9. Historical significance (include explanation of themes checked above)

This one-and-a-half story cottage first appears on the 1873 atlas as property of Frederick Moore, a farmer. It was built after 1867 when G.F. Miller filed his subdivision plan for the northern half of North Maple St.

The cottage features steeply-pitched gable roof, a long ell on the southern side (now with enclosed porch) and a one-story porch on the facade. The front porch has a flat roof with projecting cornice, and turned posts with elaborate brackets.
