumoorter, affuming the duble character of General and Politician, had attandoned all his conquetts, and with his army had repaired to ed all his conquents, and white an effectual fland a paris, for the purpose of making an effectual fland a capitit the party of Egglite, his Prime Minister Ro gainst the party of Egalite, his Prime Minister Ro-hertspiere, and his virtuous Aid de Camp, Marat, to whom is attributed the recent defeat of Damounies' projects in the Netherlands; and, bortible turbs reflecon of civilized fociety, it is related, that the purpole of the party at prefent out of power in France can only be attained by a general mattacre of their guilty op

Yesterday arrived the Flanders and Dutch Mails ; the former of which brought us the Bruffels Gazettes, with the reflored Black Eagle, down to the date of the 23th

By thefe, the intelligence is confirmed to us, that the By thefe, the intelligence is confirmed to us, that the enemy have eatirely executed the Belgius territories. Democrier was at Bruffels fo late as the 23d olt.—at midnight the left it, until which time the French Partoles remained at their poffs, and tolerable good order preferred; but fo foon as they were gone, and no authority exiting as a check, the populace proceeded to pillage every place were any valuables were deposited; the formulations proceedings were not flopt until the next day, when the Austrian advanced guardarder.

arrived.
On the following day arrived the Arch Duke, secompanied by the Prince of Saxt Cobourg, and other General Officers.
This Prince arrived with a column of the army, and was precived with a great of the given the great of the given.

This Prince arrived with a colomn of the army, and was received at the gate of the city, short half after one, by the Magiltrates and other Officers, who accompanied his Royal Highness to the Collegiate Church of St. Goddels, to render thanks to God for the facects of the arms of his agost brother. After the Te Deum had been fong, and having examined the ravages the French had made in the Church, his Royal Highness want to the Court, where an annartment had ravages the French has been supported to the Court, where an appartment had high neighbor for him:—the furniture and the movebeen prepared for him :- the furniture and the move-ables here had either been pillaged or fold by the French. In the evening all the fronts of the houfes were illuminated; and his Royal Highnels taking a carriage flewed himself in almost every quarter of the

ATTACHMENT OF MONEY IN THE BANK OF ENG. LAND.

ON Monday laft an unprecedented attachment was made by the King's attorney general, of the fumof one hundred thou fand pounds fierling flanding in the land of England, in the name of England, in the name of Medin. Surdies and Choller on the supposition of the money being the property of the French government.

The confernation that this measure has given to all. the monied men it is impossible for us to describe; but such is the present flate of men's minds, that up all of government can produce any other emotion than sur-

prize.

It is well known that the house of McHeurs Bordier and Chollet was employed by persons in France to sureith various stricks of the produce and manufactures of England, which, highly to the advantage of our trad England, which, highly to the auranage of our trade, they fulfilled to a great extremt. Their goods night or might not be for the ufe of the Republic : in all times under the old delpointing, as well as under the new order of the temperature of the republic of things, this has been done to the benefit of our arriven and the extention of our commette.

But now for the fift time in the history of England, an attachment is made of a form of money lodged by English merchants in the facted deposit of the Bash of England, the governots of which are merely the private Bankers of Meiirs. Bordies and Chollet, on the occasion The avowed pretexts is, that they fulped this lim to belong to the Government of France, and they bare filed a bill in Chancery to make the English house andwer filed a bill in Chancery to make the English houf-ander-interrogatories, upon oath, whether this founds or in or the property of the Republic.

They justify the attachment by faving—The French feized on English this—They reraliate by feizing on French money—and the question final be thought upfor by this means between the two countries. It will fore by this means between the two countries. It will tried before an English jury.

Whether the good fenfe of Englishmen will bearthen cot in this ftrong proceeding we know not. To touch a fum of money, in any way, lodged by an individual in the Bank of England as his banker, is a thing of o delicate a kind, in a country that depends on the eleanness of its conduct with respect to credit, as cught in bur minds to have determined administration from the flers.

