

Commonwealth of MASSACHUSETTS.

In the Year of our LORD, One Thousand seven Hundred and Ninety-four.

An ACT for ascertaining the quality of Stone Lime, and the size of Lime Casks, and for repealing all laws heretofore made relative thereto.

WHEREAS considerable quantities of Stone Lime, are, and may be manufactured within this Commonwealth, which, if subjected to proper regulations, may become an article of export:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, that from and after the first day of July next, no Stone Lime manufactured within this Commonwealth, shall be sold or exposed to sale, or shipped on board any vessel, in casks, but such only as shall be well burnt and pure, and contained in hogheads of one hundred gallons each, or half hogheads of fifty gallons each, or half barrels of ten barrels each, or all barrels with ten hoops on each cask well driven, and secured with nails or pins. And every manufacturer or owner of Lime, at the time it is manufactured, and put into the casks, shall, with a burning iron, impress, or mark on one of the heads of each cask of Lime, his own name, and the name of the town or place where said Lime is manufactured, both at length, and the contents in figures.

And be it further enacted, That if the manufacturer or owner of any Stone Lime as aforesaid, or any other person employed by him, shall presume to sell or expose to sale, or put or receive on board any vessel in casks, any Lime, either such as shall be contained in a cask or casks, made as aforesaid, and having the aforesaid marks or brands, the offender or offenders shall incur the penalty of ten dollars for each cask so sold, or offered for sale, or shipped or received on board any vessel, to be paid for the same before any Justice of the Peace, or Court of Common Pleas, as the same may require, by action of debt, and all such Lime, and casks on which shall be forfeited, and may be recovered by libel as the law directs. And it is lawful for any Justice of the Peace upon information given of any such cask or casks of Lime, sold or exposed to sale, or put or received on board any vessel as aforesaid, not made and duly marked or branded as aforesaid, to issue his warrant directed to the Sheriff, his Deputy, or Constable, requiring them respectively to make seizure of any such Lime, sold or exposed to sale, or shipped or received on board any vessel, and to secure the same, in order for trial, and such officers are respectively directed and empowered to execute the same.

And be it further enacted, That if after any such casks containing Lime shall have been stamped with the manufacturer's or owner's mark as aforesaid, any cooper or other person than the manufacturer or owner of Lime, shall presume to shift the contents of said cask or casks, and put therein any other Lime, with a design to sell or ship the same on board any vessel, such cooper or other person so offending shall forfeit and pay the sum of ten dollars for every cask of Lime so shifted, to be recovered in action as aforesaid.

And be it further enacted, That if any manufacturer or manufacturers, owner or owners of Lime, as aforesaid, or other person, shall be guilty of any fraud in marking the same, or in the contents of any cask or casks of Lime, that shall not be mer-chantable according to the true intent, and meaning of this act, or they shall fail to forfeit and pay the sum of twenty dollars for every cask so falsified, or for every cask so falsely marked, to be recovered as aforesaid.

And be it further enacted, That if any manufacturer or owner of Lime, or any other person employed by him, shall presume to brand any cask or any casks of Lime with the name of any other person or persons, than of the real manufacturer or manufacturers, or the right owner or owners thereof, he, or they shall incur the penalty of twenty dollars, for every cask so marked or branded, to be recovered as aforesaid.

And be it further enacted, That all penalties and forfeitures arising by virtue of this act, shall be, one moiety thereof to the use of the county, in which the offence shall be committed, and the other moiety to him or them who shall inform and sue for the same.

And be it further enacted, That all laws herefore made for regulating the sale of Lime, be, and that they are repealed.

Provided nevertheless, That nothing in the foregoing act shall be construed to restrict any manufacturer of Lime, or other persons from retailing Lime, by the bushel or other quantities not in casks.

DREADFUL ACCIDENT.

Monday night the Royal Family went to the little Hay Market Theatre for the first time this season. A most afflicting scene occurred at the opening of the doors.

The expectation of their majesties' presence drew the usual crowd, and on opening the doors, the torrent broke in with impetuosity.

At the entry of the theatre there is an old ironed defences to the pit; on which some of the foremost of the multitude lost their feet and fell; the crowded over them with that thoroughfaway in which a moment no compassion can touch, no eloquence soften.

Our reader will hear it with horror in this year, Twenty thousand being were trades is dead: exclusive of those, who being recovered from the effects of suffocation, are scarcely expected to survive the brutes which they sustained under the pressure of the eager, unthinking crowd, whose sympathy was extinguished in their cordity.

The confusion lasted for half an hour, and for all that time no possible aid could be given to the victims. As soon as possible the bodies were carried to the adjoining house; seven of them to Mr. Winslow, the druggist, two or three of them to Messrs.
Longman and Broderip's and the rest to other houses in the neighbourhood, where all the means recommended by the Hospital Society were tried to restore animation in vain. But one person out of all the victims were recovered. Several of them were immediately recognized as having lived in the neighbourhood, and nine were taken to St. Martin's work house, where four of them were owned; five still remain whose whole names are unknown.

The accident did not interrupt the performance; the house was quite crowded with the Beau Mome, and the pieces went off with great laughter and applause. It was said the shocking event was not made known to their Majesties till next morning.
