PORTSMOUTH, May 21.

Fire on board the Boyne, Man of War.
At first it was supposed that the fire pro eceded only from a transport, but it was from after discovered that'it was the Boyne of 98 gans, commanded by Capt. Grey, that was on fire. The court was imme-diately cleared, and it was determined to officer all further proceedings till to fire the top and all the rigging were in a blaza.

About twelve the tide turned, and the ofition of the thips became changed, but it was now too late to make any attempt or even for boats to come near her. Pre-vious to this, however, from the number of boats that went infrantly to her affift. ance, it is hoped, that most of the crew were faved, though, from the sapidity of the flamen, it is feared that fome must have perithed.

All her gons were loaded, and as the became heated, they went off, the fnot fall ing among the hipping, and fome of them even reached the thore, but without it is hoped having done any damage. It was opwards of two hours from the first dif-