All foreign coin, and all bullion, is lodged by our merchants in the Bank of England. Is it possible that merchant in the truth can be violated? Or are we to commit an act of commercial faicide, by telling foreign national date no longer confidence in the intereducia of proping of the paging. in England.

LEYDEN, April t.

OUR laft accounts from Paris are of the 21d of March, and are of a very intereffing nature. Every part of that country was threstened with a commotion, part of that country was threatened with a commonous, in confequence of the levies of troops ordered by the Convention. In Britanny, they have broke forth is a spen rebellion against the Convention and sgainst be motivary; the revolt has extended from the Department of do I'as do Calais to those of Morbitan l'Ide de Villaine, and Villaine the Laver, Loire, the Maine, and the Loire, particularly in those of La Vendecand Deux Service, so that the infugents are not only master of Britanny, but also of Ection and Anjoe; they are commonded by experienced officers. A corps of 10,000 men has been sitembled, under the command of Gentals Marie and Terreuit; to reduce them. Name has als Marig and Terreuil, to reduce them. Names has also revolted, and no couries had arrived at Paris from hence fince the 19th.

Noscoonts are published at Paris relative to the a No sections are published as a first easily one mice, except those of General Biron, the only one who continues to obtain any advantages, which he, had done larely over the Austrian and Fiedmontes troop. Dispatches, however, have been received at Paris from General Dumourier, of a very important nature, the tive to the operations of the French armier. Their fane, that the Außtraus have heitherto facceded be-yond all expectation; that the Belgians had taken by youd all expectation; that the Helgians had nearly arms in many places against the French; that is other they had thrown up abattis, and blockeded up the real; to impede the French; and that they received their committee with open arms. These who govern the Continue with open arms. coemies with open arms. These who govern the Convention did not think it properts communicate that dispatches to that Assembly, or make then public. They were therefore immediately sent to the commission of the ce of General Defence, without reading them.

WANTED a quantity of White Oak Bark, for which Eighteen Shilling; per card will be green, J. delivered by the 20th of July by BRIDGMAN S. RICE.

Northampton, June 5, 1793. NOTICE is hereby given to Groker Greek, a non-relident proprietor of lands, in in Norwich, in the county of Hampdire, that is ing in Norwich, in the county of Happoine, in a land are taxed in a flate, county and town taxes, the amount of two pounds: cleren fullings and free peace; unlefs faid taxes are paid on or beforehe faid and the public vendur on faid ask of faid land will be footied by the fail of t or James Converie, in faid Norwich, as faill be mo-cient to difebarge faid taxes, with intereening charge JAMES CONVERSE, Collector. Nerwith, May 28th, 1793.

PHILADELPHIA, May 17, ampliance authors o unparallel'd in this country, one days past kept the public mind in a state of hater some cays part kept the public mind in a facte of forful ferment. Incombiny letters, demanding furnithment, and the fact of the strongs, accompanied, with threats, in case of non-constance, had been feat to feveral gentlemen in the dry, through the medium of, the Poll-Olarce, figured in fetting names, and directions the strongs and directions the strongs. in fetitive names, and directing the money olded to their addresses by the same channel. matter to men addreffes by the fame channel. The instement of whom this extraordinary densand was de-very productly, mentioned the circumstance; to the only who had the means of deterding—in confeience of which, mediares were immediately taken by the half Matter of this city, and the sufficient for approximating any one on whom folipicious right appear to fall.

