PEACE BETWEEN FRANCE AND SPAIN HAMBURGH, APRIL 25.

Since my latt, I have to ennounce to you a Treaty of Peace and Amity between the French and the King of Spain, of which the conditions are not yet known. If we credit reports, the above treaty contains many fecret articles, relative to the W_0^{μ} . Indies and America, which it would not be very honorable for Spain to grant, as those conditions are entirely contrary to the intereds of Great-Britain in the Wellern Hemisphere, and humiliating for any power that could accede to them. The Pteliminaries of the Treaty with his Catholic Mijefty, have not yet been laid be-fore the Convention, because it is fill doubtful whether the Ratification will be quite fo readily granted at Madrid, as the former were figured at Paris.

Spain is also to pay a considerable sum

f money for the expenses of the war; of money for the expenses or the way, and hopes are given to the Spaniards, of an opportunity probably offering itself foon, to retake Gibralter, in which point over a conditions, obtain they might on certain conditions, be affidance of the French Government,
