FORM B - BUILDING

MASSACHUSETTS HISTORICAL COMMISSION Office of the Secretary, State House, Boston

In Area no.	Form no.
	31A-282

VH		J/the
יד. Map. בים in relation t	to nearest cross	streets and	Tendo Indo al Yota SVI

	Morthampion
	ess 00 Weshington Ave.
	3 2000 € 100 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0
	ent use residence
	ent owner Erma SIsco
	: :ription:
	ource _{Maps} and visual evidence
	September 1997
Map. Draw sketch of sattling. Part in relation to nearest cross streets and	itect
tegned belastrede.	Outbuildings (describe)
Legued Dalus trade.	Other features Altered Date
Legued ballus frank.	Other features
Legued balus trade.	Other features Altered Date
Legued balus trade.	Other features Altered Date Moved Date
Legited balus trade.	Other features Altered Date Moved Date 5. Lot size:
No part of the second of the s	Other features Altered Date Moved Date 5. Lot size: One acre or less Over one acre
A STATE OF THE STA	Other features Altered Date Moved Date 5. Lot size: One acre or lessx Over one acre_ Approximate frontage
A CONTRACTOR OF THE PARTY OF TH	Altered Date

Themes (check as many as applicable) Aboriginal Conservation Recreation Religion Agricultural Education Religion Architectural x Exploration/ Science/ The Arts settlement invention Commerce Industry Social/ Communication Military humanitarian Community development Political Transportation Historical significance (include explanation of themes checked above) This house first appears on the 1895 atlas as property of Thomas Rowland, and inspector for the Clement Manufacturing Co. The house was probably built a few years earlier. It is 2 and 1/2 stories high with gable end to the street, a one-story porch covering the three-bay facade and a two-story porch added on at the rear of the western side. The top of the front gable is covered with fish-scale shing and features decorative stick work connecting the end rafters. The front porch has a hipped roof, projecting gabled entrance, square posts with cut-out brackets forming arched openings of the porch, and a patterned balustrede.	(Original useresid	lenc e
Aboriginal Conservation Recreation Agricultural Education Religion Architectural x Exploration/ Science/ The Arts settlement invention Commerce Industry Social/ Communication Military humanitarian Community development Political Transportation Historical significance (include explanation of themes checked above) This house first appears on the 1895 atlas as property of Thomas Rowland, and inspector for the Clement Manufacturing Co. The house was probably built a few years earlier. It is 2 and 1/2 stories high with gable end to the street, a one-story porch covering the three-bay facade and a two-story porch added on at the rear of the western side. The top of the front gable is covered with fish-acale shing and features decorative stick work connecting the end rafters. The front porch has a hipped roof, projecting gabled entrance, square posts with cut-out brackets forming	S	Subsequent uses (if any) and	dates
Agricultural Education Religion Architectural x Exploration/ Science/ The Arts settlement invention Commerce Industry Social/ Communication Military humanitarian Community development Political Transportation Historical significance (include explanation of themes checked above) This house first appears on the 1895 atlas as property of Thomas Rowland, and inspector for the Clement Manufacturing Co. The house was probably built a few years earlier. It is 2 and 1/2 stories high with gable end to the street, a one-story porch covering the three-bay facade and a two-story porch added on at the rear of the western side. The top of the front gable is covered with fish-scale shing and features decorative stick work connecting the end rafters. The front porch has a hipped roof, projecting gabled entrance, square posts with cut-out brackets forming	• [Themes (check as many as a	pplicable)
Architectural x Exploration/ Science/ The Arts settlement invention Commerce Industry Social/ Communication Military humanitarian Community development Political Transportation Historical significance (include explanation of themes checked above) This house first appears on the 1895 atlas as property of Thomas Rowland, and inspector for the Clement Manufacturing Co. The house was probably built a few years earlier. It is 2 and 1/2 stories high with gable end to the street, a one-story porch covering the three-bay facade and a two-story porch added on at the rear of the western side. The top of the front gable is covered with fish-scale shing and features decorative stick work connecting the end rafters. The front porch has a hipped roof, projecting gabled entrance, square posts with cut-out brackets forming	Å	Aboriginal	Conservation	Recreation
Architectural x Exploration/ Science/ The Arts settlement invention Commerce Industry Social/ Communication Military humanitarian Community development Political Transportation Historical significance (include explanation of themes checked above) This house first appears on the 1895 atlas as property of Thomas Rowland, and inspector for the Clement Manufacturing Co. The house was probably built a few years earlier. It is 2 and 1/2 stories high with gable end to the street, a one-story porch covering the three-bay facade and a two-story porch added on at the rear of the western side. The top of the front gable is covered with fish-scale shing and features decorative stick work connecting the end rafters. The front porch has a hipped roof, projecting gabled entrance, square posts with cut-out brackets forming	1	Agricultural	Education