On the affermance of Tuelday last, one Guillioux, a bir duffer, brought to the Polt Oline's paper with the finites armes alluded to, upon which he was feened and suried before Alderman, Bater. On his fift existing, he denied having any knowledge of the uer-and correct begins a discrimanistics. On his wife exa-inguinon, he denied basing any kanyledge of the per-ing who had given them to bim, infilling that it was a sime bom be had just, flavered, but had, never before the same of the same bad requested him to empire to leaves to face address. This account being low-ternashitisationy, his wife and sep dauginer; were form for bothers evidence not corresponding with his, and in wife denying in the most politive manuer, many or it denying him to speak afterious, at the fame time exhorting him to speak etreth, rather than bring deftraction on himfelf and petron, man ding certainto no himler and family, he, alarmed at the féricos appearance of affairs, a kezih aeknowledged that he bad been employed by McRavarz, who had threatened him, he cafe of discovor, that an accomplice would infallibly affaffinate his and the fear of his life, he taid, had made him endeav and the first of his life, the faid, had made him endeav-give conceal the name of his employer.

Warrants were then granted for apprehending Mr. harran, and he was yellerday taken, and brought be-fore the fine Alderman. The flory that he teld was failur to that of the barber; adding, that a man who hidde came from Spanish America, had a goodled him mapply for these letters, for as they were intrigues of fice, he dated not to appear, lest he should embroil him If with the Spanish commissioners.
This being all that could be obtained. Mr. Ravar.

MAY 20. Edmund Charles GENET, Minifer Plenifotentian from the Republic of France, to the United States,-THE ADDRESS of the Citizens of Philadelphia.

SIR, The Cirizens of Philadelphia are anxious to convey The Cartzens of Pouladelphia are assertions to convey sir congrantations upon your arrival, to terms the sit congrantations upon your arrival, to terms the sit cardial and acceptable. We have, with pleafure, to more occasions, sekwoledged our obligations, declared our attachment to the people of France; or at this moment, we are prendurely gratified, by reagainty, in the Minifter of our first and best Ally, temperature of a liver Republic.

invelentative of a Free Republic.

pelled with the value of our political independence;

defing, with an honeft pride, the Glory and Success, when the property of the prope der, how great a portion of our triumph and on htims; fappress our joy, that the nation; which su gen-muly coarributed to refere the liberries of America a, at length, with unparalleled, magnanimity, estab-

continued the fruggles of France with a paternal softemplate, the fruggles of France with a paternal fungathizing in all her calamities; and exclining ther forceffes; bur there is snother interest, the med of Freedom and Equality, which adds to the see of our affections, and renders the caufe of France potantio every republic, and dear to all the human Beaffored, therefore, that justly regarding the colting of republican principles, as the best fecurity for the amence y of our own, popular government, we redi fringine hopes, at this, momentum critis, on the salest of France; and, catacilly giving to the ma-mic certions our wither and our prayers, we cannot in the pleasing hope, that although America, is not a my in the rediling way. the may till be able, in a diate rede, to demondrate the faceurity of her friendship, abouting very affelial stiffance to the citizens of her strouble.

republic.
The well-carned character of a republican and a pat ured for you the warmest fentiments o al respect and efficem s'and, while the law of na n, and the rights of treaty, givedignity and energy for official flation; the endeavors of the curzens for official flation; the endeavors of the citizens for the trust being feeling in rendering your relieve feeling in the design of the citizens of the fill design of the feeling in the f

Signed by order of the meeting. CHARLES BIDDLE, Chairman. Philadelphia, 17th May, 4 753 Anei, ROBERT HENRY DUNKIN, Sec 19.

THE ANSWER. Gener Minifter Plenipotentiary fro uses User F. Miniter Pleapoteniary from the Re-bect France, to the Citizens of Philadelphia. C.1.7.1 Z.E. N. S.

A pained to not acknowledged a virtue among the too, it is cidently fuch among freepens. Of this is the control of the among freepens. Of this is the received abundent proofs on my journey as Chatlebur to Philadelphia. In every place the small voice of the proofs convinced me in a most and voice of the proofs convinced me in a most incompletion of their yield featiments and fincere discolly discontinues from the proofs of the convinced of the discollection of the convinced tradly dispositions towards the nation which I the bosor to represent, and for the advancement is common cause which the alone supports with so connection, address has completed my fatisfaction, it was your address has completed my fatisfaction, address you that the day your Brethren in France characterize it.

