9. Historical Significance (include explanation of themes checked above)

1890 Frederick Macomber, a local banker, purchased several lots from George Jewett ^{after} ~~when~~ the Jewett property on Elm street was plotted in 1887. Between 1890 and 1895 when the house appears on the Map of Northampton 1895 Macomber built a large residence for himself. The property was sold by his heirs in 1922 and later acquired by Harvey Antil (1939) who converted the house into apartments, and made the barn into a two family house. In 1973 Antil sold to David Pichette who has established the office for his construction company in the house, retains residence, and rents apartments.