The Arts settlement invention Commerce Industry Social/ Communication Military humanitarian Community development Political Transportation Historical significance (include explanation of themes checked above) This house first appears on the 1895 atlas as property of Thomas Rowland, and inspector for the Clement Manufacturing Co. The house was probably built a few years earlier. It is 2 and 1/2 stories high with gable end to the street, a one-story porch covering the three-bay facade and a two-story porch added on at the rear of the western side. The top of the front gable is covered with fish-scale shing and features decorative stick work connecting the end rafters. The front porch has a hipped roof, projecting gabled entrance, square posts with cut-out brackets forming	ź	Architectural	x Exploration/
Community development Military humanitarian Transportation Historical significance (include explanation of themes checked above) This house first appears on the 1895 atlas as property of Thomas Rowland, and inspector for the Clement Manufacturing Co. The house was probably built a few years earlier. It is 2 and 1/2 stories high with gable end to the street, a one-story porch covering the three-bay facade and a two-story porch added on at the rear of the western side. The top of the front gable is covered with fish-scale shing and features decorative stick work connecting the end rafters. The front porch has a hipped roof, projecting gabled entrance, square posts with cut-out brackets forming	•	The Arts
Community development Military Political Transportation Historical significance (include explanation of themes checked above) This house first appears on the 1895 atlas as property of Thomas Rowland, and inspector for the Clement Manufacturing Co. The house was probably built a few years earlier. It is 2 and 1/2 stories high with gable end to the street, a one-story porch covering the three-bay facade and a two-story porch added on at the rear of the western side. The top of the front gable is covered with fish-scale shing and features decorative stick work connecting the end rafters. The front porch has a hipped roof, projecting gabled entrance, square posts with cut-out brackets forming	(Commerce	Industry	Social/
Community development Political Transportation Historical significance (include explanation of themes checked above) This house first appears on the 1895 atlas as property of Thomas Rowland, and inspector for the Clement Manufacturing Co. The house was probably built a few years earlier. It is 2 and 1/2 stories high with gable end to the street, a one-story porch covering the three-bay facade and a two-story porch added on at the rear of the western side. The top of the front gable is covered with fish-scale shing and features decorative stick work connecting the end rafters. The front porch has a hipped roof, projecting gabled entrance, square posts with cut-out brackets forming	(Communication	Military	The second secon
This house first appears on the 1895 atlas as property of Thomas Rowland, and inspector for the Clement Manufacturing Co. The house was probably built a few years earlier. It is 2 and 1/2 stories high with gable end to the street, a one-story porch covering the three-bay facade and a two-story porch added on at the rear of the western side. The top of the front gable is covered with fish-scale shing and features decorative stick work connecting the end rafters. The front porch has a hipped roof, projecting gabled entrance, square posts with cut-out brackets forming	(Community development -
	E	This b Rowland, and inspector for a few years earlier. It i	nouse first appears the Clement Manufa s 2 and 1/2 stories	on the 1895 atlas as property of cturing Co. The house was proba- high with gable end to the stree	bly built et, a
	H 88 00 11 8 11 8 11 11 11 11 11 11 11 11 11 11	This had Rowland, and inspector for a few years earlier. It is one-story porch covering the rear of the western side. and features decorative stapped roof, projecting generals.	nouse first appears the Clement Manufa s 2 and 1/2 stories the three-bay facade The top of the fro tick work connecting abled entrance, squa	on the 1895 atlas as property of cturing Co. The house was probabling with gable end to the stream and a two-story porch added on a stable is covered with fish-act the end rafters. The front porce posts with cut-out brackets for	bly built et, a at the ale shing ch has a
	H c c c c	This had Rowland, and inspector for a few years earlier. It is one-story porch covering the rear of the western side. and features decorative stapped roof, projecting generals.	nouse first appears the Clement Manufa s 2 and 1/2 stories the three-bay facade The top of the fro tick work connecting abled entrance, squa	on the 1895 atlas as property of cturing Co. The house was probabling with gable end to the stream and a two-story porch added on a stable is covered with fish-act the end rafters. The front porce posts with cut-out brackets for	bly built et, a at the ale shing ch has a
	H c c c c	This had Rowland, and inspector for a few years earlier. It is one-story porch covering the rear of the western side. and features decorative stapped roof, projecting generals.	nouse first appears the Clement Manufa s 2 and 1/2 stories the three-bay facade The top of the fro tick work connecting abled entrance, squa	on the 1895 atlas as property of cturing Co. The house was probabling with gable end to the stream and a two-story porch added on a stable is covered with fish-act the end rafters. The front porce posts with cut-out brackets for	bly built et, a at the ale shing ch has a

10. Bibliography and/or references (such as local histories, deeds, assessor's records, 1873, 1895, 1915 Atlases.

Northampton Directory: 1885-1886, 1895-96.

early maps, etc.)