In any private character of a citized lim highly distant any private character of a citized lim highly distant and private character of any the favorable or private provide any power to me jand I promife to pake every exercise it may power to me jand I promife to pake every exercise it may power to reader my full woughty of that good opinion, and to justify the confidence my country has upolar its low. My conduct while among you shall be to be being into our maintained political principles.—An a second of openments shall be the constant rule of my intercolour a private hold wife and virtuous men into whole hands you have interest.

The shall be the constant rule of my intercolour a private hold wife and virtuous men into whole hands you have interest. ed the management of your polic affairs. I will expose candidly to them the great objects on which it will be our basiness to deliberate; and the common interest of soch nations will. I have no doubt be the compute of our direction ; for without fach a guide, what would become of both nations, exposed as wemutual are to the refent ment, the hatted and the treachety of all the tyrants of the earth, who, you may reft affored, are at this momen armed not only against France, but against liberty in

(Signed)

(Signed)
May 29.—The thip Grange fome since ago captured in the Bay of Delaware, by the French frigate PEcubolicade, has been reflored to the owners.
By the flay pamishle, Capt. Ead, arrived here had Mogday from Sr. Vincent, we learn that Admiral Gamber, with fir fail of the line, arrived before Martinique the 1th inft. No land forces were on baard the thips, it being fappored the illand would furender on the appearance of the English fleet—but 31 general Rochambeau commanded the troops at Tartinique, there was no doubt, of a vincerous reflections. ral Rochambean commanded the troops at transmique, there was no doubt of a viagorous refinence.

Extend of a letter dated at New York, left Standay or Moraing.

The Ship Alexander is this mining arrived from Savannah and brings accounts that the Creek Indians, to the comber of 5 or 600 hundred had made a defeent spon the people of Georgia, and were within 35 miles of Savanuah."

Nes W - Y O R K, May 18.
Extlad of a letter from Ludes, April 5.
"Within these last three works the Austrians have ad the advantage in four actions; the French fought gallantly under Demourier, but were obliged to their ground although much superior in anmber, gallauly under Dumourier, but wede chiped to quit their ground although more (uperior in ammber, and are quitting almoft, extenselates they had gained posific-fion oft.—Medicinet, Laige, Bruffer, Ottond, Khnderr, Louvain, &c. are all abandoned. Opt these size in high condition, fame already at fea, and others quite pearly. The lofs we have inflamed at fea from their deglinition of war eight days previous to our knowing their inter-tions, and commencing hadilities in confequence, has been trivial indeed, not one fixth what our merchants were apprehensive of this is owing to the grastel ex-were apprehensive of this is owing to the grastel ex-cutions in the naval department, the coall of France be-ing literally covered with our frighter and floops of war; for that if by charce any of our tride is praced up, he-fore they get into a French port they; size frequently form they get into a French port they are frequently exputed, and not uncommodly the captor allo. At the inflate I am writing, there is no communication whatever with France, it is ten days fince, we have the circuit the leaf information from Paris, without because the leaf information from Paris, without because the leaf information from Paris, without being the leaft finguine, I may fay that all things, as far as human forelight goes, feems returning to a renova-tion of the former lystem, but with attention to the low-tion of the former lysem, but with attention to the low-er orders of the people, who will, from the interference of this country, be relieved from many impulsions." May 20.—The following is a copy of a paterire of a letter received by a gentleman in NewBododo, by the Brig Charming Polly, in meany days from Calabia— SThe French affairs begin to wear a more pleasing project: Damonter, by the most forprizing maneaver ever heard of; on the School April, formers de a body often thouldnut of the Solver of the Profession, and often thousand of the flower of the Profess after, and often thousand of the flower of the Profess after, and our them to there are a man. The King of Profins and Doke of Brunkynta are among the flam.

