MASSACHUSETTS HISTORICAL COMMISSION Office of the Secretary, State House, Boston

In Area no.	Form no.)
	31A-183

Northampton

X I Z er og er

other buildings. Indicate north. a games a public of as any and as any of the contract of the

	ess 41 Washington Avenue
ali n	E. Lilly House
	ent use residence
1	Die Gestalt geweiner der Gestalt geweiner der Gestalt geweiner der Gestalt geweiner der Gestalt gestal ent owner Martin & Lynda Gleaso n ription:
	1870-71
	ource Reg. of Deeds
	by 6 124
V 10 4 /	itect bar barrant
	Exterior wall fabric clapboard
$4 $.	Outbuildings (describe)
	Other features
	Milay jada las alla las Altered Date
	Moved Date
5.	Lot size:
	One acre or less X Over one acre
	Approximate frontage 75'
	Approximate distance of building from street
	60m - 1.5 08.5 - 1. 15 06 - 27 m 18 06 19 08
6.	Recorded by E. Lonergan & M. Dolin
	Organization NHC
	Date March 1980

STANDER SELECTION A DESCRIPTION OF THE PROPERTY SELECTION ADDRESS OF THE SELECTION ADDRESS OF TH

Subsequent uses (if any) and dates 3. Themes (check as many as applicable) Aboriginal Conservation Recreation Agricultural Education Religion Architectural Exploration/Science/ The Arts settlement invention Commerce Industry Social/ Communication Military humanitarian Community development X Political Transportation 9. Historical significance (include explanation of themes checked above) Washington Ave. was opened in 1870 for residential develo J.M. Minor and J.H. Searle. The next year they split the development in half Searle taking the lots on the north side of the street and Mr. Minor taking t the south side. In that transaction a house is mentioned on this lot, no. 16 house and lot were sold to Erastus Lilly, a deputy sheriff in Septenber of 18 $3000. By 1873 almost half of the present day 35 houses had been constructed street, with most of the rest built around the turn-of-the-century. This house is 2 and 1/2 stories tall with pedimented end	themes (check as many as applicable) boriginal Conservation Recreation gricultural Education Religion rchitectural Exploration/ Science/ The Arts settlement invention Commerce Industry Social/ Communication Military humanitarian Community development X Political Transportation Washington Ave. was opened in 1870 for residential development by J.M. Minor and J.H. Searle. The next year they split the development in half with M Searle taking the lots on the north side of the street and Mr. Minor taking thise on the south side. In that transaction a house is mentioned on this lot, no. 16. The house and lot were sold to Erastus Lilly, a deputy sheriff in Septenber of 1871 for $3000. By 1873 almost half of the present day 35 houses had been constructed on the		Original use re	sidence
Aboriginal Conservation Recreation Agricultural Education Religion Science/ Architectural Exploration/ Science/ The Arts settlement invention Commerce Industry Social/ Communication Military humanitarian Community development X Political Transportation 9. Historical significance (include explanation of themes checked above) Washington Ave. was opened in 1870 for residential development search taking the lots on the north side of the street and Mr. Minor taking to the south side. In that transaction a house is mentioned on this lot, no. 16 house and lot were sold to Erastus Lilly, a deputy sheriff in Septenber of 18 $3000. By 1873 almost half of the present day 35 houses had been constructed street, with most of the rest built around the turn-of-the-century. This house is 2 and 1/2 stories tall with pedimented end	boriginal Conservation Recreation Religion Science/ gricultural Exploration/Science/ The Arts Settlement Invention Social/ Communication Military Social/ Communication Military humanitarian Transportation Gistorical significance (include explanation of themes checked above) Washington Ave. was opened in 1870 for residential development by J.M. Minor and J.H. Searle. The next year they split the development in half with M. Searle taking the lots on the north side of the street and Mr. Minor taking thise on the south side. In that transaction a house is mentioned on this lot, no. 16. The house and lot were sold to Erastus Lilly, a deputy sheriff in Septenber of 1871 for $3000. By 1873 almost half of the present day 35 houses had been constructed on the street, with most of the rest built around the turn-of-the-century. This house is 2 and 1/2 stories tall with pedimented end to the street and a 2 and 1/2 story pedimented projection on the western side. A one-story
