The OLD MAD's Emille to the BACHELORS of the Village.

Y.S. Rach-lon too long you we turned,
The time—dept time that you were married,
For heaven leftly dudn'd to the man
With woman, in the broads of Hymen.

Ye hashier, befh'ol, backword, blundering, Ye hoshire, baliful, backward, blondaring, Blow long must we be wairing, wondering, Say why for timid—why that diffuser! We promife you but faint refiliance. While the day laft, up be doing, Now's the accepted time for wooling. Here's many a lafetious laft for marker, Bat not a lad, who dares to fpaik it!!!

In Allead, prithee never tell on'r, That Walpole forpiffics no gallant! In Marlow town preclaim it never,
A Walpole lafs finds noneto have her!

Should you remain, as rame as there here, We'll take advantage of this leap year, Fall of th ye ay on thall be wifited. In ternas pathetic of clalicated, We'll take polificion of your bunfes, And let you know, wear your spoules!

Should thir plan fail, throld you refule us, Or the # faife colors, to amole us, We'll his to Congres, with petition, Deferibing out todon condition. "In Sanday imperferes our faces, Defore their Hamos ope our cafes, Defore their Hamos ope our cafes. Inform them how, that this our nation Seffers for lack of population;
That we're prepared if 'dis their pleasure, To still in any lawful measure,

LINES BY THE REV. Mr. EISHOP TO HIS WIFE, WIT

A KNIFE, dear girl, curs love they far,
Mere noded love pethaps it may;
For any tool of any kind
Can fee' rate what was never join'd.
The knife that cuts our love in two
Will have much tongher wank to do; Will have much trougher work to do; Most on your folicefs, worth and fpirit, Down to the volgor fize and merit, To level yours with modern taste Must cut a world of fende to waste; And, from your fingle beauty's flore Chip what would dozen out a fenre. The felf fame blade from me must fever Senfarion, judgmenr, fight forever ! All mem'ry of endearments paff, All hope of comforts long to last; All that makes foutteen years with you A former-and a foort one too ; All that stiction feels and tear;
When home, without you, feen fike years;
Till that he done (and I'd as foen
Believe this knife will chip the moon)
Accept my preced, understr'd
And leave their proverhs to the herd.

If in a kifs (delicious treat) Your lips acknowledge the receipt, Love fond of fuch fubilistial fare, And proud to play the glotton there, All thoughts of cotting will dildain, Save only-Cat and come again.