The flip Peggy, Cape Billot arrived at Philadelphia af Fidal yron Amgerdam, left the Treet between the 7th and 8th of April. The Imp John, of Bollon, had arrived fone days before, and informed, that they had arrived fone days before, and informed, that they had a received for each of the state of the canal days and the state of the canal days are the canal days and the state of the canal days are the canal days and the state of the canal days are the canal days and the state of the canal days are the c had been boarded by a, French privateer, who examined their papers, and then proceeded on their renizable by a french captains as purious on their papers, and then proceeded on their carizable by the privateer had not British Captains as purious on board; to that the must have taken as many prizes. A Dutch floop of war came in, who informed, that they had met with two French privateers, each of which he ed a broad fide at the floop of war, and then left her.

A Baltimore paper mentions the death of Alexander M Gilliway, that of the Creek Nations; the that he died in the month of February laft.

died in the month of February life.

In a ferste thunder goff, on Wednesday last, five of fix barras were, blown down or Maria for the first barras were, blown down or Maria for the first barras were. fix barns were blown down at Monotomy And a Barn belonging to Mr. Stone of Watertown, fer tri fire by the lightning-but was happily extinguish

Friday night faft the grand Paper Mills belonging to Metir Bewin; of Watertown, were entirely confumed—It is not known by what accident they caught fire. The lofs is efficated at about 20005

M. Genet's averaged, that Faste does not expect.

M. Genet's averaged, that Faste does not expect.

America to join the prefers. European War, and ogerage as a dead, wough to the War Hawks with have little, been "selecting their beed?" in the would be Capital of the United States.

NORTHAMPTON, Jule

NORTHAMPTON, Juke ;
The following furthing pulling is copied from a fector written on the prefers that of a fairly in Bornes at I have cealed to place pilling to any catality things, and remains and made in for many kings. Where it these things will end, God only knows, Many king.

thell receive it, it will be n day of a cheeker them. This a doing in Europe are lasken to their very founds. I assignant, then from the effect it has land anony felf, it will have did fane upon them, from those use and it will have did fane upon them, from those use and it is followed by the following the fine that do use, and rate it and it being train, liberal fentiments, those just and excellent ideas which the characterize it.

full opened and for fale hy ARAD BROWN.

At the House of Mr. Eijah Wright, Jun. West of the Meering House in Eastampron, a complete affortment of fashionable ENGLISH & HARD WARE GOODS.

Ishionable ENGLISH & HARLI WARE, GOUDS, Among which are the following anticle, viz:

SUPERFINE, Scuder, Light and Dark culoured S Brandelotta, Striped Swandown, Dore coloured Fancy Cord, Californe, Vieter, June, Fallian, Manken, a beautiful allorment of Chietzes and Calicoes, of rerious colours ; Furniture, do. Morcen, Shalloom, Durais, Calimancocs, Modes and Satines, Black and Waite Tiffanies, Satconet, Plain Lawn, Flowerd and Stripd Apron, Lace of different kinds—Plain and Stripd Mulin, Handkerchief and Apron, do. White Cotton and Worfied-Hofe, Gentlemens' and Ladies Gidves, Silk and Twift, Plas and Needles, Ribbons of allkinds—A beautiful alfortment of Fans—Tuttend from No. 10 to 64. Wafers and Sealing Wax, Pupile & Chiniz Shawls, Chin Hang, Ohrieh Feathers, Silk Vell Shapes, Satin Lading, 11th Lamen, Writing, Faper, Umbrillary, Moroccu Pocket-Books, Plated and Steel Spors, Jappan'd Snuffers, Raffor and Penkuives, Cuttos, Brás Knobs, Tobacco Boxes, Sauff do, Largand Small Spoone, Plated Shoe and Kneb Boketes, Finch Back, do. Brais Handler and Eicsteheons, Kaives and Fosis, Chef Locke, Hand HL. Hinges, Shoe Hammars, Speffieles, Gill Cost and Vell Buttons, Gmiblets, Martine Lack, Access and Vell Buttons, Gmiblets, Martines, Speffieles, Gill Cost and Vell Buttons, Gmiblets, States, Martines, Speffieles, Gill Cost and Vell Buttons, Gmiblets, States, States, Forks, Cheff Locky H and HL. Hinges, Shoe Hamman, Speffseles, Gilt Coat and Vell Buttons, Gamblets of all kinds, Mill Files, Raifles, &c.