Aboriginal Conservation Recreation Agricultural Education Religion Architectural Exploration/ Science/ The Arts settlement invention Commerce Industry Social/ Communication Military humanitarian Community development X Political Transportation Washington Ave. was opened in 1870 for residential develo J.M. Minor and J.H. Searle. The next year they split the development in half Searle taking the lots on the north side of the street and Mr. Minor taking t the south side. In that transaction a house is mentioned on this lot, no. 16 house and lot were sold to Erastus Lilly, a deputy sheriff in September of 18 $3000. By 1873 almost half of the present day 35 houses had been constructed street, with most of the rest built around the turn-of-the-century. This house is 2 and 1/2 stories tall with pedimented end	boriginal Conservation Recreation gricultural Education Religion rchitectural Exploration/ Science/ The Arts settlement invention Commerce Industry Social/ Communication Military humanitarian Community development X Political Transportation Washington Ave. was opened in 1870 for residential development by J.M. Minor and J.H. Searle. The next year they split the development in half with M. Searle taking the lots on the north side of the street and Mr. Minor taking thise on the south side. In that transaction a house is mentioned on this lot, no. 16. The house and lot were sold to Erastus Lilly, a deputy sheriff in Septenber of 1871 for $3000. By 1873 almost half of the present day 35 houses had been constructed on the street and a 2 and 1/2 story pedimented projection on the western side. A one-story		Subsequent uses (If any) and dates_
Agricultural Education Religion Architectural Exploration/ Science/ The Arts settlement invention Commerce Industry Social/ Communication Military humanitarian Community development X Political Transportation 9. Historical significance (include explanation of themes checked above) Washington Ave. was opened in 1870 for residential develo J.M. Minor and J.H. Searle. The next year they split the development in half Searle taking the lots on the north side of the street and Mr. Minor taking t the south side. In that transaction a house is mentioned on this lot, no. 16 house and lot were sold to Erastus Lilly, a deputy sheriff in Septenber of 18 $3000. By 1873 almost half of the present day 35 houses had been constructed street, with most of the rest built around the turn-of-the-century. This house is 2 and 1/2 stories tall with pedimented end	gricultural Education Religion rchitectural Exploration/ Science/ Science Industry Social/ Science Industry Social/ Science Military humanitarian community development X Political Transportation Washington Ave. was opened in 1870 for residential development by J.M. Minor and J.H. Searle. The next year they split the development in half with Mi Searle taking the lots on the north side of the street and Mr. Minor taking thise on the south side. In that transaction a house is mentioned on this lot, no. 16. The house and lot were sold to Erastus Lilly, a deputy sheriff in September of 1871 for $3000. By 1873 almost half of the present day 35 houses had been constructed on the street, with most of the rest built around the turn-of-the-century. This house is 2 and 1/2 stories tall with pedimented end to the street and a 2 and 1/2 story pedimented projection on the western side. A one-story	₹.	Themes (check as many as applica	ble)
Architectural Exploration/ Science/ The Arts settlement invention Commerce Industry Social/ Communication Military humanitarian Community development X Political Transportation Outside the significance (include explanation of themes checked above) Washington Ave. was opened in 1870 for residential development J.M. Minor and J.H. Searle. The next year they split the development in half Searle taking the lots on the north side of the street and Mr. Minor taking the south side. In that transaction a house is mentioned on this lot, no. 16 house and lot were sold to Erastus Lilly, a deputy sheriff in September of 18 $3000. By 1873 almost half of the present day 35 houses had been constructed street, with most of the rest built around the turn-of-the-century. This house is 2 and 1/2 stories tall with pedimented end	Exploration/ Science/ the Arts settlement invention Commerce Industry Social/ Communication Military humanitarian Community development X Political Transportation Mistorical significance (include explanation of themes checked above) Washington Ave. was opened in 1870 for residential development by J.M. Minor and J.H. Searle. The next year they split the development in half with Mi Searle taking the lots on the north side of the street and Mr. Minor taking thise on the south side. In that transaction a house is mentioned on this lot, no. 16. The house and lot were sold to Erastus Lilly, a deputy sheriff in Septenber of 1871 for $3000. By 1873 almost half of the present day 35 houses had been constructed on the street, with most of the rest built around the turn-of-the-century. This house is 2 and 1/2 stories tall with pedimented end to the street and a 2 and 1/2 story pedimented projection on the western side. A one-story		Aboriginal
