

It being provided by the Seventeenth Article of the Treaty of Amity and Commerce, now subsisting between the United States of America and the French Republic...

I HAVE THEREFORE, in compliance, with the request of the Government of the United States...

AND I hereby enjoin it upon them to prevent any breach thereof, it such should be attempted in any, and especially those parts distant from the Capital...

Given at Boston, in the said Commonwealth, the third day of November, in the Year of our Lord, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Ninety-four...

JOHN AVERY, jun. Sec'y.

FROM THE EASTERN STAR, of October 1.

ON Tuesday last, was executed at Dedfield in the county of Lincoln, Edmund Fortie, a negro man, who appeared to be between 30 and 40 years of age...

Multi kinds of produce will be taken in payment for the above Goods.

To be Sold, a very excellent farm in Chelmsford, containing about one hundred and thirty acres...

BROKE into the inclosure of the Subscriber in June last, a light red STEER, one year old past, with several artificial marks...

BROKE into the inclosure of the Subscriber, on the 10th inst, an iron grey Horse, lately owned by John Shaw of Cambridge...

NOTICE is hereby given to the non resident Proprietors of land lying in Ashfield, that their LANDS are taxed, in State, Town, County and Ministers taxes...

VIEWING the conduct of many upon the late execution of an unhappy wretch, my mind was exceedingly agitated...

That his most barbarous and inhuman conduct towards the innocent victim of his brutality should excite his indignation as well as horror, is not strange...

It has been observed by those who have been present upon like occasions, that they never saw so many ugly faces in any assembly as at that...

FOR SALE, A large new dwelling house, with 2000 acres of land, lately occupied by Messrs. Murray and Beamer...

UNLESS said tax rates payed on or before the last Thursday of January next, so much of said lands will be sold at Public vendue...

Fall and Winter Goods. NATHAN BACHELOR, Cal. Ashfield, Nov. 12, 1794.

Robert Breck, and Son, Inform their customers and the public, that they have just received a large and very general supply of ENGLISH IRON...

Produce Sells High. ALL PERSONS indebted to ROBERT BRECK, and SON, whose notes and accounts are one year bid and upwards...

Ran away from the subscriber, an indentured boy, named THOMAS NUTTING, about 17 years of age, dark complexion, straight brown hair...

Broke into the inclosure of the Subscriber, on the 14th of September, a black, two year old HEIFER, no artificial marks...

Broke into the inclosure of the Subscriber in June last, a light red STEER, one year old past, with several artificial marks...

Broke into the inclosure of the Subscriber, in October last, a light red STEER, 1 year old past, no artificial mark...

Whereas I OIS, my wife, has eloped from my bed and board, I hereby forbid all persons from assisting her on my account...

Drugs and Medicines. Which are now ready for sale, in a very general assortment of EUROPEAN and INDIA GOODS...

Sylvester Woodbridge. Has just received a fresh supply of English Hardware, and W. J. GOODS, suitable for all seasons...

Wanted, immediately, a quantity of WHITE BEANS, for which the highest price will be given in Sh. or any kind of GOODS...

TAKEN UP, about six weeks ago, a yearling STEER, marked with a yellow tail, in the rear of 12th rib...

Strayed from the Subscriber on the 26th ult. a sow SWINE, of an artificial mark, unknown...

Broke into the inclosure of the subscriber, on the 26th of October last, a red hind HEIFER, two years old past...

Taken up by the subscriber, on Saturday last, a bay horse, three years old past, hood all round...

Whereas I OIS, my wife, has eloped from my bed and board, I hereby forbid all persons from assisting her on my account...

Call on the New-GOTTILSONS and COUNTRY DANCES, in which is added the names of all Ministers to be careful...

Call on the New-GOTTILSONS and COUNTRY DANCES, in which is added the names of all Ministers to be careful...

Call on the New-GOTTILSONS and COUNTRY DANCES, in which is added the names of all Ministers to be careful...

Call on the New-GOTTILSONS and COUNTRY DANCES, in which is added the names of all Ministers to be careful...

Call on the New-GOTTILSONS and COUNTRY DANCES, in which is added the names of all Ministers to be careful...