ALSO,—A very large effortment of Crockery, by Wholefale and Retail, cheaper than can be purchased, in the county—An affortment of Glas and ChimaWare of all kinds—Snoff, Figtal Tubacco,—With many in the county—An mornmenter visit and of all kinds-Sonf, Figual Tobacca,—With many other articles too muserous to mention.

Those gendeness and ladies who will no perchase, are requested in call and fee if they can't be as well associated by him, as by any of the any end as well associated by him, as by any of the bound of the interest will be given for any of the above goods. Configuation of the any of the above goods. Configuation articles will be given for any of the above goods. Configuation attendance given and every favour acknowledged with gratitode, by the public's hombie fersant.

N. B. These persons formerly indebted to faid Brown, are requested to call and for what is to be done.

Estimpton, June 3, 1793
Spencer Whiting,

HAS just received an elegant affortment of English & Hard Ware Goods, which he rogages to farmith his cultomers and others with, on the lettick terms for ready pay, et if more agreeable, on his usual reruss of Credit. Welt India Rum, per | Cinnamon, Notmega, bar, or lefs, Freach, Brandy, Malaga Wine, Fresh Raifins, Tra Coffee. hocolate Proper

Allum, Copperat, Roin, Brimftone, Powder and Shot, To and 4d Nails, 6 by 8, and 7 by 9 Wia-dow Glafs, &c.

Allfoice, Ginger,
A. General Affortment of Crockery Ware. LOTH .- Seven pence for pound for good BUTTER,

WCITHISCION. JUNE 3. 1793-

The Blind Man of Chellerheld, HAVING lately received from New-York a general

G 0 0 D S, h larger than efeal) fashionable and fentable (for [much larger than oldstantantonous and the fealure activated by fewtiments of grantide(as well as by mutives of intered) profests his acknowledgments to his friends & cultomers for their benevolence to his

as by motives of intered) prefent his acknowledgments to his friends & cultumers, stort they benevolence to his person and family, and further beneficial attention to his effects in trade for years past, which has afforded him, the means of a combinable further as a finded being the continuance of their faron, and fatters hindelf, their commitments for the fine-latter, of his circumstances, thaving been totally blind 27 years), together with their long experience of his fair, and apprint dealings, will be inducements of charges and apprint dealings, will be inducement of charges and interest to maliciply their favors and thereby add to their property.

to their property.

Chefterfull, Tare 2, 1792.

NFO TIC his hereby given to the son-relatent propriations of Lond Ajuse is the zone of Northumpton, in the country of Hamphire, who have not paid their except the fablenber, for the year 1793—that unlefully a related to the fablenber, for the year 1793—that unlefully a related to the fablenber, for the year 1793—that unlefully a related to the fablenber of the law-rell be attended to for the culter the fablenber of t direction of the Interval be attended to locally contention of the Energy and the state of the Interval of Int Color, let eye blind the lyd Arthe, the Horica bright bay color, fel eye blind the lyd Arthet and paces, the Marc a patent tratter, heavy with foal—of an iron grey color, both flood, before—The constr. is defined to prove his 'property, pay, charges and take them, yeary, ABNER, SHEEDON, Sauthampter, Teles 4, 1793.

The LITTLE READER'S ASSISTANT FOR SALE AT THIS OFFICE.