The Arts settlement invention Commerce Industry Social/ Communication Military humanitarian Community development X Political Transportation Mashington Ave. was opened in 1870 for residential development J.M. Minor and J.H. Searle. The next year they split the development in half Searle taking the lots on the north side of the street and Mr. Minor taking the south side. In that transaction a house is mentioned on this lot, no. 16 house and lot were sold to Erastus Lilly, a deputy sheriff in September of 18 $3000. By 1873 almost half of the present day 35 houses had been constructed street, with most of the rest built around the turn-of-the-century. This house is 2 and 1/2 stories tall with pedimented end	The Arts Settlement invention Social/ Communication Military humanitarian Community development X Political Transportation Washington Ave. was opened in 1870 for residential development by J.M. Minor and J.H. Searle. The next year they split the development in half with Mi Searle taking the lots on the north side of the street and Mr. Minor taking thise on the south side. In that transaction a house is mentioned on this lot, no. 16. The house and lot were sold to Erastus Lilly, a deputy sheriff in Septenber of 1871 for $3000. By 1873 almost half of the present day 35 houses had been constructed on the street, with most of the rest built around the turn-of-the-century. This house is 2 and 1/2 stories tall with pedimented end to the street and a 2 and 1/2 story pedimented projection on the western side. A one-story		Agricultural		— · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
Commerce Industry Social/ Communication Military humanitarian Community development X Political Transportation Historical significance (include explanation of themes checked above) Washington Ave. was opened in 1870 for residential development J.M. Minor and J.H. Searle. The next year they split the development in half Searle taking the lots on the north side of the street and Mr. Minor taking the south side. In that transaction a house is mentioned on this lot, no. 16 house and lot were sold to Erastus Lilly, a deputy sheriff in September of 18 $3000. By 1873 almost half of the present day 35 houses had been constructed street, with most of the rest built around the turn-of-the-century. This house is 2 and 1/2 stories tall with pedimented end	Commerce Industry Social/ Communication Military Military Folitical Military Military Military Folitical Transportation Mashington Ave. was opened in 1870 for residential development by J.M. Minor and J.H. Searle. The next year they split the development in half with M. Searle taking the lots on the north side of the street and Mr. Minor taking thise on the south side. In that transaction a house is mentioned on this lot, no. 16. The house and lot were sold to Erastus Lilly, a deputy sheriff in Septenber of 1871 for $3000. By 1873 almost half of the present day 35 houses had been constructed on the street, with most of the rest built around the turn-of-the-century. This house is 2 and 1/2 stories tall with pedimented end to the street and a 2 and 1/2 story pedimented projection on the western side. A one-story		Architectural Community development X Political Transportation Military humanitarian Transportation Historical significance (include explanation of themes checked above) Washington Ave. was opened in 1870 for residential development J.M. Minor and J.H. Searle. The next year they split the development in half Searle taking the lots on the north side of the street and Mr. Minor taking to the south side. In that transaction a house is mentioned on this lot, no. 16 house and lot were sold to Erastus Lilly, a deputy sheriff in September of 18 $3000. By 1873 almost half of the present day 35 houses had been constructed street, with most of the rest built around the turn-of-the-century. This house is 2 and 1/2 stories tall with pedimented end	Washington Ave. was opened in 1870 for residential development by J.M. Minor and J.H. Searle. The next year they split the development in half with M. Searle taking the lots on the north side of the street and Mr. Minor taking thise on the south side. In that transaction a house is mentioned on this lot, no. 16. The house and lot were sold to Erastus Lilly, a deputy sheriff in September of 1871 for $3000. By 1873 almost half of the present day 35 houses had been constructed on the street, with most of the rest built around the turn-of-the-century. This house is 2 and 1/2 stories tall with pedimented end to the street and a 2 and 1/2 story pedimented projection on the western side. A one-story		The Arts
Community development X Political Transportation Washington Ave. was opened in 1870 for residential development J.M. Minor and J.H. Searle. The next year they split the development in half Searle taking the lots on the north side of the street and Mr. Minor taking the south side. In that transaction a house is mentioned on this lot, no. 16 house and lot were sold to Erastus Lilly, a deputy sheriff in September of 18 $3000. By 1873 almost half of the present day 35 houses had been constructed street, with most of the rest built around the turn-of-the-century. This house is 2 and 1/2 stories tall with pedimented end	Washington Ave. was opened in 1870 for residential development by J.M. Minor and J.H. Searle. The next year they split the development in half with Mi Searle taking the lots on the north side of the street and Mr. Minor taking thise on the south side. In that transaction a house is mentioned on this lot, no. 16. The house and lot were sold to Erastus Lilly, a deputy sheriff in September of 1871 for $3000. By 1873 almost half of the present day 35 houses had been constructed on the street, with most of the rest built around the turn-of-the-century. This house is 2 and 1/2 stories tall with pedimented end to the street and a 2 and 1/2 story pedimented projection on the western side. A one-story		Commerce