Call on the New-GOTTILSONS and COUNTRY DANCES, in which is added the names of all Ministers to be careful...

Massachusetts Gazette

NORTHAMPTON, (Massachusetts) PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY WILLIAM BUTLER. WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1794. [NUMB. 432.]

SIMEON BUTLER, Author and Binder, has this day received from New-York, a full assortment of BOOKS...

Among which are the following, viz. Rowan's do. Marguerite's do. Paine's Age of Reason...

Eleazer & W. Porter, Have just received a new supply of GOODS suitable to the present season...

JOHN ADAMS, Vice President of the United States, and President of the Senate. Nov. 22d, 1794.

CONGRESS. Ordered, That Mr. King, Mr. Ellsworth, and Mr. Izard, the committee who drafted the address to the President of the United States...

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. Thursday, Nov. 20. The House resolved itself into a committee of the whole on the President's speech...

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. Thursday, Nov. 20. The House resolved itself into a committee of the whole on the President's speech...

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. Thursday, Nov. 20. The House resolved itself into a committee of the whole on the President's speech...

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. Thursday, Nov. 20. The House resolved itself into a committee of the whole on the President's speech...

Dispatches from Gen. Wayne received in the recess, &c. The reading of these papers was continued until the adjournment.

A bill introduced by Mr. W. Smith, for granting to Mr. Wayne, the delegate to Congress from the Territory South of the Ohio, the privilege of franking Letters...

The reading of the papers received from the President of the United States yesterday, was resumed—during which, the Committee appointed to answer the President's address, brought in a report...

Among the occasions, which have been afforded, for expressing my sense of the zeal and steadfast co-operation of the Senate, in the maintenance of government...

Next in the consciousness of upright intentions, it is the highest pleasure to be approved by the enlightened representatives of a free nation...

With such demonstrations of affection for our constitution, with an adequate organization of the militia, with the maintenance of necessary fortifications...

The House resolved itself into a committee of the whole on the President's speech—Mr. Trumbull in the chair.

The House proceeded to the choice of a Chaplain for the session; an account of the bill proposed, that the Representatives should be checked...

The example is precious to the theory of our government, and confers the highest honor upon the patriot who has given it.

Dispatches from Gen. Wayne received in the recess, &c. The reading of these papers was continued until the adjournment.

A bill introduced by Mr. W. Smith, for granting to Mr. Wayne, the delegate to Congress from the Territory South of the Ohio, the privilege of franking Letters...

The reading of the papers received from the President of the United States yesterday, was resumed—during which, the Committee appointed to answer the President's address, brought in a report...

Among the occasions, which have been afforded, for expressing my sense of the zeal and steadfast co-operation of the Senate, in the maintenance of government...

Next in the consciousness of upright intentions, it is the highest pleasure to be approved by the enlightened representatives of a free nation...

With such demonstrations of affection for our constitution, with an adequate organization of the militia, with the maintenance of necessary fortifications...

The House resolved itself into a committee of the whole on the President's speech—Mr. Trumbull in the chair.

The House proceeded to the choice of a Chaplain for the session; an account of the bill proposed, that the Representatives should be checked...

The example is precious to the theory of our government, and confers the highest honor upon the patriot who has given it.

Dispatches from Gen. Wayne received in the recess, &c. The reading of these papers was continued until the adjournment.

A bill introduced by Mr. W. Smith, for granting to Mr. Wayne, the delegate to Congress from the Territory South of the Ohio, the privilege of franking Letters...

The reading of the papers received from the President of the United States yesterday, was resumed—during which, the Committee appointed to answer the President's address, brought in a report...

Among the occasions, which have been afforded, for expressing my sense of the zeal and steadfast co-operation of the Senate, in the maintenance of government...

Next in the consciousness of upright intentions, it is the highest pleasure to be approved by the enlightened representatives of a free nation...

With such demonstrations of affection for our constitution, with an adequate organization of the militia, with the maintenance of necessary fortifications...

The House resolved itself into a committee of the whole on the President's speech—Mr. Trumbull in the chair.

The House proceeded to the choice of a Chaplain for the session; an account of the bill proposed, that the Representatives should be checked...

The example is precious to the theory of our government, and confers the highest honor upon the patriot who has given it.