the fam of them! If I thould count them, they are more in personal favours of Providence, as also of the singular prosperity of our nation. Then the fubject endeavours to embrace the present tumplruous and disastrous condition of the European Kingdoms, originat-ing from the ambition of Princes, combined against the Government and Liberties of the French Republic. The probable issue of those convolutions, according to the ufual courte of providential events, is fa-ted to be, the emancipation of France from her former opprefixors, and from the pre-fent unreasonable combination of her coc-mies; the propagation of a spirit of free enquity in matters of civil polity and re-ligion through neighborring countries, to the great increase of buman virtue and hap pinefa. The whole is improved as a mat-ter of our more watchful obedience and of tumble gratitude and praife to the Su-premeRuler of nations and the compalino-are Friend of finners.