Washington Ave. was opened in 1870 for residential developed. J.M. Minor and J.H. Searle. The next year they split the development in half Searle taking the lots on the north side of the street and Mr. Minor taking the south side. In that transaction a house is mentioned on this lot, no. 16 house and lot were sold to Erastus Lilly, a deputy sheriff in September of 18 $3000. By 1873 almost half of the present day 35 houses had been constructed street, with most of the rest built around the turn-of-the-century. This house is 2 and 1/2 stories tall with pedimented end	Washington Ave. was opened in 1870 for residential development by J.M. Minor and J.H. Searle. The next year they split the development in half with Mi Searle taking the lots on the north side of the street and Mr. Minor taking thise on the south side. In that transaction a house is mentioned on this lot, no. 16. The house and lot were sold to Erastus Lilly, a deputy sheriff in September of 1871 for $3000. By 1873 almost half of the present day 35 houses had been constructed on the street, with most of the rest built around the turn-of-the-century. This house is 2 and 1/2 stories tall with pedimented end to the street and a 2 and 1/2 story pedimented projection on the western side. A one-story				The state of the s
Washington Ave. was opened in 1870 for residential development J.M. Minor and J.H. Searle. The next year they split the development in half Searle taking the lots on the north side of the street and Mr. Minor taking to the south side. In that transaction a house is mentioned on this lot, no. 16 house and lot were sold to Erastus Lilly, a deputy sheriff in September of 18 $3000. By 1873 almost half of the present day 35 houses had been constructed street, with most of the rest built around the turn-of-the-century. This house is 2 and 1/2 stories tall with pedimented end	Washington Ave. was opened in 1870 for residential development by J.M. Minor and J.H. Searle. The next year they split the development in half with Mi Searle taking the lots on the north side of the street and Mr. Minor taking thise on the south side. In that transaction a house is mentioned on this lot, no. 16. The house and lot were sold to Erastus Lilly, a deputy sheriff in September of 1871 for $3000. By 1873 almost half of the present day 35 houses had been constructed on the street, with most of the rest built around the turn-of-the-century. This house is 2 and 1/2 stories tall with pedimented end to the street and a 2 and 1/2 story pedimented projection on the western side. A one-story		Community development X	Political	Transportation porch with hipped roof, chamfered posts and ornate brackets covers the three-			J.M. Minor and J.H. Searle. The Searle taking the lots on the the south side. In that transposes and lot were sold to Ers	The next year they north side of the saction a house is astus Lilly, a depu	split the development in half with M street and Mr. Minor taking thise on mentioned on this lot, no. 16. The ty sheriff in Septenber of 1871 for J.M. Minor and J.H. Searle. The Searle taking the lots on the the south side. In that transhouse and lot were sold to Erro $3000. By 1873 almost half of street, with most of the rest. This house street and a 2 and 1/2 story in the street and a 2 and 1/2 story in the street and a 2 and 1/2 story in the street and a 2 and 1/2 story in the street and a 2 and 1/2 story in the street and a 2 and 1/2 story in the street and a 2 and 1/2 story in the street and a 2 and 1/2 story in the street and a 2 and 1/2 story in the street and a 2 and 1/2 story in the street and a 2 and 1/2 story in the story in th	The next year they north side of the saction a house is astus Lilly, a depurate present day 3 built around the terms of the present day 3 built around the terms of the present day 3 built around the terms of the decimented projections.	split the development in half with Mistreet and Mr. Minor taking thise on mentioned on this lot, no. 16. The ty sheriff in Septenber of 1871 for 5 houses had been constructed on the urn-of-the-century. ies tall with pedimented end to the on on the western side. A one-story early maps, etc.) 1873, 1884 & 1895 Atlases Registry of Deeds: Bk. 286-P.88, 282-6, 272-149

10. Bibliography and/or references (such as local histories, deeds, assessor's records,

Northampton Directory: 1873-74, 1894-95