9. Historical significance (include explanation of themes checked above)

Crescent St. was laid out in 1886, continuing the cut Henshaw Ave. had made midway along the slopes of Round Hill. The street encircled the hill ending up back on Elm St. By 1895 most of the lots between Summer St. and Round Hill Rd. had been developed.

This two and a half story, L-shaped residence has a half porch on the northern end of the facade. The porch has turned posts, brackets and a balustrade.

The house was built in 1867 for William Pomeroy, a foreman for the Norwood Engineering Co. in Florence.
